Every letter that you write us, never fail to give your full name and address, plainly written, post office, county and state. Business letters of all kinds must be on separate sheets from letters containing news or matter for publication.

AGENTS WANTED. THE APPEAL wants good reliable agents to canvass for subscribers at points not already covered. Write for our extraordinary inducements. Address, THE APPEAL, St. Paul Minn.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 13, 1892.

In his speech of acceptance, Mr. Cleveland thus alludes to the so-called "force bill."

"We are pledged to resist the legislation intended to complete this scheme, because we have not forgotten the saturnalia of theft and brutal control which followed another federal regulation of state suffrage; because we know that the managers of a party which did not scruple to rob the people of a president, would not hesitate to use the machinery created by such legislation, to revive corrupt instrumentalities for partisan purposes; because an attempt to enforce such legislation would rekindle animosities which have been dormant, and would prevail, because such an attempt would replace prosperous activity with discouragement and dread throughout a large section of our country, and would menace, everywhere in the land, the rights reserved to the States and to the people, which underlie the safeguard of American liberty."

Such sturdy mendacity and impudence so lavishly displayed at once determine the authors' calibre. Such so-called elections and gerrymanders have been attempted by Mr. Cleveland's party in New York, New Jersey, Missouri, Wisconsin, and Michigan, the precursors of civil war—they can lead to no other result. And the author's simplicity is shown by his horror of federal regulation of suffrage, when Tammany, no doubt, intends to so regulate the suffrage in New York as to keep its electoral vote from going to Cleveland.

The Democratic convention recently held at Jefferson City, Mo., mixed a little slush for the colored voters in the shape of the annexed resolution:

"We congratulate the Negro voters of the country on their manifest tendency to think and vote independently on matters of public policy, rather than to be guided by the passions and prejudices of by-gone days."

At the same time the members of the same convention were "guided by the passions and prejudices of by-gone days" by nominating for governor old Methuselah Stone of whom the Democratic organ says:

"Of a New Missouri," "A wide-open Missouri, inviting everybody, even Yankees, and keeping time and step with the great Northern States of the Union, the school to which Col. Stone belongs, and of which he is a worthy representative, has no earthly connection."

The most striking thing about the Homestead troubles is the labored attempt to make political capital of it. Democratic newspapers have depicted Carnegie as a monster, who made an immense fortune by forcing his laborers down to starvation wages. They have not, however, stated how those wages compare with those paid in the Democratic states of Alabama and Georgia. Nor have they once alluded to the mining strikes in Tennessee. Carnegie had nothing to do with the troubles at Briceville, which were put down by the military power of the State.

"The terrible experience of Southern States in the days of Carpet Bag rule shows that the various devices which the white people of the South have adopted, in order to restrict the exercise of political power are not only wise and desirable, but absolutely indispensable to the public safety and the public welfare."

So says the New York Sun, which has lately done an immense amount of raving over the "Force Bill." It is a fact, however, that the "terrible experience" of Southern States has been since "Carpet Bag rule." Nearly every Southern State treasurer since those times has been a thief, and murder has become a pastime.

Mej. Warner, Republican candidate for governor of Missouri, has been for twenty-seven years a resident of that State, married there and has children there. Nevertheless, the Jefferson City Tribune sneers at him as a Carpet Bagger. And, intelligent men who are contemplating a change of residence and settlement in a new locality who read this in the official organ of the State—will shun Missouri. It is a pity Noland stole all the funds—it would pay Missouri so well to employ a good foolkiller.

The Mississippi Valley Railroad Company, indicted in the Memphis (Tenn.) Criminal Court for failing to provide separate coaches for white and colored passengers, has been acquitted, on the grounds that the company provided the coaches, but that it was impossible to keep the whites and the Negroes separate, as they would mingle of their own accord anyhow. A more appropriate ending to an idiotic enactment could scarcely be imagined.

Annie Johnson, a colored New York girl, recently threw vitriol in the face of Wm. Snow, a white man who betrayed and refused to marry her. He was horribly burned and scarred as he well deserved to be, as he had broken three of her ribs by kicking her and also stabbed her. Snow will never be as good looking as he was, but will probably have much more sense and decency.

Mr. Henry F. Downing a colored Democrat, has been refused entertainment by some white Democrats of a restaurant in Brooklyn; and is so indignant and inconsistent that he has brought suit. Of course he does this under laws enacted by Republicans. When a colored man enjoys any rights or seeks any privileges, he always goes to the G. O. P.

