There will be an oration by Lawyer McGhee and other interesting features. A good string band will be in attendance. Look for further particulars next week.

Mr. J. H. Smith had good luck this week. Some time ago he had some trouble about some lots he owned and sold up on the hill and he had to make good the title at a cost of several hundreds of dollars. This week the money was refunded to him by the administrator of the Thos. B. Merritt estate.

The friends of Miss Frankie J. Seay in this city who became acquainted with her during her visit here last summer will be pleased to learn that she has graduated from the Central Tennessee College business department and has opened an office for stenography and type writing, in Nashville, Tenn., her home.

A letter has been received by Mr. N.

Gilliland stating that Mr. Charles McKinney who left here for his home in Cincinnati a few weeks ago died of the disease which caused him to leave here, July 29. He had embraced religion and was prepared to go. He had many friends among those who knew him here who will deeply sympathize with mother and sister in their loss.

There are only a few places of business in St. Paul, owned and operated by Colored people; but these few do not get the patronage of the Colored people as they should. Why not spend your money with Colored people, if you can possibly find any who can furnish what you wish. Help one another, and in so doing, you help yourself.

The ever pleasing opera, Little Red Riding Hood under the efficient management of Miss Nellie Griswold, was given in admirable style at Pilgrim Baptist church Thursday evening. There was a full house and each and every participant in the program seemed to be doing his or her best.

Burt Shepard's Refined Modern Minstrels will give the first performance of minstrelsy at the Metropolitan this season. The engagement is for four nights and matinee, commencing tomorrow evening. The first part introduces characters in costumes from several most popular opera; the end men, among which are Burt Shepard and Jay Quigley being dressed as the "Gondolier Kings with Mikado" as the "Teller of the Tale" among the prominent features is the spectacular march "Stanley in Africa" Eddie Magee's modern song and dance, in which the artists are richly dressed in satins, accordion skirts, etc.

We told you so! The reception and lecture of Prof. H. T. Kealing at St. James church under the management of Mrs. T. H. Lyles was an unqualified success. The house was well filled with as fine looking audience as ever graced it. The lady ushers looked most charming and proved to be a very pleasant feature of the evening. The church was profusely decorated with flowers, every body was dressed in his best, and on the whole it was a most pleasant affair. The lecturer proved to be very entertaining and stated some very startling facts which should furnish food for much future thought. The other exercises were: A piano solo by Prof. W. A. Weir; solo by Mrs. William Smith of Dunjee, of Minneapolis; solo by Miss Fannie Burke, of Minneapolis; quartette by the St. James choir quartet, all of which were admirably rendered. After the exercises all had a good time in the supper room until a late hour. Mrs. Lyles is a wonderful woman and has a way peculiar to herself of making success of seeming impossibilities. She deserves much credit for her signal success in this instance.

Grand Opera House.

But one more week at the Grand and then that popular theater will be closed to redecorate and open for the coming season, Sunday Aug. 9, and week the scenic spectacular "The Bottom of the Sea" will be presented. The next regular season at the Grand opens Sunday Aug. 23, with Hoyt's "A Midnight Bell."

Profundo Basso Concert.

Instead of the 11th as was announced, next Friday evening Aug. 14th, will be one of the events of the season, a grand concert consisting of speaking, recitations, songs, quartettes, duets, solos and choruses, at Old Fellows Hall, corner 3d and Cedar streets. Participants in the concert are from St. Paul, West St. Paul, Minneapolis, Winona and Dubuque, Iowa, some of their names are as follows: Prof. Luca, Mrs. Salie Williams and others of St. James choir, Hon. F. L. McGhee who will speak; Rev. D. A. Graham and Mesdames Marshall and Benly of Minneapolis; Rev. J. C. Anderson, Mrs. Berta Morris of Dubuque, Iowa, and other persons who will make the entertainment superb. Mrs. H. L. Terry the interpretation of whose name means "success" and her attentive satellites will have charge of the refreshments. Admission 25 cents. Sandwiches and coffee free. Come out every day and let's see if we can't enjoy the season's crown.

A Basket Picnic.

As the day was inclement on the occasion of the joint picnic at Spring Park of the Pilgrim Baptist and the St. James A. M. E. Sunday Schools, both preventing many from attending and marring the pleasures of those who attended, the members of St. James Sunday School desiring to have another day's outing, have secured Groveland Park at Macalister and will give a basket picnic Thursday Aug. 13. If it rains on Thursday the picnic will be postponed to the next day. Take Macalister and Groveland Park electric cars, ten cents round trip. There will be light refreshments for sale.

