THE PERCENTAGE DECEPTION.

Every partisan journal in the conspiracy to reverse the policy of protection to American labor and industries is just now vigorously flaunting the ad valorem percentages of the tariff of foreign products...

But the voter who may be disposed to accept as truth the free trade contention that tariff is added to the price to consumers of all articles finds a still heavier draft upon his credulity when he glances over the list of articles submitted.

leading British merchants, and that as a matter of fact the retail price of calico is about the same in England as in this country. He also finds that there is no such difference in the price of other fabrics, whether of cotton, wool or silk, as free trade figures and assertions imply, and is forced to see the attempt at deception when told that window glass, crockery ware and other articles now sold cheaper than ever before are yet double the prices that would rule under free trade.

It is a peculiar and significant fact that the straight-out Democrats, of South Carolina, propose to protect the Colored voters and that the Colored voters propose to support the straight-out Democratic ticket. The proof of the wonderful elasticity and adaptability of Democratic principles, this is certainly the most conclusive. The farmers Alliance, an organization composed principally of poor white men has brought the old Bourbon aristocracy to the brink of defeat, its prestige is gone and its only hope of retaining its hereditary supremacy lies in securing the Republican vote.

The Republican party in the South "budded wiser than it knew" in virtually abandoning the field and in acting as coadjutor to the poor whites who compose the alliance in their rebellion against the Bourbon barons. In some mysterious way the idea has penetrated the skulls of these poor whites that they have some rights, and that under existing conditions, they are in an equally deplorable condition with the Colored people, financially as well as politically.

R. G. Peters, the lumber baron, of Michigan, has failed for about $3,000,000 owing in large measure to "Southern ventures," which absorbed an enormous amount of capital without much return. "Southern ventures" have been for the last few years quite a favorite "snap" for Northern capitalists, and the fact accounts for a great deal of the recent prosperity of the South.

The death of Justice Milr leaves a vacancy upon the Supreme bench, but it will take a bigger and better man than Lamar to fill it. No "Reb" need apply.

Miss Williams, of Detroit, is in the city. Rev. Stewart opened the Baptist church Sunday evening and had a nice congregation.

In last week's issue there was a mistake in one of the new masons. The name should have read Mr. John H. Simms instead of Helms.

Mr. C. T. Pointer, of Minneapolis, is in the city last week for a day and will return in a few days to attend to work in Duluth and West Superior.

St. Mark's church has a nice Sunday school now with the following officers and teachers: Rev. Taylor, superintendent; Miss J. Richey, secretary; Mrs. C. A. Border bible class No. 1; Mrs. H. J. Shelton bible class No. 2.

A social was given Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. H. J. Shelton which was largely attended and realized the sum of $12.30, which will be used to fix up the booth for the fair to be held in December. The next social will be given by Mrs. C. W. Dorsey.

The first ten years of his residence here he was employed as clerk by the firm of Hale and company. In 1880 he established a large dry goods house on Cedar avenue. POPULAR PREACHERS.

The Appeal's Scheme to Decide Who the Popular Preachers are.

All Colored Preachers in the States of Illinois, Minnesota, Kentucky and Missouri Eligible to the Contest. The People to Decide.

THE APPEAL has heard so much said about the popularity of this preacher or that preacher, that it has determined to have the people decide the question. And, in order to bring out a full expression it has decided to offer a list of prizes to be awarded to the ten most popular preachers in Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky and Minnesota.

The contest is confined to the four states in which THE APPEAL has offices of publication. The prizes will be awarded according to the number of votes cast for each contestant.

