Business at the Olympic during the last week has been excellent. For next week the attractions will be Leo Morley's "Fata Morgana Novelty Co.," one of the strongest vaudeville companies that has been here this season. Besides the splendid olio of specialties there will be a grand production of Harry Montague's new dramatic romance entitled "The Outcast," with the author in the title role and introducing Miss Carrie Duncan in her great character of "The Old Hag." Remember ladies night Thursday and Saturday Matinee at 2:30 P. M.

The Young Masters Cadet Company will give a festival and drill for the benefit of Pilgrim Baptist church on Thursday Oct. 10, at the church. These young men have become very proficient in the drill manual and they can give a very nice entertainment. They have been drilling recently at the Capitol under the command of Col. Bobbette and when they get a sufficient number of members will make application for admission to the state militia. The captain of the company is Charles Miller, 1st Lieut., Walter R. Stallard, 2nd Lieut., Mervin Bibb. The price of admission to their entertainment is only 15 cents. Let the house be crowded.

On Tuesday evening last a number of musical enthusiasts met in the vestry of the Pilgrim church and completed the organization of the St. Paul Choral Club.

Its official roster is as follows: Musical director, F. Q. Swasey; president, John H. Hickman; secretary, W. T. Francis; treasurer, Chas. B. Farr; librarian, Miss Lulu Griswold. There are also committees on finance and library. The club begins with twenty six members embracing some of the best musical talent in the city and will soon begin the winter's work. As indicated by its name the club proposes to excel in chorus work and by conscientious attention to duty expects to so creditably acquit themselves that critics will be disarmed, skeptics will be compelled to acknowledge the capabilities of our people in interpreting the best class of music. The club meets again next Tuesday when Prof. Swasey will be present. All interested in musical matters are invited to attend.

CHURCH CIRCLES.

St. Paul Churches and Matters Pertaining to the Spiritual Progress of Their Pastors and People.

After an absence of several weeks at tending conference and looking after official business, Rev. J. M. Henderson has returned to the city and begun the work of his third year as pastor of the popular church now so widely known as St. James Church. The warm welcome which he is receiving on all hands speaks well for the prospects of the coming year. This coming Sabbath service will be held as usual, only an extra good time is expected. The membership of St. James is faithful and true to their church and can always be relied upon to do their duty, each faithful member will be found in his pew Sabbath and ready to put his shoulder to the wheel. There are a few who habitually neglect to attend class and shirk their duty, they will be promptly expelled unless they immediately begin to amend their ways. There are a few given to gossip and the sowing of dissensions, they will be brought up and tried according to the laws of the church if any more is heard from them. Immoral, unfaithful, and unworthy people cannot belong to any well conducted A. M. E. Church. The people of St. James church propose to go ahead this year as they have ever done, and earnestly attend to their duty and interfere with no one; all are welcome who choose to attend any service and behave orderly. The people of St. Paul may well be proud to bring their friends to visit St. James. The first Sunday of October Rev. R. Knight will be present and hold Quarterly meeting, all are invited. A great big time is expected to-morrow, let every body come. Some busy bodies have said that the famous St. James choir is disbanded, but don't get uneasy, a big surprise is in store. The condition of the church is better than it has been at the beginning of any year of its existence and the prospects are most glorious for a grand revival.

PILGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH.

Every thing about the church is taking on an air of getting readiness. The summer being past, the harvest season is upon us. Will there be a harvest of souls among us? Are we expecting to see sinners converted? Every enterprise within the church ought to have as the soul of it, sinners salvation. The attendance at our Wednesday evening class, was very flattering, the interest manifested in this meeting is indeed wonderful. Friday evening meeting for prayer and praise at the church and on the West Side had large attendance and great spiritual power. We are laboring and expecting the power of the Holy Spirit in our hearts. Sunday despite the inclemency of the weather, we had good congregations, the morning theme "Pleasing God," the evening "Jonah," the choir did noble service, it has increased in unity and harmony and promises to be among the leading choirs of the city. Madam Wilson rendered "Flee as a bird to your mountain" very beautifully. Sunday evening subject, "Naaman." Monthly deacons meeting Tuesday October 1st, church meeting Friday October 4th, business of importance every member is expected to be present, we wish to complete arrangements for our fair on this evening. Keep in mind the drill by the young cadets to be held on the 10th for the benefit of the church.

Masons Attention.