Pilgrim Baptist Church.

Larger and larger seem to be our Sunday congregations, and at this season when it is usually harder to get the people to church. Can we see any encouragement in that?

The church has granted the pastor a month's vacation beginning the 12th inst. On the 11th inst. the annual meeting of the church and congregation to elect two trustees. Every person that contributes regularly toward the support of the church is invited to be present. At the close of the business there will be refreshments served free to all. Let every friend of the church come.

All the meetings will be carried on during the vacation of the pastor. Bible study Wednesday, a prayer meeting Friday night. Pastor will preach Sunday morning and evening also baptize in the morning.

Duluth, Minn.

Wait until Thursday Aug. 13 when the finest picnic ever given in the history of Duluth will take place. The best grounds at Park Point have been secured for the occasion. The West Superior Band will furnish music for the day and evening. The street cars will leave for the grounds from the canal on Lake Ave. South all through the day and evening. Boats will leave Duluth as follows: From Lake Ave. S. near C. W. Winner's barber shop 10:00 a. m. and Second and Colver's 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. Leave Superior Dock, West Superior as follows: 11:00 a. m., 3:00 and 7:00 p. m. Ticket for round trip 25 cents.

Committee of arrangements.

J. M. Richey, C. W. Winner, C. W. Dorsey, T. H. Johnson, C. H. Williams, J. M. Waughn, J. Butler, W. H. Bryant, Refreshment committee: Mesdames L. Raach, W. H. Bryant, Mary Coleman and J. N. Richey. The picnic is for the benefit of St. Mark's A. M. E. church. Mr. E. Jones left for Detroit, Mich. to be gone three months.

SUMMER SCHEDULE.

Lake Minnetonka Trains.

On Monday, May 25th, the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railway placed in effect its summer schedule as follows: Leave Minneapolis at 6:00. (8:45 to Excelsior) 9:30 a. m., 1:20, 5:05 and 6:03 p. m. Returning, leave Lake Park Hotel at 7:00, 8:00 a. m., 12:35 (3:31 from Excelsior) 4:28 and 7:43 p. m. Lake Park Hotel now open for reception of guests.

He—What can I do to make you happy?

She—Do without.

He—Without what?

She—Me.

Jack Potter—I never wished I was blind but once.

Bob Taylor—When was that?

Jack Potter—The last time I played poker. I saw a man who held four aces.

Ode to the Banana Peel.

The street car had passed, but to catch it he reckoned,

So he ran like a deer, and showed and beckoned,

Full he planned his feat—

On a smooth bit of peat—

Then he saw half million stars in a second.

He was in too great a hurry; better have waited for another car. This business of running after street cars is risky, and undignified too. The safest and most comfortable mode of travel is by the regular trains of a railroad, provided always that you select such a first-class line as "The Burlington." Its trains leave from and arrive at all the principal cities and towns in the West promptly on time, and if your watch runs correctly, you need never run to catch a train. Its time system for the running of its trains is perfect, and its equipment of free reclining chair cars, Pullman vestibule sleepers, and peerless dining cars is unequalled by any other line. For tickets, time tables, maps, etc., call on your local ticket agent, or address W. J. C. Kenyon, Gen. Pass. Agent, "The Burlington," St. Paul, Minn.

LAST MUSICALS.

The Last of the Musicales at St. James A. M. E. Church.

Will be Given Tomorrow August 9th. This Will be in the Same Line and Style as its Predecessors and Grand Beyond Compare.

The conference year of the talented young divine Rev. D. P. Brown of St. James A. M. E. church is drawing to a close and it is desired that it shall end in a blaze of glory. The afternoon musician which he inaugurated, two of which have been given to evident satisfaction of all who attended, is to be followed by the third and last of this conference year at St. James church, tomorrow afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, to which all who are tempted before are invited and all who miss the former occasions are especially invited. The program which has been arranged is most excellent, and will be sure to please all. The reports of the progress of the last grand rally of the conference year and the collection of dollar money will be made and it is therefore desired that every member and friend of the church will be present on this occasion. Let no one stay away from this last musical entertainment.

MINNEAPOLIS.

Mrs. H. Vanterce of Springfield, Ill. is spending a very pleasant summer with Mr. and Mrs. Scott Gibb 505 Third street N.

Rev. D. A. Graham gave a reception last Friday night at his residence 11th Ave. S. in honor of his mother and other friends stopping with him.