- LIST OF PRIZES. 1st, Prize, Broadcloth Suit, satin-lined, to order, $100.00. 2nd, Prize, Gold-headed Cane, 25.00. 3rd, Prize, Life-size crayon portrait, 15.00. 4th, Prize, Silk Hat, 5.00. 5th, Prize, THE APPEAL for 2 years, 4.00. 6th, Prize, THE APPEAL for 1 year, 2.00. 7th, Prize, THE APPEAL for 1 year, 2.00. 8th, Prize, THE APPEAL for 1 year, 2.00. 9th, Prize, THE APPEAL for 1 year, 2.00. 10th, Prize, THE APPEAL for 1 year, 2.00.

THE APPEAL can not in common fairness, advocate the merits of this or that preacher. Two things are of the first importance in order to hope for success. The first is to make selection of a preacher who is possessed of qualities essential to popularity. Having selected a candidate the second step is to work for his success. Let one secure all the ballots possible and at the same time stir up interest and activity in others. Delay in securing ballots are as dangerous as delays in other matters. It would worry one much to learn that his or her candidate might have been elected by a slight extra effort. A few votes may be the difference between the winners and losers. Hence the importance of early and persistent activity in securing ballots. The plan of determining who the most popular minister is, is given in order that all may thoroughly understand.

Form for filling in name and address for the ballot. Includes fields for Name, Address, City, State, and a box for 'Fill the Blanks, Cut out and send to THE APPEAL, Chicago, Ill.'

Any Colored preacher in the states of Illinois, Kentucky, Minnesota and Missouri, may be voted for. Any person can vote who complies with the following conditions:

Get a copy of THE APPEAL, cut out the ballot you will find there, write on it the FULL name of the preacher and his full address and send it by mail, or bring it to THE APPEAL office 325 Dearborn street, Chicago.

You can vote for the same preacher as often as you please. Every copy time you get a ballot you can send in a vote.

The only qualification for voting is to cut out the ballot in THE APPEAL and fill it out as directed above. But one preacher can be voted for on each ballot. Ballots containing the name of more than one preacher, will be thrown out.

See that your friends all get THE APPEAL, and if they do not wish to use the ballot, ask them to save it for you. Remember that every copy of THE APPEAL contains one ballot, and that every ballot means another vote.

Place your ballots in an envelope and address it as follows: THE APPEAL, CHICAGO, ILL. St. James A. M. E. Church—Order of services as follows: Sunday morning preaching at 11:00 o'clock, Sunday night 7:45, Sunday School at 1:00 p. m. Church located on 2d street S. E.

Mr. W. J. Johnson 509 4th street S., keeps one of the most cleanly places for the accommodation of the public to be found in the country; and, he deserves the patronage of the whole community. You cannot get a better 25 cent dinner anywhere than you can get there, served in the best style.

Mr. W. Phillips, of the Eleventh Ward, our candidate for the city council, is a young man who has been true to every principle of the Republican party; he has been in the council for two years and has done his duty to every principle of the party. He ought to receive every Republican vote in the ward.

St. James A. M. E. Church—A Grand Bazar Concert will be given at St. James Thursday evening Nov. 13. Admission 25c. Some of the best talent in the city will take part. This concert promises to be the grandest ever given at St. James Church. Don't fail to attend, we guarantee that you will be pleased.

P. Olson Earl Undertaker No. 1503 Franklin avenue South Minneapolis is one of the most affable and pleasant men in the business in our city, and his prices are quite moderate. We hope our friends will give him a call. He was one of those who fought our country's battles in the days of her struggles. Call and see him.

MONEY LOANED—On Horses, Wagons, household goods, musical instruments or any good security without removal. Also on watches, diamonds etc. No delay. Private room for ladies. Lowest rates in the city; open evenings. V. Heath, successor to W. H. Adamson, 27 Washington Ave. S.

There are only a few places of business in St. Paul, owned and operated by Colored people; but these few do not get the patronage of the Colored people as they should. Why not spend your money with Colored people, if you can possibly find any who can furnish what you wish. Help one another, and in so doing, you help yourself.

