

THE CASKET,
AND
PHILADELPHIA MONTHLY MAGAZINE
Unexampl'd success.

Prospectus for a New Volume.
The great subscription list of the Casket, which has been nearly doubled since the commencement of the last volume, warrants the most extensive improvements on the 1st of July, 1840—at which time a new volume will be commenced with new vigor. Nothing need be said of the firm basis on which the Casket stands, it being already the oldest Magazine in the country, and has maintained its popularity in the face of all opposition it is to be found on the centre table of all families making literary pretensions from Mobile to Georgia.

TYPE EMBELLISHMENT.
The Casket is printed with a clear and beautiful type, upon the finest white paper. The illustrations are not surpassed by those of any other periodical at home or abroad, and beside the monthly steel engravings, a quarterly plate of colored fashions has been lately added. The style of these embellishments is unequalled, and they are always accompanied with an appropriate sketch. No wood cuts disgrace the work.

WHAT EVER APPEARS IN THE CASKET IS THE FIRST ORDER OF ART.
The volume will be opened with the first of a series of splendid Mezzotint engravings, prepared expressly for the work, from the burin of Sartian, who deservedly stands as the best engraver of the kind in the United States.

LITERARY CHARACTER.
The literary character of the Casket is very well known. It is wholly original, and sustained by Writers of the first rank. Essays, Tales, Sketches, and Travels, compose its prominent articles, while the poetry is equalled by no other magazine of like character. The variety for which the Casket is celebrated, shall suffer no diminution, but on the contrary, every exertion shall be made to increase its interest.

SEVERAL ROMANCES ON THE REVOLUTION have already appeared, and others shall in the course of the Volume, presenting, when finished, a complete account of all the great battles of that time. Thus, the Casket, instead of being filled with sickly sentimentalists, aims at a true delineation of human nature in every variety of passion.

The series of Thrilling Nautical Sketches, entitled "Cruizing in the last war" and which are rated by the contemporary press, equal to the celebrated Sketches from "Tom Cringle's Log" will be continued, and the "Leaves from a Lawyer's Port Folio," which have attained a deserved celebrity, will still furnish attraction to the Magazine.

We shall furnish the readers of the Casket with valuable papers, from entirely new contributions. The author of "Old Iron Sides on a Lea Shore," will give the first of a number of Sketches in the July number. We count on his prolific and graceful pen to do much in maintaining the great popularity of the Magazine. In addition to the variety already embraced in the pages of the Magazine, our "Letters from Palmyra," the first of which appeared in the June number as introductory, will interest and add mirth to its pages. They are from no unpracticed pen.

FASHIONS
The fashions are published quarterly in the Casket, or as often as any really new style, arrives from Paris. THE ENGRAVINGS ARE COLORED AND EXECUTED FROM ORIGINAL DESIGNS. No old worn out cuts are retouched, and then published as the latest fashions. The truth of our designs may be tested by comparing them with the latest description of dresses from London and Paris. They are universally admitted to be the finest specimens of engraving and coloring afforded by any magazine in the country. The expense of getting them up is great but we shall in no wise abate the quality. Remember, the readers of the Casket are furnished with these fashionable plates as an extra. They do not interfere with the regular and choice engravings which always accompany the work.

TIME OF PUBLICATION
The Casket is published on the first of the month in every quarter of the Union. The most distant subscriber consequently receives it on that day, as well as those who reside in Philadelphia. In all the principal cities agents have been established, by which means subscribers in the vicinity can obtain their copies free of postage.

TERMS—THREE DOLLARS per annum or two copies a year for five dollars, invariably in ADVANCE, POST PAID. No new subscriptions received without the money, or the name of a responsible agent.

*Editors who may copy this Prospectus, and will send a copy marked with ink, addressed to the Saturday Evening Post, (which will save the Publisher the postage on newspapers) shall be promptly furnished with the work. To be particular in this matter, we should like a copy of the paper marked more than once, that no mistake or delay may occur. Editors are served with the Magazine from the time the advertisement is inserted. We mention this, as many inserted the advertisement at the close of the last volume and expected all the back numbers. This, of course we could not expect to grant.

BOSTON NOTION.

