Mrs. J. W. Hackney and daughter Gracie have returned from a visit to Grand Rapids and Chicago.

One of the nicest places in the city to get table board is Hotel de Mink, No. 56 E. Sixth street. If you haven't been there go and learn for yourself.

Mrs. Harriet Jackson and Misses Mamie and Hattie Weir of Minneapolis, were the guests of Mrs. Mary Walker of Fuller street, for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Hilyard entered at dinner Thursday. Mrs. T. R. C. Taylor of Warrendale, Mrs. Lizzie Morris of Louisville, Mr. C. F. Adams of Chicago.

Mr. J. J. Allen is the happiest man in town and it was all caused by a little 10 pound girl who appears at his house last Saturday. He is already building a $3,000 house for her.

Visitors to this city will find it to their advantage to obtain accommodations at the "Little Ryan," corner of Sixth and Robert, Mrs. Emma Glover, proprietor. Terms very reasonable.

High mass will be celebrated at the Colored Catholic church at 10:00 o'clock a. m. to-morrow, Father Sullivan officiating. Sunday school at 12 m. Evening services at 7:30 conducted by Father Shanley.

At the picnic next Wednesday by the young men of the Hotel Ryan there will be a match game of base ball for a special purse, between the Eagles of Minneapolis, W. Taylor Captain, and the Ryan Club of St. Paul, J. S. Graves, Captain.

A house of ill fame at No. 469 St. Peter street, kept by Mrs. Calias Brown, Colored, was pulled by the police Monday night. Mrs. Brown, two Colored women inmates, and three male visitors were caught. They were fined $10 each by Judge Burr the next morning.

The new Olympic Theatre will open next Monday Aug. 19, the attraction being "Mlle. St. Ormands Midnight Matinee Co.," in the latest sensational novelty, "The down fall of man," a burlesque replete with pretty women, music, songs, marches, costumes. In this company are some of the best specialty stars in the profession. The company comprises 30 A 1 artists and will be the most novel and spicy show St. Paul has seen for many a day.

Mr. George Brown the original proprietor of The Rialto, No. 378 Minnesota street, has again taken possession of the restaurant. He has renovated the whole place and has re-papered and painted it on a nice attractive style making it one of the most eating houses in the city. He has placed the price of regular meals at 15 cents and serves the best meals to be found in the city at that price. A visit to his place will convince the most skeptical. Give him a call. Meals to order at all hours.

The members of the St. James A. M. E. church will tender to their pastor Rev. John M. Henderson a testimonial on Monday eve. Aug. 28th, in the Masonic Hall on Jackson street. Mars Lodge Complimented.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 10th, 1889.
Mr. J. W. Smith, Secretary Mars Lodge G. U. O. F. St. Paul.

Dear Sir: I wish to thank your lodge for their patronage to Spring Park August 1st, and to say that with one exception your picnic was the largest this season. I would especially mention your Committee Messrs. Jackson and McCoy and would say that the success of the picnic was due in a great measure to their efforts. The manner in which Mr. McCoy made the settlement demonstrates a thorough knowledge of railway business. Trusting I may be able to meet your committee of 1890 and make arrangements with them I remain Yours Truly,
W. J. Dutch, City Pass. Agt.

Don't Be a Clam!

This expression has perhaps a cheery flavor, and yet it gives such a pungent suggestion in the way of good advice that we venture to use it as a text. A clam is sluggish; keeps himself shut up to all impressions from the world around, buries himself most of the time in mud or sand, and in general is a stay-at-home from away back. If you want to get some good out of life, don't act like a clam, but venture away once in a while from the place where you were born, and see the world. Don't be a clam by being indifferent what line of railroad you travel on, but select the one that is the best in accommodations, fastest in time, surest in connections—"The Burlington." It goes everywhere—reaches by its own line all important western cities, and has excellent connections for all points. For tickets, rates and any information, call on your local ticket agent, or address W. J. C. Kenyon, Gen. Pass. Agent, C. B. & N. R. R., St. Paul, Minn.

CHURCH CIRCLES.

St. Paul Churches and Matters Pertaining to the Spiritual Progress of Their Pastors and People.