Last July Mr. Harrison Hurst who was working at the West Hotel quit work because he desired to leave the city. When he asked for his pay he was given an order for his money at the rate of twenty-five dollars per month, but he demanded the wages at the rate of thirty dollars the amount promised him for the summer months. This was refused him, so he put the case in Law for Morris' hands who secured a judgement for the full amount.

Captain S. P. Snider addressed the people of South Minneapolis last Monday evening. The hall on the corner of Bloomington and Franklin avenues, was packed. Mr. Snider gave a ringing comment of the work done by congress during the last session, it was the most complete answer to the Democratic party's charges that I have ever heard from any person in the news papers or on the platform. After Captain Snider's address, Mr. W. K. Hicks was called upon and made some most happy remarks.

Our Lawyer, Wm. R. Morris, has just secured another gratifying victory to our people by winning a suit from one W. P. Todd, a white man who refused to allow Mr. J. W. Hill to move into his (Todd's) house after he had rented it to him, because Mr. Hill is a Colored man. Lawyer Morris in his address to the jury most unmercifully scored Todd, denouncing his actions as disgraceful and outrageous in the extreme and wholly unbecoming a citizen of the great state of Minnesota, which has for its motto "The Star of the North."

Mr. Morris rendered his denunciation doubly cutting by his scholarly and chaste way of making it. The way to secure our rights is to demand them and fight to the hilt end for them. Every case of this kind ought to be taken to court and a jury allowed to decide it. If people persist in exercising their prejudice they should be made to pay for it.

Friday evening the Samuel P. Snider Club of Colored Republicans of Minneapolis, held an enthusiastic meeting at the Republican Headquarters on Second avenue South. After the Club had made a short march around the streets it returned to headquarters to listen to the speakers. Lawyer Wm. R. Morris was presented by chairman Rogers, and he delivered an eloquent, rousing, enthusiastic and powerful speech in behalf of Republicanism. He touched upon the McKinley Bill and showed that it was a measure that was to protect home industries and give work to the laboring men. He pronounced an anathema on the Federal Election Bill, saying that it was simply a measure to ensure to citizens the rights guaranteed them by the constitution. His comparisons between the Republican and Democratic parties, were especially good, and his illustrations were chaste and trenchant. His illustrations to Captain Snider were exceedingly eloquent and pointed. He urged in a convincing and interesting way the entire Republican ticket, state, county and city. The speech on the whole was very fine and the audience was held as if by a magic spell.

Lawyer F. L. McGhee, of St. Paul, followed in a pointed, eloquent, interesting and taking address. He clearly pointed out the schemes and tricks of the democrats and showed that they would not do to trust. He told about their promises in St. Paul, how they were going to divide the offices with the Colored men etc., but as soon as they got in power their promises were, in their judgement kept, by appointing one Colored man as dog catcher and then arresting and fining him for catching a Democratic dog. One Colored man was also appointed a special policeman but he was discharged for taking a drink of whiskey. Mr. McGhee secured a point by asserting that there is not a policeman in St. Paul upon whose breath the odor of whiskey can be detected. Mr. McGhee's speech was interesting in the extreme and the closest attention was given him. F. M. Nye, the candidate for county attorney, on the Republican ticket followed with an about out eloquent, scholarly and powerful address. His remarks were exceedingly appropriate and commanded the closest attention. The meeting throughout was enthusiastic and everybody was in the best of humor. There is no doubt that the meeting will result in material good to the Grand old party of human liberty and principles.

(CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE) honor to the Colored. He ought to receive every Colored and white Republican vote in the county. As an old war veteran, true and tried, we should stand by him. He has the universal confidence of the lawyers and courts of the country without respect to party lines. THE APPEAL will give him its most hearty support. Mr. Ege has ever been a true and tried Republican, believing in its principals and bearing its burdens, and to the Colored people of the county and city he has been the most sincere and unflinching friend and we will stand by him until the sun goes down on election day. No man is a better friend to the black man. He is not afraid to take any poor man by the hand black or white.
