NEWSPAPER LAWS.

The following are the laws laid down by the United States Government for the protection of newspapers:

Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.
If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrears are paid.

If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers and papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office before removing and leaving them uncollected is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

If subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice to the publisher at the end of their time, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it on and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrears is sent to the publisher.

Publishers of newspapers can under law, arrest any man for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law it is a dangerous trick for a man to allow his subscription account to run on for six months to a year and a half, unpaid and then tell the postmaster to mark "refused" or to send the editor a notice to discontinue the paper.

SATURDAY, JUNE 21, 1890.

The Louisiana Lottery has been the cause of many Colored men losing many dollars; and, now, it has been the cause of one losing his life. George Swayze, a Colored Custom House officer, and ex-State Senator, of Louisiana, who was considered to be one of the most intelligent men in the state, was arrested in the parish of East Feliciana last Monday charged with being a dangerous and suspicious character. He was working in the interest of the lottery, and had been cautioned not to go into that parish. A mob of white men took him from the arresting officers and hung him. There seems to be a determination on the part of the people of Louisiana, to crush out the lottery, which meets the approval of THE APPEAL, but, to go so far as to murder a man who happens to be Colored, because he favors lottery, we condemn. Swayze was at work in a bad cause, but he was doing no more and possible, not so much, as many white men in favor of the lottery, and his murder was an outrage, prompted by that hellish prejudice to color which seems to be the strongest characteristic of the Southern whites, and not a few of the Northern ones. This is what makes the case the more outrageous. Fair play, and no favor, is all the Colored man wants.

When THE APPEAL was started in 1885, its title was WESTERN APPEAL. It was the only Colored journal in the Northwest, and the title suited nicely. Something over two years ago, the name was changed by the dropping of the word WESTERN. This was thought to be the proper thing to do, as the paper had taken on a national character, and was issued simultaneously in St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minn., Chicago, Ill., Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo., with an office and a resident manager in each of these five cities. Several of our contemporaries it seems have not noticed this change in our name and continue to refer to us as the WESTERN APPEAL and last week one referred to us as the NORTH WESTERN APPEAL. There's nothing in a name, so says the old adage, and THE APPEAL by any other name would be just as good, but if our friends would just use the proper title, THE AP-PEAL they would save considerable time and space, and we would be as well satisfied.

The Western Blade Vol. 1 No. 1, hailing from Kansas City and Independence Mo., made its arrival at our sanctum last week. The Blade poses as an independent sheet and promises to kick, cut and slash at a terrible rate. As kickers, cutters and slashers, are a necessity, the Blade will find plenty work to do.

Doings in Duluth.

Tuesday evening June 10th, the marriage of Mr. Adam P. Perry of Milwaukee and Miss Lillie Richey of this city was solemnized by Rev. S. B. Jones, at the residence of the bride's parents.
Miss Alice Thompson of St. Paul acted as bride's maid and Mr. A. Newsom as best man. Promptly at nine o'clock, the bridal party marched into the beautifully decorated parlors, to the air of Mendelssohn's wedding march executed on the piano by Mr. C. U. Dorsey. The bride's costume was cream satin with white veil; the bride's maid was attired in lavender satin with exquisite trimmings.

The gathering was quite select, many of the best citizens of Duluth being present, which, with the elegant costumes of the ladies lent grace and dignity to the occasion. An elegant supper followed the ceremony, where all the delicacies of the season were amply disposed of, after which a general good time was had socially until the newly made pair departed to their residence 115 1st avenue East. Following is a few of the many valuable presents:

Ebony clock, Mr. Seigel; set decorated china, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, Montreal; set decorated china, Mr. and Mrs. E. J.
Williams, St. Paul; set decorated china, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Shelton; set hand painted fruit plates, Mr. S. W. Perry, Evanston; set plain china, Mr. and Mrs.
C. W. Dorsey; china chamber set, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bryant; china chamber set, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lankton; parlor lamp, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hodges; set pearl handled silver knives, Mr. B. W. Buckner, Helena, Mont.; silver water pitcher, Messrs. Teeters and A. Broady; silver butter dish, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Morris-son; silver cake dish, Miss Julia Branch; silver card stand, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald; set silver fruit knives, Mr. and Mrs.
W. Smith, Minneapolis; set silver fruit knives, Master H. D. Suter, Fargo, Dak.; two silver napkin rings and butterknife, Mrs. and Miss C. Bias; silver nut picks, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Punter; clock, Mr. J.
H. Simms; silver fruit stand, Mr. and Mrs. C. Black; silver pickle dish, Mr. and Mrs. Newsom; two sets silver teaspoons,— silver ladle, gold lined, Mrs. Dwyer, Fargo, Dak.; silver cake knife, Willie Corbett, Fargo, Dak.; silver fruit knife and stand, Mrs. L. Porter, Fargo, Dak.; tea-gown, Chinese silk trimmings, Mrs. M.
Ohrine, Atlanta; bridal necessities, Mrs.
Fisher, Montreal and Mrs. Monroe, Tacoma; linen table cloth and napkins, Mr. G. Harcourt; linen table cloth and napkins, Mr. J. Coleman; sack flour, Mr.
W. B. Richardson; fruit cake, Mr. J. C.
Perry, Chicago; handsome silver teaset, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Richey with many other valuable and useful articles too numerous to mention.

