BEREA COLLEGE.

The Only School That Mixes the Races in the State of Kentucky.

History of the Great College on the "Dark and Bloody Ground"—Its Early Struggles and Later Triumphs—Rev. G. Fee Its Founder.

Berea College was projected in purpose and plan in the year 1854. The design was to meet a want, the education of the youths of the land, to correct principles in religion and civil government.

What the design was to teach, what is popularly termed science, it was also designed that this science should be guided by correct moral principles. Our first effort was to plant our proposed institution in a county adjoining Madison, where Berea College now stands.

In one of the by-laws we declared this institution shall be under an influence strictly christian. As such shall be opposed to slave holding, caste, sectarianism and every other known wrong institution or practice.

The trustees realized then as now, that institutions of learning, having the corporate force of men of intelligence and piety are a power in society for the formation of public sentiment, and that this public sentiment ought to be against vice in all its forms; for vice is disintegrating and will sooner or later destroy society.

With our constitution thus drafted we purchased a tract of land as a site for our future college building and in the latter part of the year 1869, I went eastward to solicit funds with which to pay for our lands. During this absence the John Brown Raid came off and prominent friends of the church and school at Berea were driven out by mob violence.

Those who come, come knowing that the institution is conducted, not for popular favor, but from convictions of right and duty. The young men and women who come, come respecting these convictions and generally have left all antagonism behind or surrendered them soon after coming.

We can now say Berea College is not a mere experiment, but a demonstration, a practicality of co-education of youths, male and female, Colored and white.

Our location is healthful, we are on the line of the Kentucky Central R. 130 miles south of Cincinnati, Ohio. Our grounds are ample and beautiful. Our buildings are good as will be seen from attendant cuts. We have a large teaching force and a good library. Tuition one dollar per month and table board, in the boarding hall, one dollar and sixty cents per week.

The design is to put the facilities of a thorough education on right principles, within the reach of all, even those of small means.

We believe that this institution, planted as it is in the South, upon principles at once patriotic, philanthropic and christian ought to have the sympathy and help of every patriot, philanthropist and christian, that the institution ought to have that vigorous support which its importance demands. Let the practice maintained so successfully at Berea for almost a quarter of a century, be maintained in the other states South and the "Southern Problem" will soon be solved.

On the eve of a great battle Nelson said "England expects every man to do his duty." We say God wants every man to do his duty—help.

Let the reader extend his appeal to such men and women as can and ought to help.

A woman's ideal of a perfect man is a man like the man she likes best; a man's ideal of a perfect woman is a woman unlike any he ever knew.

The fichus of black cashmere, crepe de Chine, or Canton crepe are edged with silk fringe and embroidered in the back, and around the inner edge at the neck, which is turned over to form a collar. These are worn as wraps on the street by elderly ladies, as well as for piazza and evening wear.

Ordinary muslin is coming into wear again, and black lace trimmings are much worn with it, either as fichus, panels or large jabots diminishing toward the waist; in fact, any way that fashion and fancy dictate, for the light black lace on the thin material forms a pretty and effective contrast.

FENWICK FIRST.

The Great Popular Preachers Contest Goes Merrily on

One Goes up, Another Goes Down: According to the way Their Friends Send in Ballots for the Favorites, Who'll be Ahead Next?

The interest in the result in some quarters is extraordinary. Many of the friends of the preachers are greatly concerned as though it meant a suit of clothes or a cane or a portrait for them personally. They employ all their eloquence to persuade friends that their own particular candidate is the best and most deserving of popular support.

Request is made that those sending in any number of votes will please write plainly upon the outside of the envelope the number of votes sent. They will also be careful to cut out the ballot, no mote and no less, trimming it neatly to the line. They will likewise avoid rolling them. Observance of these three simple injunctions will greatly abridge the labors at this office.

The name of the candidates appear in the order of their standing. The first in the list has received the largest number of votes, the second the next largest, and so on throughout the entire list, the one at the bottom having received the least number. If your candidate is well down on the list it indicates that it will be necessary for your friends to bestir themselves on his behalf if you would have him win.

OUR CLUBBING LIST.

How to get Any Paper Published at Reduced Rates.

We are Enabled to offer THE APPEAL and Any Other Paper for Little More Than the Cost of One.

We have made arrangements by means of which we are enabled to offer THE APPEAL and the papers named below for little more than the cost of one paper if ordered separately. The first column gives the publisher's regular price for the paper named and the second column gives our price for the paper, together with THE APPEAL for one year. Our list gives the prices for the majority of the Afro-American papers, and also a few of the leading papers of the country. We can furnish any paper published in the world for less than the publishers' price; if the paper you wish is not named write to us and we will quote a low price.