The Republican National Committee proposes to carry the war into Africa, by aiding in the Solid South any and every party opposed to the old Bourbonocracy. It will first aid Kolb in Alabama in his battle for "a free ballot and fair count." Then it will take a hand in South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia.

It will be a great thing for the South and the country for the Negroes of the South to get into the habit of voting, no matter how they vote for. It would be better that they voted the straight Bourbon ticket than not to vote at all.—Globe-Democrat

Yes, because where one would vote Bourbon, 99 would go anti-Bourbon. That's, evidently, why the Bourbs do not want them to vote at all.

The Tunny County lynchings could not be convicted because out of a band of party men, thirty-five belonged to the gang. This is the first instance of the thing working that way when the victims were white; but we hope it won't be the last. White people need to learn a good deal about the way lynch law works.

Col. Streater, who hung up Private Iams by the thumbs, is a Democrat and chairman of his party's County Central Committee. He is, also, a savage that should not be tolerated in any part of the United States, not even in Texas. Especially such a brute should not be invested with any authority over men.

It is conceded that the strikers had no connection with the assassin Bergman, but their lawless acts led to his. Senator Palmer, of course, was not connected with Bergman; but his incendiary ravings were really in the line of encouraging such cranks.

Mej. J. Olmstead, who was assistant Provost Marshal at St. Louis in 1864, says that the roster of the Golden Circle can easily be produced and that Adlai Stevenson's name appears upon it. Steve's record as a copperhead cannot be disputed.

The Southern Courier, of Jacksonville, Fla., claims that there would have been great trouble were it not for the brave, determined, colored men of Jacksonville ville who anticipated the mob and were on the ground first.

The Michigan Supreme Court has pronounced the rascally Democratic gerrymander of the election districts unconstitutional. Southern methods don't work well in Michigan.

Savannah, Ga. It is true that Miss R. D. L. is engaged to Altona on a visit.

Mrs. L. B. Maxwell has gone to Altona on a visit.

Miss Josephine Cross one of Atlanta's popular young ladies is spending a while in the city as the guest of Miss Edmonia Randolph.

Marion Heyward was convicted as another one of Meyers' (white) murderers and sentenced to hang September 23rd. He claims that he is innocent.

Prof. S. B. Morse has lost his job in the Custom House, said to be through negligence. Never mind Prof. the president will help you out in '93.

The many friends of Miss Marie Saxon of Charleston, S. C., will be glad to learn that she will make a short visit to the Forest City and will be the guest of Mrs. C. W. Lawson.

THE APPEAL should be read by all it is the only paper. For sale at Mr. Gowan Field's barber shop, Hall street near Montgomery also, at Mr. Wm. Grant's barber shop corner Whitaker and Grant streets.

Owing to the recent purchase of the residence of the late Dr. Coker by the Second Baptist Church has removed of McDonough street near Price, Rev. L. B. Maxwell preaches Igood sermons All are invited to attend.

There was a meeting at Rev. Love's Church Tuesday evening against a benevolent society composed of white directors and colored members that supplies medicine, doctor, and nurse, if needed, when any of the members are sick who pay to join and also pay a monthly fee. Dr. Snelson and others showed good reasons that it is a fraudulent concern. That's right Rev. and Dr. away with frauds. It is about time the colored people were learning not to let frauds take their hard earned cash, remember this is 1892.

Henry Reils the white murdered of Jeff Lowe was released by a bunch of magistrates, July 29th who called it, "Justifiable Homicide." Our two colored lawyers Messrs. John H. Kinckle and J. Robert Davis certainly deserve credit, for it was no fault of theirs that, Reils was allowed to go free as they clearly showed that he was guilty of a deliberate murder but, of course white men are angels (?) in this city and never do wrong or anything intentionally. The passionate speech of Mr. Kinckle completely staggered our great silver tongued orator Mr. F. G. du Bigon, white, and he was all at sea. He arose and rebuked as he called it the two lawyers for trying to arouse the passions of the colored people to desire revenge when it clearly showed that Reils was justified by God and man. But we don't see clearly that way Mr. du Bigon, and is it not high time that the colored people should desire revenge when they are murdered in cold blood? And when the murderer is brought before the court he is allowed to go free and murder called "Justifiable Homicide." Just think of it!

Danville, Ky. Mr. G. B. and J. P. seems to be waiting patiently.

