A special dispatch from Memphis, Tenn., says:
"The Oklahoma craze has broken out afresh among the Negroes in the western part of Tennessee, and hundreds of them have emigrated from this section within the last few days to the alleged promised land. The Farmers in Shelby and Tipton counties are unable to secure laborers at any price to harvest their crops, and they have become alarmed over the prospect of their wheat, corn and cotton rotting in the fields. In a number of cases Negro tenants have forsaken their own crops or sold them in the fields for a song to obtain money to pay their railroad fare to Oklahoma."
Yes and history abounds with details of just such "crazes." In the days of Moses, the Jews took just such a craze and left Egypt, and the Egyptian farmers became alarmed over the prospect. In later days the Pilgrim fathers took another such craze and left their old homes to contend with savages and hardships of all kinds. Keep on in your "craze" "Negroes," you have very honorable precedents.

The Homestead strikers should seriously consider the point, that, whether or not, they were aware of Bergman's plans and purposes, yet, if public sentiment concludes that their language and act legitimately opened the way for his, there will be a general condemnation that will result in their utter ruin. The contest between them and the Carnegie company must be decided by legal principles, not moral theories or considerations, and a strike is of itself evidence that the wrong, if any exists, exists in accordance with law and calls for a remedy not supplied by the laws. Under our laws, "scabs," "black sheep," and non-union men have precisely the same right to labor as amalgamated associations and labor federations and a labor trust is utterly abhorrent to the spirit of our institutions.

I am for Cleveland for president, because I am a Free Trader—Henry George.
The Democratic party, except in the person of imbeciles not worth mentioning, is a Free-Trade party.—Henry Watterson.
I will never help to make a law which stands in the way of Free Trade.—Roger Q. Mills.
I am a Free Trader. The Mills bill is a step in that direction.—Congressman Breckenridge.
The Democratic party is a Free Trade party or it is nothing.—Henry Watterson.
Mr. Cleveland by his message, for which I honor him, has challenged the protected industries of the country to a fight of extermination.—Senator Vest (Dem.) Missouri

The lynching of a man at Shelbyville, Tenn., recently called forth the following article from Col. A. S. Colyar, a prominent Democrat of Nashville:
"Nothing since I have been a reading man has so impressed me with the decay of manhood among the people of Tennessee as the dastardly submission to the mob reign. We have reached the unprecedented low level; the awful original depravity of substituting the mob for the court and jury, of giving up the jail keys to the mob whenever they are demanded. We do it in the largest cities and in the country towns and we do it in midday; we do it after full, not to say formal, notice, and so thorough and generally is it acquiesced in that the murderers have discarded the formula of masks."
Col. Colyar has, evidently, not studied the gospel according to Bishop Fitzgerald.
Arkansas has had another "Negro lynching" at Montecello, Drew Co. Eugene Baker shot into a gang of men who broke into his house and killed one of them. The mob soon after took him from jail hung him and riddled his body with bullets. We are glad to learn that the citizens are unanimous in denouncing the outrage and call upon Gov. Eagle to assist in the capture of the murderers. At Dresden, Tenn., Loeb Sanders, a Colored man was lynched for attempted outrage on Martha Stephenson. He was hanged before being carried to jail.

The contest in Alabama is between the Regular Bourbon Democracy and the Irregulars, or Populists; and it has reached an interesting stage, when the Huntsville Daily Mercury, the leading Bourbon organ of North Alabama in an issue this week, said, "that if the Democratic ticket in this county was to be saved from defeat the canvass must at once be shifted to the black belt." That at once shows that a majority of the white voters of Alabama are against Bourbonocracy and that Bourbonism is willing to submit to Negro domination to retain power.

We cannot see what the "good" citizens of Memphis gained by suppressing the Free Speech. They stopped the papers of a few hundreds of subscribers and drove Miss Ida B. Wells to New York, and now she is telling the story to the hundreds of thousands of readers of the Independent and the papers that do copy from it. Free Speech is not so easily suppressed as The Free Speech.

Archbishop Janssens of New Orleans, protests against the proposed law prohibiting intermarriage of races, because "it is an infringement of human and religious liberty and uncalled for." He says: "The law of the Catholic Church all over the world allows such unions;" and that the law will increase both miscegenation and immorality.
The Independent warns some of its Colored friends of the various Methodist Churches against applying the words Right Reverend to their bishops. It says that those words should be left to those denominations who believe that bishops are a third order in the church, while Methodists do not believe.

In Union Co., S. C., the Tillman Democrats have revived the Klu Klux Klan and are warning the various other kinds of Democrats to leave the country under pain of death. Might not some of the denunciations of the Pinkertons be used to good purpose in that barbarous locality.
Congress has adjourned, and hereafter the Republicans must depend upon themselves. Nothing in life becomes that body like the leaving of it.

The Democratic gerrymander in New York has fared no better than those in Michigan and Wisconsin. The courts have knocked it out.
A North Carolina Democrat says that the recent House has done more than the rebellion to damn his party.

A Colored man has produced something new under the sun by raising cotton in Connecticut.
For ruchings of silk, which act as a foot frill upon the summer gowns, eau-de-nil and rose pink is an exquisite combination. The effect is very pretty when worn at the bottom of a black gaudine.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

When asking questions to which answers are looked for in this column, correspondents should bear in mind that matters likely to be of general interest always have the preference. Write upon one side of the paper only.
Brownie H., Denver.—You have in all probability gained your full height, 2. You can do nothing to reduce your stature 3. Yes.
Ethel, Toledo.—Press out the blackheads and fleshworms between the finger-nails, and bathe your face several times daily with diluted alcohol.
A Constant Reader, Brooklyn.—There is no preparation which will have the effect you allude to. No. 3. Your penmanship is excellent.
Miss C. H., Chicago.—We have repeatedly stated to writers that we can give no opinion concerning MSS., of any kind until it has been examined by our readers.
E. E. O., England.—The census population of London, England in 1881, was 3,816,483. It is now estimated at 4,282,921. The estimated population of P. kin, China 2,000,000.