HOW TO SEND MONEY—One cent or two cent postage stamps will be received in amounts of $1 or less. Remittances may be made by postal note, by money order, by registered letter, by express, or by draft on Chicago, New York, or any large city. We are not responsible for money sent in ordinary letters.

TERMS.—Cash must come with each order; this rule is invariable.

MISSING NUMBERS.—When subscribers receive the first number of their periodical from the publishers they may know that the subscriptions has been received from us at the office of publication and you should then send all inquiries for missing or lost numbers direct to them as you can get the matter more quickly adjusted, and it costs no more to write to the publishers than to us.

POST OFFICE ADDRESS.—It makes no difference to us as to what post office the periodicals you order go. You can order one periodical to one post office and one to another as you wish.

FAILURES.—We do not consider ourselves responsible for the failures of publishers. If a paper or magazine discontinues publication, and the publisher will not return the money, the subscriber must be the loser, the same as if they ordered directly from the publisher. Such a case would seldom occur.

REMEMBER.—Send cash in every case. The first column gives publishers price for paper named; the second is our price for the paper together with THE APPEAL for one year.

POPULAR PREACHERS.

The Appeal's Scheme to Decide Who the Popular Preachers are.

All Colored Preachers in the States of Illinois, Minnesota, Kentucky and Missouri Eligible to the Contest. The People to Decide.

THE APPEAL has heard so much said about the popularity of this preacher or that preacher, that it has determined to have the people decide the question. And, in order to bring out a full expression it has decided to offer a list of prizes to be awarded to the ten most popular preachers in Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky and Minnesota.

The contest is confined to the four states in which THE APPEAL has offices of publication.

The prizes will be awarded according to the number of votes cast for each contestant.

LIST OF PRIZES.

- 1st, Prize, Broadcloth Suit, satin-lined, to order, $100.00
2nd, Prize, Gold-headed Cane, 25.00
3rd, Prize, life-size crayon portrait, 15.00
4th, Prize, Silk Hat, 5.00
5th, Prize, THE APPEAL for 2 years, 4.00
6th, Prize, THE APPEAL for 1 year, 2.00
7th, Prize, THE APPEAL for 1 year, 2.00
8th, Prize, THE APPEAL for 1 year, 2.00
9th, Prize, THE APPEAL for 1 year, 2.00
10th Prize, THE APPEAL for 1 year, 2.00

THE APPEAL can not in common fairness, advocate the merits of this or that preacher. Two things are of the first importance in order to hope for success. The first is to make selection of a preacher who is possessed of qualities essential to popularity. Having selected a candidate the second step is to work for his success. Let one secure all the ballots possible and at the same time stir up interest and activity in others. Delay in securing ballots are as dangerous as delays in other matters. It would worry one much to learn that his or her candidate might have been elected by a slight extra effort. A few votes may be the difference between the winners and losers. Hence the importance of early and persistent activity in securing ballots. The plan of determining who the most popular minister is, is given in order that all may thoroughly understand.

BALLOT.

Form for filling out a ballot, including fields for Name, City, State, and Church, and a large area for writing the name of the preacher.

RULES OF VOTING.

Any Colored preacher in the states of Illinois, Kentucky, Minnesota and Missouri, may be voted for. Any person can vote who complies with the following conditions:

The only qualification for voting is to cut out the ballot in THE APPEAL and fill it out as directed above. But one preacher can be voted for on each ballot. Ballots containing the name of more than one preacher, will be thrown out.

See that your friends all get THE APPEAL, and if they do not wish to use the ballot, ask them to save it for you.

Place your ballots in an envelope and address it as follows: THE APPEAL, CHICAGO, ILL.

The Grievance Committee Solution—Those who have been making a study of the modes and phases of the investigation in certain moral quarters for the wrongs done in some Colored schools of this city with a view of determining how much of sincerity there is in it, should be more than usual vigilant and consistent just now. The first suggestion for their adjustment that any sensible person acquainted with the situation could accept or even consider as having been clearly proven is the unmistakable fact; that many or in fact all have or may have lied when questioned into a personality. A mention of the recent exploit of the fated ex-principal is sufficient to reveal the nature of the project. The idea of transporting the charges in order to get a suppose firm grip is from commendatory to the throne of justice. It was discussed by the first persons who declared publicly for an abolition. But the recent decision is so utterly absurd that only a few enthusiastic agitators give it any consideration. To have returned to the original charges upon which a suspension was based, could only elicit an acquittal but the reinforcements were so obviously and determinedly projected that the inevitable hand of injustice held sway.