Danville Colored fair will begin Aug 22nd and continue three days.

Mr. Seltan Parr has just returned home from Lincoln University.

Mr. Shelby Bowman and Miss Susie Durham are going to get married.

All the colored drivers were kept busy last week driving to the white fair.

Mr. Owen Thomas has made a new mash on a young lady from Cincinnati.

Miss Susie D. Henry of Louisville, Ky., will teach school here again next season.

Mr. Marshall Graves has built his cage but Mattie has not been caught yet. Poor Marshall.

The A. M. E. Church of Burgin, Ky., was dedicated by Rev. G. H. Burke of Danville on Sunday July 31.

Mr. John Tibbs is the stingiest man in town. He is afraid to go to church for fear they might take up a collection.

Miss D. D. Rowe says she is tired of single life and says she must hurry up and get off before she is called an old maid.

Miss Annie Doram says the young people around Danville don't court fast enough for her. She is going to try it herself.

Mr. Mumford and Miss Lon are still trying to make it up. She is waiting for him to get a little more of that fat from himself.

There are certain school teachers here that never attend Sunday school and hardly ever attend church only at night. Very poor teachers we think indeed.

Mr. G. J. Doram's cash drawer was robbed of five or six dollars last week but he caught the thief and recovered his money. The thief was turned over to the law.

Wonder why the stewards and class leaders of the A. M. E. Ch. ch. don't attend to their duties. Guess they all go to their lodges ever class and prayer meeting night.

John Rowe has caught one cat fish. E. E. Miller thinks he will catch one before the summer is gone. John Caldwell and Geo. Beatty never get a bite only out of their dinner buckets.

There is not a single colored grocery keeper in Danville who will buy a paper of THE APPEAL agent. Yet we spend our money with them, we think one good turn deserves another. They read white newspapers or those edited by white people.

The Midsummer Holiday Century will contain a number of complete stories, including "The Philosophy of Relative Existences," a ghost story which is said to reverse some of the old traditions, by Frank R. Stockton, and "The Colonel's Last Campaign," by the author of "Mr. Cutting, the Night Editor," and with illustrations by Charles Dana Gibson.

A paper of marked interest by Mrs. French-Sheldon, the daring American lady who penetrated Africa as far as Kilimanjara, will be a feature of the July Arena. It is the first paper written by Mrs. Sheldon since her return from the wilds of Africa, and is handsomely illustrated by pictures drawn from photographs taken by her when in the heart of the dark continent.

In order to stimulate American composition, The Ladies' Home Journal has just made public an attractive series of liberal prizes for the best original musical composition by composers resident in the United States and Canada. The prizes call for a waltz, a piano composition, a pleasing ballad, and a popular song, an anthem and the four best lyrics tunes. The competition is open until November 1st, next.

The new Serial, "Barbara Merivale," opens the August number of Cassell's Family Magazine. Following close upon the heels of this is an amusing paper called "Our Belongings: The Boys," showing with pen and pencil the boy who is father to the man, The Paris and London fashion letters are as practical and suggestive as usual, and there is a full and interesting Gaiety—Cassell's Publishing Company, 15 cents a number; $1.50 a year, in advance.

Jennens Miller Illustrated Monthly for August contains numerous articles of special interest to women. Mrs. Miller writes interestingly of "Liberty, Love and Art." Miss Mary F. Seymour has a timely article on "Typewriting as a Trade," Baroness von Megerinck discusses "Music and Voice Culture." There is an interview with Superintendent Jasper on "Public Schools and Women as School Teachers." There is also an article on "The Girls in Colleges," "The Writers of Young France," by Vance Thompson, is timely and bright. In addition to these there are articles about Fashions, Children, Hints for the Home, and many brief papers very interesting to women. It is a magazine that no woman should be without. Price $1.00 a year, 10 cents a copy. Address, Jennens Miller Co., 114 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Ida, Cincinnati.—September is as good a month as any for a wedding.

O. V. W., Minneapolis.—Your mother should write to the young man and request him to return your letters and photograph. You were unwise in returning his first.

Kittie Clover, Boston—January 23, 1874, fell on Friday; April 21, 1873, on Thursday. 2. Arsenic is a deadly poison which should never be used internally except when prescribed by a regular physician.

E. H. L., Lakewood.—To "whip in" is to drive or keep from scattering, as hounds in a hunt, to collect in and keep from scattering, as members of a legislative body, etc. 2. We have no knowledge of the person you refer to.

