ASSURANCE
WHAT the year may bring
Of days not understood,
We cannot say that everything
Will have to be our friend.

SOMETHING NEW
AND the year, said the tree,
Express the laurel and the bay.

NEW YEAR'S EVE
And here we stand to say "Good-by!"
Brief words—and yet we scarce know why.

HERE we stand again on the borderland of Welcome and Good-by. There is so little between them and so much either side of them.

Animals and New Year's Day IN ITALY, Spain and France more is made of New Year's day than Christmas and on St. Sylvester's eve as the last day of the year is called the most auspicious prevails. Even the animals are blessed in the churches.

WINDMILLS IN PLACE OF SAILS.
Windmills to drive ships are the product of the French inventions department, an official war agency that has been continued. These windmills are intended to enable countries without coal or oil fields to sail the seas without coal or petroleum. The power of the windmill is transmitted below decks, where it later appears at the propellers.—The Nation's Business.