All Master Masons in good standing are requested to meet at Stevens Lodge Hall 371 Jackson street to-morrow (Sunday) at 2 o'clock sharp to receive T. H. Smith, G. M., R. E. Moore, G. S. and B. H. Harris, G. E. C., for Illinois and jurisdiction. By Order C. Morgan, W. M. J. F. Coquire, Sec.

The Knights Templars Ball.

The joint entertainment by Cyrene and Pilgrim Commanderies, K. T., at Plummer Post Hall last Monday evening proved to be a most enjoyable occasion. The gallant Sir Knights from both cities were out in goodly number and in excellent spirits on account of their success. The hall was more than comfortably filled and our sister city did her share in furnishing the crowd. The music was excellent and the whole affair was one of the most pleasant Minneapolis has witnessed in a long time. The joint committees deserve much credit for their grand success.

Next week the management of the Bijou will present a very strong attraction in "Beacon Lights" a melo-dramatic play of the scenic order which has met with most wonderful success. The play will be staged with elegant special scenery.

Rev. R. H. Williamson and family was the recipient of a very pleasant surprise last Tuesday evening. A number of friends gathered at the church and afterwards called on their pastor laden with edibles. A very pleasant evening was spent.

Quarterly meeting will be held at the St. James A. M. E. Church to-morrow. Rev. Williamson of St. Peters will preach during the day, also Rev. Henderson of St. James, St. Paul. Sacramental service at 8 o'clock P. M. All are invited to be present.

Messrs. W. D. Allen, of Boston and Jno. Watson, of La Crosse, were entertained at the Eagle Club Wednesday evening. Mr. J. G. Sterritt president of the club was present and made the visitors welcome, while Messrs. M. W. Weaver, W. J. Weston, A. G. Plummer and Z. W. Mitchell spared no pains in making the evening a pleasant one. Toasts were responded to by Sterritt, Allen, Weaver, Plummer and Weston.

We have more interesting news for our readers. In our last issue we illustrated our progress as citizens in Minneapolis by giving a list of some of our business representatives. This week their progress is further marked by a practical example set forth by one of our conservative young namely Mr. Jasper Gibbs. Mr. Gibbs came to Minneapolis but a few years ago from Chicago. He engaged here at our largest hotel as a side waiter. His ability and competency soon warranted his promotion to second waiter, which position he has filled with credit and success until last Saturday when other business called for his resignation. Mr. Louis Hurd will take his place as second on the staff at the West hotel. Mr. Gibbs has now completed arrangements for the finest lunch establishment in the whole Northwest. This place is located in the very best business center in the city, it is opposite the Custom House and also the magnificent Guaranty Loan building on South Third street No. 114. He has a large room 21x100 feet on first floor, his kitchen and other apartments are equally large. He has without any exception, the finest lunch counter in the Northwest. The counter is in a horseshoe shape one hundred and forty-four feet in length with a solid cherry top, nine rows of drawers of three tiers each will furnish room for his silver ware etc. which will be completed in every particular, in the center of the room is a large double dummy used to transport victuals etc., to and from the kitchen. While on one side of this dummy will set a large cake griddle with a lady whose sole duty will be to take care of it, this will set on a large sove table twenty feet long, on the other side sets a large steam table ten feet long with a solid copper bottom which alone costs $125. The counter also encircles a large heater, on which sets a very expensive nickle tea and coffee urn. Gas will be placed in all parts of the building for convenience, outside of this large room we find a large pantry, store room, laundry, wash room and every thing complete, numerous handsome gas fixtures adorn the entire room. Down stairs the kitchen, ice box etc., are located. A large range 14 feet long with three fires is among the kitchen utensils. The building is heat by a large furnace. In addition to modern convenience usually found in first class establishments of this kind, is an elevator in the store room. Mr. D. F. McFarland has been retained as chef de cuisine. Mr. Gibbs will have a full corps of waiters and assistants, among whom will be first, second and third cook, pastry girl, laundry girl, and cashier. This enterprise by Mr. Gibbs we hope will excel any of its kind in the Northwest. Mr. Gibbs has fitted up his place to suit himself and at his own expense and when he opens Monday morning to the public he will have paid cash to the amount of $2,900, so our readers can see that Minneapolitans are progressing.

REV. J. T. JENIFER.

Sketch of the Life of the New Pastor of Quinn Chapel Chicago

A Good Minister of Christ.