Prof. Kealing ran down to Hastings Minn., Tuesday of this week and returned Thursday afternoon. He expects to speak there next week.

Mrs. C. Falls entertained at dinner last Sunday, Mrs. Mary E. Parker of St. Paul, Mrs. Chas. P. Jeter of Minneapolis and Prof. H. T. Kealing of Anston, Tex.

3. For de love of heaven it am a cat.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Scott have just returned from a most pleasant trip to Des Moines, Iowa. Mrs. A. Scott of Des Moines comes with her sister and will spend sometime in our city.

Mr. Frank Anderson has bought the fine barber shop No. 206 Washington avenue S., where he has fitted up beautiful bath rooms and every other accommodation in the line of the best equipped shop. It is one of the best in the city.

Bontell Bros., corner Washington avenue South and 2nd avenue, is the place in the city to get bargains in all kinds of stoves, furniture, carpets and crockery. All goods on easy instalments. These gentlemen are affable and pleasant to all.

The friends of Rev. D. A. Graham gave a grand reception in honor of Mrs. Lucinda Mason, Miss Mattie Owens of Indiana and Mrs. S. die Peterson of Chicago. It was one of the most pleasant affairs we have had in our city for a long time.

W. J. Johnson 509 4th street, S. has greatly enlarged his dining room and is now prepared to accommodate his friends better than ever before. The traveling public will find this the best place in the city to get their meals when visiting our beautiful city.

The failure of the Executive Board to send Rev. Thomas L. Johnson to England, thence to Africa, in January last, has evidently redounded to the good of the society. Two of the churches in this city, and two in St. Paul, have promised to give annual donations to the African Mission.

Mr. W. J. Johnson 509 4th street S., keeps one of the most cleanly places for the accommodation of the public to be found in the country; and he deserves the patronage of the whole community. You cannot get a better 25 cent dinner anywhere than you can get there, served in the best style.

MONEY LOANED—On Horses, Wagons, household goods, musical instruments or any good security without removal. Also on watches, diamonds etc. No delay. Private room for ladies. Lowest rates in the city; open evenings. V. Heath, successor to W. H. Adamson, 27 Washington Ave. S.

St. James and St. Peter's churches are closing up the year's work and the two pastors Rev. J. P. Jones and Rev. D. A. Graham we hope will carry up such a good report of the year's work that they may have returned for another year, as they have gained a large place in the hearts of all the people here.

Dr. J. F. McKinley of Austin, Tex., is left for Chicago last Friday where he joined his wife. He spent a roval good time in our city and made a deep impression upon all who met him. He spoke in the most glowing terms of the citizens of Minneapolis. Mr. Durjee and family made it as pleasant for him as possible.

P. Olson Earl, Undertaker No. 1503 Franklin avenue South Minneapolis is one of the most affable and pleasant men in the business in our city, and his prices are quite moderate. We hope our friends will give him a call. He was one of those who fought our country's battles in the days of her struggles. Call and see him.

Rev. T. L. Johnson is yet in Minneapolis with Rev. J. W. Durjee 227 4th street S. He is enjoying himself this fall for his work in Africa. We hope our people may rally around this good man who is giving his life to Africa. He has been identified with the Pride of Minnesota Lodge No. 3, K. of P. He has received all of the honors of the order and will be deputized by the supreme grand lodge to establish its work in Liberia Africa, thus our city will have the great honor of carrying the great principles of this order in that benighted land.

Prof. H. T. Kealing of Austin, Tex. delivered a religious lecture at Bethesda Baptist church Sunday evening to a packed house. His subject has Nazareth or Nazareth. He gave first the most graphic description of the country around this old historic sacred town, in such a way that those present can never forget it. After this the subject was treated in the most congenial way, so perfect was his discipline of this place that one could imagine that he could almost see some of the scenes of old apostol times. The leading point brought out was that in order to succeed well in life we must have some definite point in view and bend our whole life to that thing.

Portland, Oregon.

Rev. T. Brown preached an able sermon last Sunday evening to a large and appreciative congregation at Zion church. Messrs. Wm. Clipper, Wm. Newman, J. Winkey, were initiated in the Pride of the West No. 1, K. of P. on July 30th.

Mrs. S. E. Johnson of 20th and G streets, gave an outing party to a few of her many friends on Wednesday evening the 29th. There were two large companies that carried the merry crowd about 9 miles in the country, where they stopped at a friend's and partaken of the bounteous repast, such as the country folk are famous for providing. Among those present were: Mesdames Johnson, Kelsy, Singleton, Jackson, Whitfield, Bozile, Allen, Miss C. Burnett; Messrs. Galloway, Marshall, Brown, Hudson, Allen and J. J. Eord.