Miss Richey is a daughter of Mr. J. N.
Richey, one of the Zenith City's most influential and highly respected citizens and the auspicious occasion was the most notable which has taken place in our city in a long time. The young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends here and elsewhere.

Father Harrison's Letter.

Speaking of Father Tolton's visit to St. Paul in connection with the concert to be given under the auspices of St. Peter Clavers Sodality on Monday evening June 30. I neglected to state that the concert will be held in the Newmarket Theatre. This concert promises to be the grandest ever held by the Sodality in the city of St. Paul, and we are anxious to have ample room for all who come, therefore Market Hall instead of Cretin Hall has been secured.

Mr. Chas. Winter Wood the tragedian who will appear for the first time in St.
Paul, is well known throughout the country. Miss Anna Shornair the favorite soprano singer of Minnesota has volunteered to sing at the same entertainment and these together with the singers well known at our concerts will contribute a program unequalled at any entertainment previously held in the Northwest.

Delegates to the Cincinnati Convention have been selected by the church and Sodality. On last Sunday at the regular monthly meeting of St. Peter Clavers Sodality Messrs. Samuel Hardy and Jno.
Tolbert were elected delegates; whereupon Mr. N. Gillard was named as a representative of the church. These three well-known gentlemen are preparing to make a good showing for St.
Paul at the Convention.

It is expected that the Governor of Minnesota and the Mayor of St. Paul together with the members of the city council will be present at the concert.
And of course, the clergy of all denominations will be cordially invited.

Broad in spirit Catholic in principle, St. Peter Clavers Sodality invites the cooperation of all men whose width of mind and heart will allow them to aid in a higher and no lower aim than the moral and social elevation of man.
It is needless to add that the presence of Archbishop Ireland, the recognized champion of the Colored race, and Biah-op Shanley the founder of St. Peter Clavers Sodality will be anxiously looked for by all true lovers of liberty, freedom and equality.

cago, Ill.

The Silver Reapers met at the residence of Rev. Williamson last Friday.
A short, but in many respects a very interesting program was rendered. After the usual partaking of refreshments and the society adjourned.

The St. James Literary Society beats most societies of its nature for longevity.
In the winter it flourished and now that it is summer it is in still a more flourishing condition. Meets every Tuesday evening. You ought to attend.

St. Anthony Lodge 2877 G. U. O. of O.
F. has removed from 10 Washington avenue S. to Lath Temple hall cor. 4th street and 8th, avenue S. where they will meet every Wednesday evening.
Visitors cordially invited to attend.

St. James A. M. E. Church—The work of the literary society is encouraging.
Mr. Z. V. Mitchell reporter of THE AP-PEAL was present Tuesday evening and addressed the society. On Tuesday June 21th, at the conclusion of the literary program refreshments will be served.

Mr. A. G. Plummer was radiant with smiles when he came down town Friday of last week. His name, his fame, and worldly honor should be perfectua-ted, and he was glad. The joy, too evident to conceal, was occasioned by the advent of a young Mr. Plummer, whose spherical proportions aggregated a netweight of eight pounds. Mother and babe are doing well.

Bijou Opera House.

For the week beginning Sunday June 22nd, the Bijou will present Pardon Davies international vaudeville and champion athletes. One of the greatest of specialty companies which also includes the greatest of all wrestlers Evan Lewis together with a number of the best of vaudeville stars.

U. B. F. Picnic.

Morning Star Lodge No. 14, United Brothers of Friendship, will give a grand picnic at Willow Springs Grove, Monday July 14.

McNally & Hess, 475 State street, deserve your patronage. Keep cool this summer and buy a gasoline stove from them.

Helena, Montana.

THE APPEAL is for sale at the Eureka Club. W. Zeigler, Agent.

Mrs. T. Jefferson who has been quite ill at her residence for several days is improving.

The Willing Workers will soon give a Strawberry festival in the basement of the A. M. E. Church. A good time is expected.

Mr. B. W. Backner has returned from Duluth and St. Paul where he has been on a short visit he says his visit was a very pleasant one.

The Montana Hotel at Aucaconda the largest and finest in the state will close July 1. It has a crew of waiters from the East under a years contract but the house has only been running about nine months. No reason for the closing is given though the house is doing well.

Children's Day was observed here as usual. The prayer meeting Sunday morning at 6 o'clock was well attended.
Rev. Sanders preached at 11 o'clock to a large audience, the Sunday School at 2:30 o'clock was very well attended, Prof. E. G. Cole presiding. After completing the program as laid down in the Journal, time was given to those who had prepared exercises for the occasion to present the same, which was done very satisfactorily. Collection $11.40.
Rev. Sanders also preached a very interesting sermon in the evening. The singing of the choir was excellent. Collection $21.02.