The congregation at St. James which is never small continues to grow. A large number of strangers were present Sabbath morning and the service closed by all the people gathering around the altar to pray with a lady who knelt there seeking the face of Jesus.

The conference year draws near its close, Rev. Henderson has been here now two years and finds himself surrounded by friends everywhere, the hearty hand-shakes that greet him wherever he goes, the warm welcome that he receives, crowds that never fail to attend the services all testify of the fact that the people of St. Paul know how to treat one who labors unselfishly for the good of all.

That truth will always triumph was illustrated Sabbath, a family came to St. Paul more than a month ago, and were told by a minister that they would not be welcome at St. James church for the people were stuck-up, last Sabbath however, they came and were greeted so heartily that they told how things had been misrepresented. Thus, those who act unmanly and wretchedly to succeed fail in the end.

Sabbath evening there will be no sermon as the whole time will be devoted to general class, all christians and friends are invited. Sabbath evening a rare treat is promised to all.

Sabbath Aug. 25th will be a high day in Zion Revs. Scott B. Jones of Helena, Mont., and Rev. D. P. Brown, of Washington, D. C., will be present and preach at morning and evening services, and at 3 p. m. sacrament will be administered.

Over 50 persons have already paid their conference dollar money for all others come prepared to do so Sabbath. It is said that a few have been attending services elsewhere in order to avoid this duty. Don't do that friends, pay it if you can, but if you can't, don't sneak away. There will be an old-fashioned love feast Friday night Aug. 23d all are invited.

Pilgrim Baptist Church.

God asks no man whether he will accept life. That is not the choice. You must take it. The only choice is, how our hearts should answer, that I might live it into God, we strive daily to learn the "how." The Wednesday evening Bible class is on the increase, all are cordially invited to attend, only bring your "sword of the Spirit." The Lord graciously visits us on our prayer meetings. Be sure you meet at 6 o'clock Sunday morning in the church, or at sister Anderson Peters. Efforts are being made to have the Choral club a permanent organization, we want all that love music to be in it. The Woman's Missionary Society had a very delightful time, their hearts were warmed up to the work and they mean to do something for home and foreign work, the hostess, Mrs. Fogg, at whose house the society met, spread a very inviting tea, of which all partook.

The interest manifested Sunday was rather more than common, the attendance was large and above all on time. Services begin at the time stated, the people are coming to understand that part. Prof. Z. A. Coleman strengthened the impressions that were made by his God given power of voice, the grand old hymn, "Why Not To-Night?" when sung by him seemed to have a new charm many hearts were touched. Bro. Ford, of Chicago took an active part in our Sunday school. Our flower mission is on the increase let more do what they can in this line, it is the little things that prove our likeness to Christ.

Those on the sick list need our thoughts and prayers, they are sisters C. Moffat, S. Barker and A. M. Smith, Bro. Joseph Salters son passed from this into a better world Sunday morning, the funeral was Monday. At 9 o'clock Sunday morning pastor Sheafe united in holy wedlock Mr. H. Harper and Miss T. Blackman. The literary society will open with a full programme in Sept. Let every body get ready.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hackney entertained at lunch Wednesday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Robinson, Mrs. James Banister, Mrs. R. Roberts, Mrs. J. B. Turner, Misses Ida McRoy, E. Belle Smith, Cora Robinson, Gracie Hackney.

Should you need anything in the jewelry line, call on John D. Bodford 380 East Seventh street, and save ten per cent. Read his advertisement on fourth page.

Prof. Z. A. Coleman will sing at the A. M. E. Church Sunday morning at 10:30 a. m. and at the Baptist church in the evening. The professor is thinking of organizing a singing class and will teach for $3.00 per month.

The Japanese wedding at the St. Peters A. M. E. church last Tuesday eve. proved very successful. The most pleasing feature of the evening was the solo singing by Prof. Z. A. Coleman.

Other pleasant features were the French, German and African medley, sang by Lawyer Morris. The solo singing by Misses Fannie Allen and F. Johnson was excellent. The Japanese wedding scene was quite a novelty all doing well. About two hundred persons were present. The committee realizing about $40.