THE LARGEST PAPER IN THE WORLD

The spirit of the age is utilitarian. Improvement is stamped upon the face of every thing. All the useful arts are progressing with unparalleled rapidity, and the art of printing is coming in for a full share of the common improvement. Determined not to be outdone in any that pertains to his profession, where there is a fair chance for exertion and enterprise, the undersigned has determined upon issuing a sheet twice the size of the Boston Weekly Times, (and to take the place of that paper,) and will contain eight columns more than the Boston Times, this sheet will be called the BOSTON NOTION, and it is determined, that it shall sustain a cognomen so full of meaning, and so interwoven with the established character of our Yankee City. It will be the largest newspaper in the world—and no exception—and will be printed on a sheet 37 by 52 inches. It will be filled entirely with reading matter, and will contain three thousand eight hundred and eighty eight square feet in type, and a single number will contain more reading than an ordinary book of three hundred pages.—These great dimensions will enable the publisher to draw largely upon the most popular periodicals and magazines of the day; both American and foreign; and as the selections will be made with great care, it is believed that this paper will be a welcome NOTION in every family. Besides a new synopsis of the current news of the day—as published in the Boston Times—it will contain Poetry, Popular Tales, Theoretical Criticism, Police and other Court reports, numerous articles, &c.

The whole world of literature will be ransacked to fill it. From the study of Philology down to the police court, through all the regions of reason, poetry, romance, wit, and the ample record of folly, we shall glean from the past and present and from all nations, to present as pleasing and useful combinations of recorded thoughts and current history, as the world can produce. This is our "Boston Notion."

The great amount of wisdom and fun—of wit and philosophy—of novels and antiquities—we are enabled to offer weekly for six cents per copy, only six cents, and can do it because of the facilities of our press and office, and the connections of daily and weekly publications. For three dollars we can sell a year's volume equal in quality of matter, every variety also, to fifty-two volumes of novels, such as are issued from the press of this day. Fifty-two large volumes for three dollars! effected all by improved machinery, and by determination that we will not be outdone in enterprise and usefulness.

TERMS.
Three dollars a year, always in advance. No orders, no matter from what source will be attended to, unless accompanied with the cash. Single copies six cents each.

Mail subscribers will have their papers deposited in the Post Office in this city every Saturday evening. GEORGE ROBERTS, Publisher.

P. S. The Notion will be published on a double sheet, every three months, and sent as gratuity to all subscribers who have paid for one year.

January, 1841.

PROSPECTUS

FOR PUBLISHING IN THE CITY OF JACKSON A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER

TO BE ENTITLED THE TRUE ISSUE

TO BE EDITED BY ALEXANDER K. MCLUNG

THE late political contest, associated me temporarily with the press, and like most of those once drawn within the sphere of its attraction, I must acknowledge a disposition to continue the connection.

The "True Issue" was intended to continue to the election only; the other whig paper, it seems has been permanently dropped, and the majority of government, which agrees with it in opinion. The condition of the State however, requires that by some one, a journal should be established, which will be devoted industriously to the discussion of political principles, and to the dissemination of correct intelligence. However wealthy may be the State, the state government is most calamitously embarrassed! The Public Treasury is exhausted, and its prospective resources crippled by a close and ineffective mode of collecting the taxes assessed, as well as by a profuse issue (even now continued) of Treasury warrants, so grossly depreciated as to serve no other purpose than that of paying taxes, and thereby preventing the government from receiving the current means necessary for the liquidation of imperative expenditures.

The wisdom of the Legislature may remedy this adverse position of affairs, it seems to me, by a skilful application of the means in our reach, and by a reform, particularly in the mode of collecting the revenue, without the imposition of farther burthens upon the people. But under the pressure of the embarrassing circumstances, thus briefly alluded to, it is not improbable that wild and disorganizing propositions will be advanced, and legislation attempted, injurious either to the character or the interests of the State. Against these results, it is the province of the press to exert what influence it may possess, however feeble, and having reason to believe that the erection of a journal for these purposes, will be satisfactory to those with whom I have heretofore acted, and will be profitable to myself, I have determined to undertake it, by reviving the "True Issue."

It will be of the largest class of Southern Journals, and its size will enable me to pay the attention to commercial and general intelligence, which the scantiness of room, as well as the exclusively political character of the journal compelled me to withhold, from those subjects during the last summer.

I have formed an engagement with an experienced practical printer, whose skill will render its mechanical execution of the first class. The first number will be issued on the 1st of January, 1841. Price, $5 in advance. The Editors of the Natchez Courier, Yazoo Banner, and Holly Springs Conservative, will oblige me by inserting this.

ALEX. K. MCLUNG.

N. B. I will necessarily be absent from the State for some weeks, but until I return, a couple of gentlemen, whose communications have always attracted attention both in this and in other papers, have agreed to write for it in my stead.