E. B. D. Frankfort.—Sunday was observed as the seventh day of the week until the resurrection of Christ, in commemoration of which, it was translated to the first day of the week, and it is so regarded in all countries and by all Christians.

Mabel, St. Paul.—The diamond signifies innocence; the emerald, success in love; the ruby, beauty and elegance; the turquoise, prosperity. 2. Such a lover as he, whom you describe, would doubtless develop into a pronounced tyrant in the role of a husband.

S. A. K., Sandusky.—We have no recipe that will answer your purpose. 2. There is no uniform price for gentlemen's scarfpins. A cheap imitation scarfpin can be bought for 25 cents, while a solitary diamond pin may cost as much as $1,000 and upward, according to the size and purity of the stone.

Canton, Mississippi. We are not having so much rain now. We are glad to know that Mr. Wallace is recovering health.

Mr. J. A. Carnichael enjoyed a pleasant trip to Madison Sta., last week.

Miss Corrie Shackelford, one of Canton's lovely rosebuds, is visiting her sister of Jackson.

The residence of Mrs. Robt. Jackson was graced last week by the presence of her sister from New Orleans La.

Misses Susie Garrett and Maggie Williamson of Sharon were among the popular visitors to our city last week. Come again.

The marriage of Mr. Albert Baker and Miss Mary Jones took place on the 22nd inst at half past five in the evening. A large number present.

We noticed a large number of visitors here last week. There are also some here this week. We're always glad to see our city honored by so many intelligent persons.

Mr. Gus Williamson, formerly of this city, but now a resident of the capitol city, gave us a pleasant call which was much appreciated. He looks well and his many friends were pleased to see him.

Friday Aug 5th was an eventful day here, and one long to be remembered, by those whose presence graced Hargrove's Grove, to enjoy the Union picnic. It was a Union picnic too. Everybody worked together. Long before the time appointed for the grand parade, people shady grove. Everyone carried a large crowd had been wending their way to the basket and a smiling face. The parade, headed by brass band Hope No. 2 which consisted of the S. S., scholars and the juveniles, reached the grove at 11 o'clock A. M. After a short rest the programme was rendered. There were some splendid essays, and some sweet singing by the choir. Rev's Hibbler, Marshall and Davis certainly deserve great praise for their excellent addresses. A table was spread from one end of the programme everybody repaired to this where they enjoyed themselves to the highest.

Poplar Bluff Mo. The band boys have new suits. The Church is moving on nicely. Mrs. Jennie Woodsell is in the city. Mr. Smith leaves for Ironton Sunday. The band boys gave a ball last Monday night.

The North end of Poplar Bluff is very popular. Miss L. Carter is in our city for the summer. Mr. S. Martin will be ready to move in a few days. Mr. Renfro made a flying trip to St. Louis this week.

Mrs. Susie Powers has gone to Beach Rock to visit her husband. Mr. Watson Shavors and Cousin have opened an ice cream parlor. Mr. Ruben Wygant has two daughters visiting him from Little Rock.

Mrs. Lizzie Archey is here visiting from Terre Haute.

Rev. Joseph Stephenson is very sick with a carbuncle on his neck. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison of Washington, D. C. are visiting relatives in Kankakee, Ill.

The Baptists will probably have a little trouble with their church here as Mr. Wilson has not shown up for several weeks, and the carpenter and painter claim $75 due them.

Mr. George Farrell got a telegram from his half sister (White) but refused to answer it saying, he did not want her to see him in his circumstances. He is very low. She saw in the Mattoon article on the 23th his sickness stated.

There are a great many young colored men in this part of the country from the south and a good many go back to get employment as they say they can work on railroads and at trades south but can't north. Our men of brain and capital should put them to work for the race.

Paris, Missouri. Mr. James Hostvin of Granville, was in the city this week.

Miss Queenie Campbell left the city Saturday for St. Louis.

Rev. H. H. White preached at Second Baptist Church Sunday.

Mr. Richards of Kansas City, is the guest of Miss Bettie Locket.

J. W. Campbell left the city Monday evening for Joliet, also Mr. Eugene Calaway.

The banquet given in honor of the teachers on Friday evening was very entertaining.

Charles Green, Harry Juel, W. M. McGrouther and others of Shelbyna were in the city Sunday.

Quite a number of citizens of Paris spent Saturday at Holiday and Madison at two grand picnics.

