OUR GREAT DETECTIVE.

The Good Work Done by Enos Bond the Only Colored Officer in Englewood. Dastard Deeds of Darcy.

For sometime the people of Englewood have been making complaint to the police department concerning their flow-ers. A reward of $25 was offered a few days ago and the police department went to work. It resulted in the arrest of Willie Burton, a Colored girl about 13, by Enos Bond, the Colored detective. She would not go to school, but delighted in roaming about the streets at all hours of the day and night, and has made several tours of the Washington Park stables where she had been known to spend the night. Upon returning from the stable on one occasion she was very ill and it was believed that she had been tampered with. She was finally prevailed upon to give the names of a following men and boys, some of whom are located about Englewood. John Greene, Joe Darcy, Mont Alsp, Dan Ransom, Wm. Roache, and Jas. Watson, all of whom were arrested with a number of others. Joe Darcy is the engineer at the Washington Park stables, and it is claimed that he dragged the girl into the engine-room where he criminally assaulted her. The matter, it is said, was reported at the Englewood police station about a month ago, but no action taken until recently. Enos Bond was put on the force. The men were arraigned before Justice Cadwell who held them over to the grand jury with bonds ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. It is said that while one man was on trial he arose and said: "Mr. Judge, it may be that you know your business, but allow me to say to you that I am a child of God. I am an active worker in the Salvation Army; I am working to save souls. I was trying to make a Christian out of the little girl. I often prayed with her." "Put up $2,000 and tell your story to the grand jury," said the judge. The girl was sent to the House of Good Shepherd last week.

Miss Sarah Campbell was tendered a surprise Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brown, 508 Roselane prior to her leaving for Danville, K., to spend the summer. There have been more excursions among the Colored people this year than ever before. Next winter many who are now giving the railroads their money will be suffering for want of bread. It is said that several prominent young ladies, while passing the Pickwick Club rapped on the windows to attract the members' attention. President Baine says he'll stop that kind of business. Mr. Richard Wright who has been attending the Episcopal Theological school in New York is in the city. Mr. Wright is a West Indian and has been in this country about seven years. He completes his studies in '91. THE APPEAL is on sale every week at these places: Bud. Malone's, 509 W. Green street; C. Smith's 411 First street; Henry Norton's, 927 W. Walnut street; J. H. Taylor's, 515 W. Broadway; J. H. Joran's Jackson and Caldwell streets. George Rogers, a Colored boy, was arrested by Officers Donovan and Stone, at a second-hand store on Market street, yesterday morning, while trying to dispose of two pairs of pantaloons. It was afterward learned that he had stolen them from Pelle's tailor shop at 538 West market street. The news of the outrage committed on one of the girls of the Colored Orphans Home, spread like wild-fire, and is pronounced one of the meanest things ever perpetrated here. THE APPEAL reporter saw several members of the Board of Directors, but they declined to say anything and averse to giving any facts in the case, but, said a member of the Board to the reporter: "I think the public ought to have the true facts in the case, every iota; this is the public's institution and as a board of directors we are doing business for them. They should know that the girl has been away from the Home about three months and that a still search has been made since then, but without avail until recently, and to our astonishment she was found. Said he: "You would be surprised to know that the girl was carried over to New Albany, and the girl herself, divulged to a committeeman the whole thing; who committed the crime, and how she came to be in New Albany." "I tell you it is awful." The action of the directors holding a meeting and appointing a committee is commented on and the immediate steps taken by the board will serve to strengthen the confidence of the public in regard to the faithful discharge of the duty of such official committee with the Home. It is not a Baptist, Methodist, Episcopal, Presbyterian or any other denominational institution, but belongs to the people. The Home was organized about twelve years ago and was put on permanent basis by leading white citizens. It is sustained by collections held in churches, society, lodge, and individual membership fee, and means otherwise solicited. No longer than last year $5,000 was left to the Home by Mr. Mayer, deceased. The public is looking forward to the Board for full details, and not until this is done, as the people's Home it will not thrive. The reporter asked what was done at the Board meeting. The member said "the matron's position had been declared vacant and she ordered to leave the premises and a committee was appointed to see that she left the next day. Mrs. Mary L. Mead Hadin presented a magnificent bouquet and a purse of money was also presented. Mrs. Clay left for Batavia, Ill, Wednesday, where she will spend the summer. The article in last week's paper, in reference to the son of W. I. Evans, being shot at by the special policeman, Charles Fontaine, was a little misleading. The facts are, the boy was not in the woodyard at all, but was sitting talking to another boy, and having made some remark which was overheard by Fontaine, and which he did not like, he used his authority to attempt to arrest him, and as he ran to escape arrest, he shot at him. The action of Fontaine in the matter was very reprehensible, yet when the matter was called in court he was discharged.

