

THE APPEAL

Published Weekly

Northwestern Publishing Company

SAINT PAUL OFFICE

NO. 76 EAST FIFTH STREET, ST. PAUL, MINN.

MINNEAPOLIS OFFICE

224 HENNEPIN AVENUE, Z. W. YITCHELL, Manager.

CHICAGO OFFICE

COMO BLOCK, 325 Dearborn St. Rooms 13, 14 and 15. C. F. ADAMS, Manager.

LOUISVILLE OFFICE

319 W. Jefferson Street, Room 3, H. C. WEDDEN, Manager.

ST. LOUIS OFFICE

1002 FRANKLIN AVENUE, W. M. FARMER, Manager.

TERMS

Single copy, per year, $2.00. Six months, $1.10. Three months, $0.60. Subscriptions to be paid in advance.

Entered at Postoffice as Second-Class Matter, Saturday, May 25, 1899.

These rampant Southern editors who talk so grandiloquently of the "Solid South" and who base their political theories upon the assumption that the continuance of that solidity is inevitable have a most sublime indifference for states and contempt for facts and figures.

here presented, especially if the social condition of the colored race in this country is an index of that of the country at large. Without guaranteeing the correctness of the health officer's statistics, we may remark that he alludes to an evil that is prevalent to an alarming extent.

With this issue THE APPEAL closes the fourth year of its existence. The outlook for its fifth year is bright, judging from the past. Papers published by Colored men, devoted to Colored people, have not generally been successful financially; but THE APPEAL has been enabled to meet all obligations as they arose.

It is rumored that a portion of the whites who are employed in the General Land Office are distressed because Rev. J. M. Townsend has been appointed Recorder.

ST. PAUL

Don't fail to hear the laughable drama "To Oblige Benson" May 31. Bring your job printing to THE APPEAL office, No. 76 E. Fifth street.

The English melo-drama, "Romany Rye" at the People's next week. The city council held their first session in the new chamber Tuesday evening.

Mr. S. E. Hardy who has been employed as janitor in the old court house was on last Monday night appointed to a similar position in the new one.

High mass will be celebrated at the Colored Catholic church at 10:00 o'clock a. m. to-morrow, Father Sullivan officiating.

o'clock. An interesting programme will be presented. All are invited. The office of THE APPEAL has been moved from Union Cedar to No. 76 East Fifth street between Cedar and Minnesota where we have more commodious and desirable quarters.

Mr. J. K. Hilyard is an agent of the National Savings, Loan and Building Association which is incorporated under the statutes of Minnesota with an authorized capital of $5,000,000.

The cyclorama of the naval battle between the Monitor and Merrimack now on exhibition in the building corner of Sixth and St. Peter is the most realistic ever exhibited. Art and nature combine in a pleasing manner so closely that one cannot tell the one from the other.

About the middle of February Mr. W. I. Miller opened the "Palace Saloon," at No. 106 E. Fifth street. He has endeavored to keep a first class place and has had wonderful success.

Among the most delightful entertainments our city has enjoyed recently was the one given by Stevens Lodge A. F. and A. M. at their hall on Jackson street last Monday.

After an absence of over a week, Rev. J. M. Henderson has returned and entered upon his work with renewed vigor. The services morning and night were well attended and full of interest.

The young ladies Steeple Club have raised and deposited with the trustees $100.00 all the money raised by them is to be applied to the purchase of the corner lot adjacent to the church.

Have you read it? No! Well send to The Plaindealer, Box 92, Detroit, Mich., and a copy of Hon. Fred Douglass' last great address will be sent to you free.

The St. Phillips Society will hold its next meeting at the residence of Mrs. T. H. Griswold No. 28 East Sixth street Wednesday evening May 29th at 8

Pilgrim Baptist Church. The Godly must die, even as others. Though our life be perfectly consecrated, it cannot forever be continued in this world, nor would we wish it so.

Life's work well done, Life's crown well worn, Then comes rest. The children of Sister Rayford have been adopted by friends of the family.

The sparkling drama entitled "To Oblige Benson" will be given in connection with the apron sale on the 31st inst. Work on the cantata is progressing nicely.

Don't fail to hear the laughable drama "To Oblige Benson" which will take place on the 31st of May at Pilgrim Baptist church, in which our leading amateur will appear: Miss Mary Hunton, as Mrs. Southdown; Miss Lulu Griswold, as Mrs. Benson; Mr. Richard Farr, as Mr. Southdown; Mr. Willie Francis, as Mr. Benson; Mr. Charles James, as Mr. Meredith; elegant stage costumes will be worn.

Popular Summer Resort. If they have not already gone, many fortunate people who have the means to enable them to remain out of town during the hot summer months are beginning to cast about for the right sort of a retreat for their families.

Mr. Geo. Bolden is much better. Go to Mrs. Williams for board 219 3rd street S. Mr. M. Hunton boarding and rooms at 206 Third ave. S.

St. James A. M. E. Church. After an absence of over a week, Rev. J. M. Henderson has returned and entered upon his work with renewed vigor.

Where to Get THE APPEAL. For the benefit of persons who are not regular subscribers, THE APPEAL is on sale in Chicago at the following places every week.

Chicago Office, 325 Dearborn street

Lomack has been remarkably successful since he took charge of the church and with the additions that are being made to the already neat and commodious structure he will have a church edifice of which he, and his flock, may well be proud.