At the residence of Mrs. Lucy Kelly 110 Washington ave. North, last Thursday evening was given a most pleasant social affair in the form of a birthday party. Among those present were: Messdames J. Adams, St. Paul; A. Brown, Des Moines; B. Martin, Atchinson, Kas.; J. Hatcher, Topeka, Kas.; Miss J. Smith, L. Shafers, Messrs. J. Summers, C. F. Hogan, C. H. Burch, Dennis Peckins, W. Johnson, T. Remember the Blue Front 427 Washington ave. South.

Humane Mr. Keenan.

John A. Dent and Wm. Brown were arrested and fined $20 each by Judge Prindiville, for cruelty to animals on complaint of John Keenan of the Humane Society. Mr. Keenan should turn his humane optic over on Michigan avenue where the wealthy cut off the manes and tails of their horses leaving them at the mercy of flies and other insects, but no it is the poor man that he is after; the others are where his salary comes from and he might be deprived of it if he said to much.

Birthday Party.

Miss Sadie Kennedy gave a delightful birthday party at the residence of Mrs. Addie Carter 2827 Butterfield street Aug. 1st. The parties were beautifully decorated with flowers, and the guests began to arrive about 9 p. m. Music was furnished by Prof. Bert Smith. Dancing and games were indulged in until a late hour. An elegant table of refreshments was prepared for the guests.

St. George Picnic.

Whatever may have been the misgivings of some people on account of the tragedy of the 5th inst., at Momence it did not deter nineteen car loads of pleasure seekers from attending the St. George picnic at Island Park last Monday. The day was delightful, the crowd was in good spirits the gallant Sir Knights did every thing possible to please their guests and a more marked success could not be wished for. Island Park is a natural picnic ground improved upon by man and a more delightful place cannot be found within 50 miles of Chicago. Not a wry word was spoken on the grounds, every one seemed given up to enjoyment. There were some bad boys on the train who got off when stops were made and, with thoughtless vandalism destroyed the products of the gardeners in the vicinity. Of course they forgot that their acts hurt not themselves alone but all the Colored people of Chicago. The committee of arrangements deserve great praise for their successful affair and they can rest assured that every body will look forward to their next picnic with impatience.

Doings in Duluth.

News reached this city last week of the death of Mr. E. A. Stubbs which occurred on the 1st inst. at the home of his mother in Atlanta, Ga. The deceased came to this city about three years ago and by his gentlemanly disposition gained many friends to whom the news of his death brings sorrow. He left here on the advice of his physician about six months ago, hoping to obtain relief from the consumption but hoped in vain. He leaves a wife, a son and a host of relations and friends to mourn his loss. His widow will return to Duluth to reside with her brother Mr. Jones.

Mr. Wm. Franklin, of Detroit, Mich., an employe on a lake steamer who had his leg broken last week and was sent to St. Lukes hospital is progressing nicely.

Look out for the base ball games Aug. 27, 28, 29.

OCTOROON'S REVENGE.

Thwarted in Her Criminal Relations with a White Man She Exposes

The Thefts of Her Informer.

Memphis, August 12.—Louis Radcliffe is the Treasurer of Beal-street Baptist Church, the finest religious house owned by the Colored race in the South. He is also prominent among the Colored Masons, and some years ago was a member of the City Council. At this writing he is in jail, charged with grand larceny, Radcliffe has been for eleven years porter in a Main-street clothing house at a salary of $3 a week, and enjoyed the implicit confidence of the firm. They did not know that he was buying lots and building houses on them, or their suspicions would have been aroused. Yet such was the fact, and it is now known that he possesses a half dozen pieces of valuable property, including a double brick tenement.

The truth came out through Radcliffe's connection with the "Black-Caps," a Colored organization formed for the ostensible purpose of breaking up the immoral relations of white men with Colored women. He reported to his Order a handsome and fairly educated quadroon girl, who was living with a white man, and the man was compelled to break off the connection.

The girl swore vengeance against Radcliffe and set to work to ruin him. She discovered that he had been stealing clothing for years from his employers and selling it to other Colored men, and also found out how he had invested his ill-gotten gains. By anonymous letters she made her discoveries known to the firm and police. Radcliffe was arrested and a large quantity of valuable clothing found concealed at his home. He made a full confession. His thefts amount to thousands of dollars.