MULTUM IN PARVO.

News Pertaining to the Colored People of the Land of the Free and Home of the Brave. Gathered From Everywhere.

In a row on Sunday between Colored men and Hungarians at Havenstraw, N. Y., four of the latter were shot, one being killed instantly, and another mortally wounded. Albert Young and Henry Crump, Colored, of Texasiana, Tex., became involved in a difficulty Monday night, which resulted in Crump killing Young with a sick knife. Sam Coleman, Colored was called to the door of his home near Hopkinsville Friday night, and after a desperate struggle with two unknown men, was shot and killed. The assassins escaped. So far, the monarchs who have visited the Paris exhibition are "gentlemen of color." Thus, his majesty King Dinah Sallou is the king of Nalon, a not very large district on the banks of the Senegal. The "Black Chief," of herculean proportions, who is being so lionized just now by the French ladies of fashion is not really a reigning chief at all, but is the son of the chief of a country known as the Mellacorea. which is under French protection. Last Saturday at Tiptonville, Tenn., a sort of mob composed of Colored gamblers hung Alf Hawkins in a fit of rage. It seems that he had won all the money the men had, and they, enraged at their loss, carried him forcibly off of a boat, first throwing a sack over his head to prevent his outcries from attracting attention. They then carried him into the woods and drew him up to a limb, demanding that he should return the money. He refused to comply with their wishes, and they jerked him up for a good. He lived in Memphis, and was a noted gambler. Stephen Hodge, an old Colored man, was killed last Saturday by Benjamin Lawson, a farmer, living near Upper Marlboro, Ind., Lawson is now in jail. Lawson was in Upper Marlboro on the morning. He started for home about 11 o'clock. Arriving there, he found old "Uncle Steve" and a young man named James Stewart near his corn house. They had an ox cart with them. Lawson, thinking they had been stealing his corn, struck the old man a terrific crack on the head with a stick. The blow smashed the old man's skull, and he fell in his tracks. Lawson then tied the old man's hands and feet with a rope and left him lying there. The Colored population are very much excited over the murder and all classes of citizens regard it as a brutal crime. Doings in Duluth. Mr. W. H. Bryant took a trip to Atlantic City, N. E. church: A meeting was held last Friday night, and Messrs. J. M. Murphy, J. N. Richey and J. H. Simms were elected trustees. Mrs. Frank White who came to this city from Morestown, Pa., to join her husband about three weeks ago, is a valuable addition to our society. Mr. and Mrs. White are now comfortably settled in their new residence No. 314, Fourth street, W. Pilgrim Baptist Church. The church aid society is furnishing good healthful entertainments for all, whether members or not. An interesting feature of last week was a spelling match. Mr. R. S. Anderson and Miss Nellie Griswold were chosen captains. Each chose nine persons. Mr. H. Hunting was conductor. The spelling was good and many held their places a long time, Mr. Curtis carried off the palm. The society is to give a picnic on the 4th. The programme for Monday evening is good. Our Sunday school is growing in numbers and interest every week, the superintendent spurs no pains to have the best help that he can get on the lessons, and to have the teachers well prepared for their work. It is to be regretted that more of the workers were not at the Sunday school convention. The annual meeting of church and society is to be held on the 23d of July, there are three trustees to be elected. We want all the members and friends to come. Sunday as usual was a day of spiritual blessing, the early prayer meeting was well attended, and much enjoyed. The next meeting will be at Mr. H. Wright's on Ellen street. There are a number on the sick list; Madames Morgan, on Thomas street; Smith, on Ellen street; Smith, on Robert street; and Rolland, on West Side. Let every christian do all he can for suffering humanity, regardless of what church or society they may belong. Don't fail to come to church early Sunday morning. The early bird gets the worm.