About twelve members of the St. Peter's A. M. E. church met in its basement Wednesday evening and after unusual devotional exercises were indulged in, the pastor announced that further business was before the house, and after properly presenting it, he proceeded to appoint a committee of three to act as jurors in the church trial of F. L. Anderson, Messrs. R. Ragan, Wm. Arnold and R. Spotts, being the chosen ones.

The corner of Fifty-ninth street and Evanston avenue is about 300 yards from the Argyle Park station on the Chicago & Evanston branch of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road. It is but two or three blocks from the corner of the street and about nine-tenths of a mile north of the corner of Sulzer street and Evanston avenue, where the empty trunk was found.

John E. Scanlan, Mortimer Scanlan and John F. Scanlan were among the first to arrive. They identified the body as that of Cronin upon first sight. Later it was more positively identified by L. L. Conklin, the saloon keeper whom Cronin frequented, and by James Boland and Patrick McGary.

MINNEAPOLIS. Mr. Geo. Bolden is much better. Go to Mrs. Williams for board 219 3rd street S. Mr. M. Hunton boarding and rooms at 206 Third ave. S.

St. John's Day. Corinthian Commandery No. 1, St. George No. 4, and Godfrey No. 5, K. T. and the Ladies Courts and Chapters will duly celebrate St. John's day June 24, by a grand entertainment. The best talent in the city will appear. There will also be an exhibition drill.

The First of May. The first of May has come and there are a number of our subscribers who will move to new residences. All who change their addresses are requested to send postal cards notifying us of the change. Be sure to give full name, and the old as well as the new address. Address the cards: THE APPEAL, Chicago, Ill. Just as soon as you move to your new residences notify us, not before.

Chicago Office, 325 Dearborn street

CRONIN WAS KILLED. The Body of the Missing Chicago Irish Agitator Found in a Sewer in a Suburban Town. Although Badly Mangled and Decomposed, Friends Readily Identify the Remains—No Traces of the Murderer Discovered—Theories as to the Cause of the Crime Are Plentiful.

Chicago, May 23.—The body of Dr. P. H. Cronin, the Irish agitator who disappeared from his home two weeks ago, was found Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in a catch basin on Evanston avenue. A towel was wrapped about the head, but the rest of the body was stark naked. The Catholic church called the "Agnus Dei," which the doctor always wore next his skin, suspended about his neck, was untouched. On the head the marks left by a dozen deep cuts which have severed the scalp and indented the skull. It is the opinion of the police officers. The doctor was found in a catch basin on Evanston avenue. A towel was wrapped about the head, but the rest of the body was stark naked.

The corner of Fifty-ninth street and Evanston avenue is about 300 yards from the Argyle Park station on the Chicago & Evanston branch of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road. It is but two or three blocks from the corner of the street and about nine-tenths of a mile north of the corner of Sulzer street and Evanston avenue, where the empty trunk was found.

John E. Scanlan, Mortimer Scanlan and John F. Scanlan were among the first to arrive. They identified the body as that of Cronin upon first sight. Later it was more positively identified by L. L. Conklin, the saloon keeper whom Cronin frequented, and by James Boland and Patrick McGary.

MINNEAPOLIS. Mr. Geo. Bolden is much better. Go to Mrs. Williams for board 219 3rd street S. Mr. M. Hunton boarding and rooms at 206 Third ave. S.

St. John's Day. Corinthian Commandery No. 1, St. George No. 4, and Godfrey No. 5, K. T. and the Ladies Courts and Chapters will duly celebrate St. John's day June 24, by a grand entertainment. The best talent in the city will appear. There will also be an exhibition drill.

The First of May. The first of May has come and there are a number of our subscribers who will move to new residences. All who change their addresses are requested to send postal cards notifying us of the change. Be sure to give full name, and the old as well as the new address. Address the cards: THE APPEAL, Chicago, Ill. Just as soon as you move to your new residences notify us, not before.

Chicago Office, 325 Dearborn street

rumor. It was also stated that another arrest had been made to-day. New York, May 23.—John Devoy had heard of the finding of Dr. Cronin's body when seen by a reporter last night. "I am not surprised to hear my years that Cronin was murdered verified." Continuing, he said: "The dental skull and the many stab wounds caused conclusively that Dr. Cronin was savagely murdered. I think I know the dentist who is, or at least who was the instigator of the crime. Cronin's death is the result of a conspiracy of certain men who were accused of embezzling large sums of money from the Farnell fund that had been collected in Chicago and elsewhere. Cronin, myself and others knew of their dishonesty, and they were determined to resolve to enforce silence by murder, and Cronin is the first victim. Now that the accounts have gone so far with their devilish work I hope and trust they will soon be apprehended and meet the fate that their crimes deserve."

Devo mentioned no names but seemed to be confident that he could easily call the roll on the guilty parties. Saturday, May 4, at 7:30 p. m., Dr. Cronin was taken to the police station in a state of unconsciousness. The rooms of the flat he occupied in the Windsor Theater Block with Mr. and Mrs. T. Conklin. Somebody rang on the door of the flat. Mrs. Conklin opened the door. The stranger told Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over and crushed and that Sullivan, who was out of town, had left word that Cronin should be called in case of any accident. The doctor said he would go at once to Sullivan's home. Mrs. Conklin called Dr. Cronin. The stranger told Dr. Cronin in Mrs. Conklin's hearing that a workman of the Sullivan Ice company had been run over