Miss Mildred Allen and Mrs. S. A. Crump are in Hannibal, attending the Christian Endeavor convention.

Paris is somewhat lonesome again, or at least the people, since the Institute has adjourned, and the teachers returning to their respective homes, waiting patiently to hear what has been done.

Dallas, Tex. (CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE) you at the next meeting. Miss M. E. Johnson is a young lady with a soft sweet voice. Her recitation was grand and she has no rival in the elocutionary line. Messrs. E. McMillan and A. J. Johnson are two of our best young men. "Eddie as Mr. McMillan is sometimes called is the leader of society. He is highly thought of and liked by all who know him. Mr. A. J. Johnson is our self made man. We must acknowledge that in a quiet Mr. Johnson can not be beaten. Messrs. McMillan and Johnson are powers in the literary. Mr. A. C. Thurman is a gentleman who has done all in his power for the success of this literary society. Mr. Thurman was elected critic for the society. They did right in electing such a man as Mr. Thurman. The society adjourned to meet at Christian Church August 16th. All are invited to attend.

Portland, Oregon. Rev. G. C. Clark preached his farewell sermon the 7th morning, at Bethel Church.

The Odd Fellows picnic was an enjoyable affair, particularly so for the hotel boys who went out in teams.

The Good Samaritans dance on the barge was enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to get there in time to go aboard.

Mrs. R. Bruce will give a concert at Zion Church on Aug. 17th. It is hoped there will be a good turnout as the church needs the money.

The concert given at Bethel Church on Aug. 5th, by the children of Zion and Bethel Sunday schools, under the management of Rev. Mrs. G. C. Clark and Mrs. Dora Newman, was a financial success. Bethel Church returns thanks to the parents of the children who took part, also to Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Newman.

Blue Jeans. "Blue Jeans" is purely American and the characters are all cleverly drawn. The scenes are laid in Indiana and the Hoosiers are portrayed vividly. There is the gentlemanly lover, the typical politician, the back-woods Hoosier, the old settler and several other characters that go to make "Blue Jeans" an interesting play. Some of the scenes are unusually strong and a lot of the comedy is of the screaming variety. "Blue Jeans" will settle down for a comfortable weeks stay at the Metropolitan on Sunday night August 14.

Manager Bixby's Benefit. The programme for Manager Bixby's benefit at the Grand Opera House next Monday night will be of such proportions that, aside from the popularity of the beneficiary, which should be sufficient to fill the house to overflow, it will command the attention of a nomenclature seekers. Among some of the features that will be seen will be the St. Paul Minstrel Club, in a genuine minstrel first part; F. J. Hammill, in his imitations of Adeline Patti; Prof. Thomas Taylor Drill, pianist, of Minneapolis; Prof. William Courtney, pianist, of New York; Miss Bertha Harmon, the soprano soloist; Miss Bourne in a dramatic reading; Miss Lucia Watson, Hattie Watson, Sadie Adamson, Ena Adamson, Nellie Morrison, Maria Pederson, Eva Morrison, Mamie Dinon, the eight young ladies who made such a hit with this opera house recently at the Metropolitan Opera House, Frederick L. Bancroft will also be seen in some very clever tricks of legerdemain, and the programme will conclude with the one-act farce, "The Rough Diamond" presented by members of the Litt stock company, with Miss Julia Arthur as the comedienne, "Margery," and Mr. George R. Edeson as "Cousin Joe." There will be an abundance of most excellent music, which will be furnished by the Twin City Mandolin and Guitar Club and T. P. Brooke's augmented orchestra. Truly it can be said that the programme is made up of a host of volunteers, and if there is a vacant seat at the Grand Opera House next Monday night, it will not be because Manager Bixby's friends have not volunteered in sufficient force to furnish an entertainment in every way diversified and worthy of patronage. The seats have been placed at one dollar, and are now on sale at the box office of the Theater, and a kindly hint to those who wish to secure a desirable location is to go at once, as the sale indicates that very few seats will remain unsold by Monday morning.

Don't Stop! Read! Don't misconstrue, but be patient and learn something which may be of value to you if you want a home, want to visit old friends, want to seek new fields for your labors.

The Minneapolis & St. Louis Railway, "Albert Lea Route" has arranged for a series of Harvest Excursions on August 30th and September 27th to points in Missouri, Colorado, Utah, Nebraska, Kansas, Montana, Wyoming, North and South Dakota and Texas, at one fare for the round trip.