Rev. John Turner Jenifer, D. D., was born of slave parents, March 10, 1835, in Upper Marlborough, Prince George's county, Maryland. His father, John H. Jenifer, of New Bedford, Mass., belonged to David Crawford, of Maryland. His mother, Catherine Burgess, was the slave of Grace H. Dorsey, the daughter of Truman Tyler, nephew of President Tyler. He was separated from his parents at seven years of age, and rendered his first service in doing general housework. One of his chief duties was to carry the books of his young master to the school house door. Death and marriages having wrought changes in the old Marlborough homestead, he was taken by his owners to Baltimore at the age of eighteen. He learned to read, and his love of books and apt business tendencies made him serviceable in his young master's dry goods store. Young Dorsey (his master) having failed, he hired his time and secured a position as a shipping clerk in a large dry goods house, Baltimore.

He was converted in the Sharp Street M. E. Church, Baltimore, Md., April 4, 1856. He was one of the founders of the King Solomon Lyceum of that city, and it was in that organization that he was first seized with an intense ambition to lead a life of usefulness. Having earned for those who claimed him over fourteen hundred dollars, in 1859, learning of the whereabouts of his father, who had left Marlborough many years before, he moved to New Bedford, Mass., Oct., 1860, where he entered a commercial college with the view of preparing himself to engage in the dry goods business in Boston. This purpose was not accomplished. The "divinity that shapes our ends" called him to another path of duty. One Sunday night, while walking the streets of New Bedford, he was solemnly impressed that God had chosen him to the work of the ministry. In the winter of 1861 he joined the New Bedford A. M. E. Church, then under the pastoral charge of Rev. Henry J. Young. He was licensed to preach by Rev. W. V. Grimes, February 5, 1862. At this time he felt a strong desire to enter an institution of learning in order to fully prepare himself for the work to which God had called him that he might obtain the means to go to college, he borrowed money and sailed for California July 21, 1862, where he arrived the 17th of the following month. He immediately sought out Elder (now Bishop) T. M. D. Ward, who appointed him to the charge of a station in Sacramento City, in November, 1862, in which city he had great success.

His next appointment was to the Placeville circuit, where he bought valuable property and built a church and taught the district school. In 1864, upon the organization of the California Annual Conference by Bishop J. P. Campbell, D. D., L. L. D., he was chosen one of its secretaries. He was ordained a deacon by Bishop Campbell April 13, 1865, and appointed to the Virginia City Station. Having by this time saved about $900 and by diligent study nearly completed the ordinary preparatory course, he was transferred to the Ohio Annual Conference and entered Wilberforce University January 22, 1865. He has been trustee of Wilberforce since 1866; served two years as superintendent of its buildings and grounds, and three years Secretary of the Board of Trustees and Executive Committee.

He was in 1867 appointed, under the recommendations of Hon. Ben Wade and Judge Bingham, of Ohio, postmaster at Wilberforce, being the first Colored man appointed to that position by the United States Government.

At Wilmington, Del., the jury in the case of Samuel Peo, an Italian, charged with the murder of Samuel Edwards, Colored, rendered a verdict of not guilty Saturday evening. The trial has lasted four days and the verdict was unexpected.

People Who Fret.

"Care killed the cat," is a well known old saw. The force of it is in the fact that fret and worry will kill even an animal which is popularly said to have nine lives. Fretting and worrying may not kill you, but they will shorten your days, and what happiness is there in a life all cankered with care? But how avoid worry? Well, Americans travel more than any other people on the globe, and probably discomforts and delays in traveling cause us greater annoyance than all other sources of fretting combined. The great Burlington system reaches all the principal cities of the West, and if you always select it as your route, you can banish fretting forever, so smooth is its track, so sumptuous and luxurious are its cars, and so appetizing and well-cooked are the meals served on its diners. For tickets, and any information about this "People's favorite," call on your local agent, or write to W. J. C. Kenyon, Gen. Pass. Agent, C. B. & N. E. R., St. Paul, Minn.

Emancipation Day was appropriately celebrated by the Colored people here Monday. A procession numbering over 1,300 Colored men was reviewed by Mayor Noonan and other city officials. I the afternoon and at night exercises were held in Central Turner Hall.

