SEEKING FOR THE LOST. If You Have a Missing Friend or Relative Read this Column. All Who Mourn a Missing Father, Mother, Brother, Son, Sister, Wife, Husband or Daughter, Should Read this Column Every Week. There are many persons throughout this great land who mourn some missing relative. Many home circles are rendered unhappy by the fact that there is a vacant chair. THE APPEAL, ever willing to lend its aid toward ameliorating the sufferings of all mankind, has concluded to devote a column to those who seek missing relatives. This column is open to all, whether subscribers or not, free. Any person who wishes to find a missing relative may use this column "without money and without price." Send description of the missing one, also date and place when last seen or heard from. The large circulation of THE APPEAL, covering as it does every State and Territory in the United States, may make this service of inestimable value to some persons who now mourn the loss of loved ones.

NEWSPAPER LAWS. The following are the laws laid down by the United States Government for the protection of newspapers: Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrears are paid. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers and papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office before removing and leaving them uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud. If subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice to the publisher at the end of their time, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrears is sent to the publisher. Publishers of newspapers can under law, arrest any man for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law it is a dangerous trick for a man to allow his subscription account to run on for six months to a year and a half, unpaid and then tell the postmaster to mark "refused" or to send the editor a notice to discontinue the paper.

HOW TO CURE A RED NOSE. A Physician Makes Some Remarks About a Remedy for Tuddy Blossoms. "What shall I do for this nose, doctor?" said the patient with the inflamed proboscis, anxiously. "It gets any redder my influence as a teacher in the Sunday school will be totally gone." The physician gazed upon the organ submitted to his diagnosis with a coldly scientific eye. "Do you stimulate?" he inquired. "Drink, you mean? Me?" cried the patient. "Not a drop of spirits ever crosses my lips. My standing in the church—" "Then it is as I thought," rejoined the doctor, calmly. "Your's is a beer nose. Therefore, I do not think I shall have much difficulty in effecting a cure. Permit me."

THE AVERAGE MAN. His Name Is Legion, Yet Nobody Has Ever Heard of Him. One of the most galling tyrannies of modern life is that of the average man. Did you ever see the average man? No. Are you acquainted with any one who ever did? No. Have you any reason to believe that the average man ever existed? No, again. The fact is he is a myth. He never did and never will exist. He is a philosophical abstraction, a stage property of the metaphysician, a straw man, set up to be worshipped or reviled, as the case may be. And yet we all bow down to him and talk in hushed whispers about his thoughts, needs and desires. We are rejoiced when he is supposed to smile, and tremble when he frowns. Statisticians burn the midnight oil in order to do sums about him. Statesmen give up their lives in his service. Political economists look solemn as they take his measure. Physicians tell us how he may keep well, and preachers adjust the message of the Gospel to his comprehension. And yet, were it never did and never will exist, he is the tyrant of the world. Who will deliver the world from the tyrannical rule of the average man.—Chicago Journal.

There is no line so handsomely equipped for Through Passenger Service as "The North-Western Line."—C., St. P., M. & O. Ry. All well posted travelers between Twin Cities and Chicago take this line—particularly favoring the "Vestibule Limited," which carries the finest sleeping cars and coaches ever built, and also all classes of passengers, without extra fares. On the Lake Superior portion of the line, between Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth, and St. Paul and Ashland, Pullman sleepers are run on night trains, and reclining chair cars on day trains.

between these principal cities, the Chicago & North-Western system of lines, composed of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha, Chicago & North-Western, and Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley Rys (all advertised as "The North-Western Line"), offers the quickest means of reaching all cities and towns in the territory intersected by it. In connection with Union Pacific the C., St. P., M. & O. Ry. also forms a new system, the only through car line to the Pacific coast. All particulars, with maps and time tables, may be obtained at any station, or at following principal offices: ST. PAUL: 159 East Third street. MINNEAPOLIS: 13 Nicollet House Block. DULUTH: 323 Hotel St. Louis Block. CHICAGO: 203 South Clark Street, or address, T. W. TEASDALE, General Passenger Agent, St. Paul.