On last Sunday night at Mandan Billy Palmer and George Lewis had a drunken quarrel and Lewis, without any particular provocation, pulled a bull dog revolver and fired four shots rapidly into Palmer's body. The first shot struck Palmer in the thigh, when he, with a drunken leer, asked Lewis if he wasn't a better marksman than that. The other three shots then came in rapid succession. Immediately after satisfying himself that his man was done for Lewis ran wildly up the street shouting at the top of his voice that he had just killed a man. He was arrested and jailed. Palmer died Monday night. Palmer is a white man but his wife is Colored, he formerly lived in St. Paul where he followed the occupation of a hackman.

St. James A. M. E. Church.

Without any excitement, bluster, or coaxing, but simply because they love the church of God, a band of nearly 150 persons has been quietly and diligently collecting money for St. James. Sabbath was the day set for reports and the reports came and were such as should gladden the heart of any pastor and any board. Because we make it a practice to let the people know just what is raised the full report will be published. The people of this community have nobly stood by St. James. They helped to buy the lot and remove the old building thereon, in Rev. Knight's time; under Rev. Jacob's administration of two years they contributed $1,100 which paid in full the debt then existing, they also contributed $300 toward the present edifice, nor did their generosity cease when the present pastorate began for, up until August, 1889, they contributed for all purposes during the two years, $7,634.89. What the total sum raised during this present conference year is, will be told in the Annual Statement always published by trustees.

The first national Colored bicycle tournament furnished great fun to 2,000 people at Brotherhood Park Sunday.
There were entries from Chicago, Washington, Cairo, Ill., New York, Nashville, and other points. A big delegation of Colored followers on the races were present, and the coaching was sidesplitting. J. Milton Turner was master of ceremonies. In the three mile handicap "Cairo Bill" fell down four times, but under the inspiring coaching he mounted each time and finished second.

The passive condition of St. Louis society was changed into a pleasurable activity last Thursday evening by a reception given by the Mordecai family in honor of their guests Gov. Pinchback and Mr. Bismarck. Pinchback of Louisiana, and Mr. Robt. Harlan Jr. of Cincinnati. O. At about nine o'clock the rumble of carriage wheels was heard, and by ten o'clock the spacious parlors were filled by the upper crust of St.
Louis society. Notwithstanding the sheolic character of the weather the efforts of the orchestra soon inspired a majority of those present to join in the mazy dance and as the soft sensuous waltzes of Strauss floated out on the calm and balmy air, "Bright eyes looked love to eyes which spoke again, and all went merry as a marriage bell." At midnight refreshing creams, ices and fruits were served which seemed to rejuvenate the followers of terpsichore and they continued to chase the flying hours with tireless feet until the grey eyed dawn peeped in on the night.

Among those present were: Gov.
Pinchback, Bismarck Pinchback, R. J.
Harlan Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Morton Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Langston, Misses Estella Hickman, Mamie Reynolds, Ethel Winn, Carrie and Nettie Wilkinson, Bella Thomas, Josie Lee, Belle Louise and Emma Armstrong, Jessie Watson, Tazzie Thomas, Mary E. McLeod, Minnie Crosswhite, Lulu Johnson; Mrs. Carrie Helms; Messrs.
J. F. Thomas, A. C. Rivers, Hutchins Inge, Chas. S. Harrison of Zanesville, Ohio; Ed. and Willie Wilkinson, J. F.
Freeman, J. W. Grant, Charlie Jackson, and others.

A Pleasant Anniversary.
A prophet is not without honor in his own country, and among his own people, is a biblical maxim which does not hold good in the case of Mr. J. K.
Hilyard of St. Paul, for that gentleman is honored at home as well as abroad.
There is another biblical maxim to live out: "The wicked shall not live out half their days," and as the biblical allotment of man's life is three score and ten; and, as on last Tuesday, fat, jolly, hale and hearty as ever Mr. Hilyard rounded out three score years, and bids fair to add the ten to a well spent life, before he is called from labor to refreshment, we may come to the conclusion that he is a pretty good sort of an old fellow. Mr. Hilyard was called away from his home by a "put up job" last Tuesday and when he returned he found his residence in the possession of a few of his friends who had assembled to do honor in celebrating the sixtieth anniversary of his birth day.

There were present with their wives:
W. H. Davis, C. E. James, T. H. Lyles, F. D. Parker, James Banister, Harry Howard, W. Liggins, R. C. Howard, J.
H. Loomis, C. H. Bush, C. F. Wilkins, J. H. Hickman, J. B. Turner, Troy
Brown, F. L. McGhee. Also Messdames M. Walker, J. A. Thomas, J. H. Jackson, C. H. Webb, J. H. Thompson, D.
Mason, G. W. Ellison, Adeline Taylor, T. H. Griswold and Sarah Diggs of Norwood, Mass. Also Messrs D. Hardin, J. W. Smith and THE APPEAL.

After all had assembled Mr. J. H. Hickman arose and made a few remarks.
"America" was then sung by the whole company. The following address was then made by Mr. T. H. Lyles.

Ladies and gentlemen.—I am told that in the year of
