Refused at a Restaurant.
Mr. Rice of Chicago, who has been raiding for the past twenty four years, reports, that while in Wheeling, W. Va., last Monday he met with his first refusal in a restaurant. It was a greater insult from the fact that the restaurant is owned by two colored men Yates and Williams at No. 1402 Market street. Mr. Rice went in and sat down at a table, but was roughly informed that Colored people were not served in the "white folks" dining room and that if he wished anything to eat he would have to go up stairs to a room set apart for Colored people. This he refused to do and leaving the place, he went to a first class restaurant owned by a white man and was served without question. Such Colored business men, who discriminate against their people are a disgrace to their race.

Moving Day.
Now is the soulful time when the hapless married man covers his Sunday suit with soot and sacrifices his religion in an endeavor to put up stove pipes that will not fit. These are moving times, indeed, and we may say with the poet, that "The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year." But in moving from one place to another, you will always escape discomfort by taking the Saint Paul & Duluth Railroad, which is the best and shortest route to and from St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, West Superior, and other points, making close connections beyond. For information apply to A. B. Plough, General Passenger Agent, St. Paul, Minn., or to ticket agents.

THE CENTENNIAL.

Chicago's Grand Celebration of the One Hundredth Anniversary of Washington's Inauguration.

Washington's Inauguration.

Tuesday was a gala day in Chicago. Patriotism ran high and he was a traitor who did not feel his bosom throbb at love of country shown by the people on the hundredth anniversary of the inauguration of the nation's first president.

The official celebration of the constitutional centennial began at 8 o'clock in the morning, when a great chorus of bells and whistles saluted the close of a century of National existence.

Once started the following programme was carried out:

At 8:30 o'clock, salute of thirteen guns.

At 9 o'clock, church services at all houses of worship.

At 11 o'clock, exercises at all public schools.

At 12:30 o'clock, salute of forty-two guns in honor of the States now in the Union.

At 3 o'clock, mass-meetings in the Exposition Building, Central Music Hall, Battery D, Second regiment Armory, Farwell Hall, Board of Trade Hall, and two tents in Lake Front Park.

At 7:30 o'clock, fireworks at Lincoln Park, the West Side Driving Park, and Lake Front Park.

At 8 o'clock, banquet at the Union League Club.

IN THE CHURCHES

John Brown Post and Martin Delaney Post G. A. R. attended services at Olivet church where they listened to a patriotic sermon by the pastor, Rev. J. F. Thomas. Mrs. Eliza Reed sang "John Brown's body," the entire audience joining in the chorus, appropriate selection were also rendered by the choir.

Special services were also held at all the other churches.

THE MASS MEETINGS

At 3 o'clock, mass meetings occurred at the following places which were crowded to their utmost capacity:

Exposition Building, Battery D, Second Regiment Michigan Avenue Armory, Central Music Hall, Farwell Hall, Board of Trade Hall, and two tents on the lake front.

The programmes were similar at each meeting and was as follows:

1. Overture of American airs. Orchestra

QUINN CHAPEL

The ladies of Quinn Chapel gave a Martha Washington tea party and mock inauguration Tuesday night. Mr. Solomon Taylor assumed the character of America's first president and was duly installed in office. Miss Luella Points took the character of Martha Washington. Mrs. T. W. Henderson, wife of the pastor, a most beautiful woman, was the Goddess of Liberty. The choir rendered choice music. There were also solos by Misses Jackson and Spencer. The whole closed with the grand chorus "America."

THE GARDEN CITY LYCEUM

The Garden City Lyceum celebrated the Centennial at Bethel church in the evening. After a few explanatory remarks by Mr. R. S. Bryan, president of the Club, Mr. A. S. Saunders, master of ceremonies introduced Mr. Morris who made a speech. Mr. R. H. Catbell read a paper on the Race Problem. Mr. J. C. Battles delivered a long address on the "Progress of the Race." Rev. Reynolds made closing remarks and refreshments were served.

THE 3 O'CLOCK MEETING

No one knew who were to be speakers at the various meetings, but the committee, this prevented the missing of the people at any particular meeting to hear a favorite orator Hon. John M. Langston spoke at Battery D to an audience of 12,000 people. His eloquent address was most enthusiastically received.

"Excuse haste and a bad pen," was the message left behind by a Colored convict on escaping from a Southern penitentiary.

IN LANGSTON'S HONOR.

Grand Banquet Tendered the Great Orator by His Fellow Citizens

At the Palmer House.

Wednesday night Hon. John M. Langston delivered the annual address to the Colored Men's Library Association, at Quinn Chapel. The church was crowded and the distinguished orator made an address which was received with vociferous applause. At 11 o'clock about sixty of Chicago's representative Colored citizens repaired to the Palmer House where a banquet was served in honor of the distinguished guest.

Mr. F. L. Barnett presided and at his right sat the guest of the evening.

The table was set to represent three-fourths of a parallelogram. The room was radiant with electric lights, and presented an exceedingly bright appearance. At each plate was a menu card and a list of toasts, as well as a boutonniere.

The following was the very elaborate menu:

Dressed Lettuce. Saratoga Chips.

Broiled Jack Snipe on Toast.

Charlotte Russe. Assorted Cakes.

Tuti Frutti Ice Cream.

Fruit.

Cheese. Crackers.

Coffee.

Cigars.

After the croquettes a silent toast was drunk to the honored guest, all arose and greeted him silently. It was half past one when the speech making began.

The following toasts were then responded to:

"Our Guest," F. L. Barnett.

"The Colored Pulpit," Rev. Jordan Chavis.

"Our Girls and Boys," J. W. E. Thomas.

"The Colored Soldier," Hannibal Carter.

"The Negro in Politics," the Hon. John M. Langston.

"Women of the Race," the Rev. T. W. Henderson.

"Our Professional Men," E. H. Morris.

"Race Leaders," R. M. Mitchell.

"The Colored Press," A. T. Hall, Jr.

A Summer Tour.

It is not too soon to be planning for the spending of your summer vacation, and let us suggest that one of the most delightful journeys imaginable is a trip through Colorado. Your first real view of Rocky Mountain scenery will be at the beautiful city of Denver, which you can best reach from the Mississippi Valley by the palatial vestibule trains of "The Burlington." Thence you can go over the crest of the continent, through the grandest mountain scenery on the globe, landing in Salt Lake, the curious city of the "Saints," or numerous short tours can be taken to a hundred places of great interest. In no other part of the country is so great a variety of Rocky Mountain landscape to be seen from the car window. For full information as to rates, etc., address W. J. C. Kenyon, Gen. Pass. Agent, C. B. & N. R. R., St. Paul, Minn.