Phoenix, Miss.

Mr. R. L. Miller of Lake City is treasurer of four societies.

Messrs. W. D. Sander and W. Gillum visited the public school Monday.

Misses M. Starks and Daniel of Vicksburg are in the city guests of Mrs. Williamson.

Miss Della York, a young lady of blue eyes and rosy cheeks is attending the public schools.

Rev. Bell held his monthly meeting on the old camp ground. An enormous crowd was present.

Mr. Wallace and Mr. A. Miller were pleased with the sermon at Lynch's Chapel last Sunday.

4. O-o-o-o-o-o-h.

Miss Libby Wallace will spend August in Yazoo City the guest of her friend Miss Mary J. Turner.

Newspaper Laws.

The following are the laws laid down by the United States Government for the protection of newspapers:

Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrears are paid.

If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers and papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office before removing and leaving them uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

If subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice to the publisher at the end of their time, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it on and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrears is sent to the publisher.

Publishers of newspapers can under law arrest any man for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law it is a dangerous trick for a man to allow his subscription account to run on for six months to a year and a half, unpaid and then tell the postmaster to mark "refused" or to send the editor a notice to discontinue the paper.

PRESIDENT OF HAITI.

Something About Gen. Hippolyte, Chief of the Republic.

He is the Political Idol of the Pure Blacks—Uncle Sam Has No Particular Reason for Favoring His Continuance in Office.

Gen. Hippolyte is about sixty years of age, and of coal black complexion. He is the political idol of the pure blacks, uncontaminated by creole marriages, says Harper's Weekly. Gen. Legitime, whom he displaced, was a mulatto, and the hope of the creole population. Politics are still somewhat primitive in Haiti, and the color of the candidate's complexion is more closely regarded than the planks in his platform. Hippolyte is the son of a prominent Haitian professor, who was educated in the normal schools of France at the expense of his government, and on his return founded a military college at Cape Haitien, which is still the most prominent educational institution on the island. He has ruled over the black republic for over a year, and though his sway has been disputed in three revolutions and four sporadic riots, he seems still quite firm in the presidential chair.

Of course, Gen. Hippolyte does not expect to complete his presidential term of six years; an ordeal so severe and so long drawn out would snap even the hard fiber of a Haitian politician, seasoned though he have been in a hundred revolutions. Gen. Hippolyte has very nearly completed the average term of eighteen months, which, by some unwritten law, is allotted to the Haitian presidents to rule in, and doubtless we will soon see him follow in the wake of his predecessors, Solomon and Legitime, sail away to Paris to join with them in the pursuit of expatriation pleasures, and assume his proper position as an interesting figure in that circle of South and Central American expatriates who help to make a certain section of society life in

PRESIDENT HIPPOLYTE OF HAITI.

Paris picturesque, and who are quite as worthy of the biting wit of Daudet as the exiled royalties.

The "passing to Paris" of Gen. Hippolyte would be observed with pleasure by the authorities of our state and naval departments in Washington, who charge him with a breach of faith and failure to pay a debt of gratitude. Eighteen months ago Hippolyte was surrounded on the northern shores of the island by the forces of Gen. Legitime, who enjoyed the active sympathy of M. de Sessmaisons in his attempt to usurp the presidency. Hippolyte would inevitably have been starved into surrender and submission had not Admiral Gherard, acting under orders of our state department, declared the blockade of the northern ports of Haiti "illegal, because ineffective." American merchantmen then succeeded in landing arms and other munitions of war, of which Hippolyte made such good use that, within a few weeks Gen. Legitime had to pack up his boxes and leave, while Port au Prince hailed Hippolyte as supreme chief of all the Haitians.

In return for these good offices, the state and navy departments of Washington expected, and claim to have had good reason to expect, the cession of the Mole St. Nicolas as a coaling station for our war vessels. Gen. Hippolyte and his ministers, however, claim to have a very different understanding of the informal negotiations of that time, and the state department is in receipt of a communication from Minister Firmin in which the cession of the coaling station as requested is categorically refused.

It is only fair to give the Haitian version of the controversy as I find the views of the present government exposed in their newspaper organs.

In a few words, the Haitians claim that we are not seeking to obtain a coaling station, but a military and naval arsenal, occupying the strongest possible position on the island, and to this demand, M. Firmin, the minister of foreign affairs, has sent the state department a curt refusal.