Saturday night Wm. Johnson and John Lane, both Colored, proprietors of a barbershop at 711 Pine street, got into a fight about some work that had to be done. Johnson pulled a revolver and fired three shots, one of which took effect in Lane's left arm. Johnson was arrested.

Tom Turkin, Frank Watson and Louis Holle, three Colored men, had a fight Sunday afternoon in the rear of 216 West street. Watson pulled a revolver and fired four shots at Turkin, but without effect, but one of the bullets lodged in the fore finger of the left hand of the shooter. All three of the parties were arrested.

Rev. C. M. C. Mason, Rector of All Saints Church has returned to the city after an absence of two months. Father Mason is most beloved by the community, in which he is a most faithful laborer, and the regret at his absence is only equal in intensity to the joy at his return. A public reception was tendered him on Thursday evening.

Madam Selika the greatest prima donna, the race has ever produced, is at present in the city for the purpose of giving several concerts previous to her return to Europe. The first of the series was held at St. Paul Chapel Wednesday 18th inst. Words are inadequate to express the praises due to this remarkable songstress. Suffice it to say she was greeted by a large audience, and has been prevailed upon to return next month. She was ably assisted by some of our best local talent, among whom were: Prof. J. Arthur Freeman, Master Sumner Byron, and Mrs. Josiah Ferguson.

Emancipation Day.

A fair representation of Colored people were present at the Minneapolis Exposition last Monday to celebrate the twenty-seventh anniversary of the issue of Abraham Lincoln's emancipation proclamation. The day was dull and gloomy which probably accounts for the number not being larger. Excellent singing was furnished by the choral club and Prof. Z. A. Coleman. The addresses by W. R. Morris, Esq., of Minneapolis, Rev. J. M. Henderson and F. L. McGhee, Esq., of St. Paul, were masterly efforts and elicited continuous applause. Rev. J. W. Dungee offered an eloquent prayer. Mr. A. G. Plummer read the emancipation proclamation. Innes Band furnished excellent music and all present enjoyed the occasion. After the exercises the committees and the participants in the exercises were tendered a supper by the exposition management which was not the least of the enjoyable features of the day. On the whole the occasion was highly enjoyable and creditable.

Although Harvard has fewer representatives among the hotels in the White Mountains than other colleges, yet a graduate of the present year has served as an elevator guide in one of the largest of them during the past summer. He is Colored, and in addition to his work at the hotel has given readings at neighboring houses.

A Colored man named Egan appeared in Mr. Frambrough's yard in Rutledge, Ga. He was a suspicious character and was ordered to leave. Instead of leaving, the Colored man drew a pistol and fired. The ball took effect in Mr. Frambrough's bowels, and resulted in his death before a doctor could arrive. The Colored man fled.

The perished body of a woman was unearthed in the cellar of the old African Methodist Church, Sixth and Lombard streets, Philadelphia, by workmen who are tearing down the building. The body was in a coffin, which was inclosed in a lead-lined box. It is in a perfect state of preservation, and is supposed to have been buried over a hundred years.

John Brown's "fort" at Harper's Ferry, the old engine house, used as a citadel by the great anti-slavery leader and his followers thirty years ago as a place of refuge from the soldiers and citizens surrounding them, is to be demolished, and will disappear forever unless the rumor that it has been purchased for removal to Philadelphia should be true. The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company has determined upon a change in its main line at this place, the new survey running directly through the old engine house.

Dinah-Salifo is a tall, handsome man from Senegal, a gay, hearty fellow, delighted with everything and letting everybody see it by a smile which discloses his white teeth. The Shah and he fraternized amicably on meeting, and exchanged presents, just as takes place at Homer. Dinah-Salifo is now on his way home, and he takes back with him to Senegal a set of things which will cause some sensation there, the gem of his wonderful collection being, according to his noble majesty, a big brass bedstead, bright as gold, presented to him by M. Carnot.

Missouri African Methodists.

Glasgow, Mo., Sept. 23.—The African M. E. Conference opened Saturday with the usual devotional exercises. Many visitors were present from other districts. The greater part of the session was consumed in hearing reports and discussing them. The Conference determined to organize temperance societies. The Ladies' Missionary Society held a meeting this afternoon, at which over $200 was collected in aid of the missionary cause.

At to-day's session Elders Riley Richardson and Reuben Long were licensed to preach.

The Conference has indorsed the action of the National Baptist Convention at Indianapolis in asking Government aid for the Southern Colored people who desire to emigrate.