Subscriber, Chicago.—The third lady was certainly the most polite, though it does not follow that the others were rude. The World's Columbian Exposition will be opened at Chicago in May, 1893.
Emily, Frankfort.—We would advise you to treat the young man with indifference on all future occasions. 2. It is not necessary for you to return any odd gifts he may have made you, unless he requests you to do so.
B. H. Nye, Chicago.—Some such society as the one you refer to may exist, but where it is located, or what may be its rules and regulations we are unable to ascertain, inquiry having failed to elicit any information concerning it.

Miss A. W., Cincinnati.—Your story—which is unavailable—will be returned to you when the stamps for postage are sent. It was also roled, an almost unpardonable offence. If you wish to make money by writing, you should obtain some manual that will instruct you in preparing MSS. for the press.

Dallas, Tex.

We would like to know why one of our preachers and no one else can get so many kisses in the house of worship. The Elder thought no one but God saw him. If the Elder kisses the sisters in church we know it must be worse at their residences. If the Elder doesn't want THE APPEAL to appear against him he had better watch as well as pray. The Elder is a subscriber of THE APPEAL.
Misses Fanny P. Armstrong, Drucilla A. Armstrong, Flora M. Armstrong, sisters of the Rev. Mrs. H. T. Johnson of Newbury, N. Y., are visiting our city, after having a long but pleasant voyage of nine days on the sea. No doubt they will render their assistance in the good work which their sister and brother-in-law Rev. H. T. Johnson are engaged in. The Congregational Church is a city set on a hill which cannot be hid.
The Harrison Avenue Club gave their second grand lawn party at the residence of Mrs. W. Cooper 335 Bryan street, last Wednesday. Bird the expert decorator and waiter decorated the tables and lawn beautifully and he deserves great credit for his taste and talent for such affairs. Miss Rose Davis entertained the guests with sweet strains of music from the piano. Among those present were: Misses C. Kibbie, Rosa Davis, Clara Pittman, Ella Crutchfield, Lend V. Britton, Addie Winn, Annie Spikes, Carrie Simon, Emma V. Ash, Annie Drake, Ida Wade, Mary A. Skittrell, Roberta Allen, Mollie Lane, "Sallie L. Staples, Bertha McKay; Messrs. W. H. Grigles, C. Tucker, R. B. Bennett, E. McMillen, P. Woods, D. P. Price, J. Thomas, T. Tucker, J. W. Nowood, J. A. Foster, C. C. Clark, W. F. Floyd, J. H. Pleasant, E. H. Shaw, C. E. Orr, D. W. Harden.

The Ministerial Union of Dallas, was held at Elizabeth Chapel, Oak Cliff, Tex., Aug. 2nd, where the subject of Bible justification was well discussed, all the pastors present took part. The Union adjourned at 1 p. m. when a delicious dinner prepared by the ladies of the church, awaited them. The Elders thought it good to be there and asked when they could come again. The Union met on the 8th inst., at Evening Chapel, where the subject "Regeneration" was discussed. What is regeneration? Where does it take place? The following pastors are members of the Ministerial Union: President, B. Smith Evening Chapel; J. C. Hunt, St. James A. M. E. Church; J. G. Grimes, Bethel A. M. E. Church; Henry T. Johnson, Plymouth Congregational Church; H. E. Brown, New Zion Free Will Baptist Church; A. Jackson, M. E. Church; A. Gordon of Hearn, Tex., R. Hearn, St. Paul's Free Will Baptist Church; R. Hayes, Free Will Baptist Church; S. P. Johnson, Elizabeth Chapel, Oak Cliff; S. H. Hess, Baptist Church, Oak Cliff; Willihite, presiding Elder.

A late ukase of fashion is that the small head dresses, by courtesy called bonnets, shall have no strings and that no jewelry shall be worn in the daytime.
Mephisto red is a popular shade of this fashionable color, and Mephisto ornaments, which are two or four curves of jet set high in front amid loops of ribbon, are quite the rage.
Moonstones, with their weird, pale brilliancy, are to be seen in every pretty silver settings and in combination with enamel. Very handsome Limoges and enamel pins, with silver fleurs-de-lis, are to be seen.

The Midsummer Holiday Century will contain a number of complete stories, including "The Philosophy of Relative Existences," a ghost story which is said to reverse some of the old traditions, by Frank R. Stockton, and "The Colonel's Last Campaign," by the author of "Mr. Cutting, the Night Editor," and with illustrations by Charles Dana Gibson.
A paper of marked interest by Mrs. French-Sheldon, the daring American lady who penetrated Africa as far as Kilimanjaro, will be a feature of the August number of Cassell's Family Magazine. Mrs. Sheldon since her return from the wilds of Africa, and is handsomely illustrated by pictures made from photographs taken by her when in the heart of the dark continent.
In order to stimulate American composition The Ladies' Home Journal has just made public an attractive series of liberal prizes for the best original musical composition by composers resident in the United States and Canada. The prizes call for a waltz, a piano composition, a pleasing ballad and a popular song, an anthem and the four best hymn tunes. The competition is open until December 1st, next.
The new serial, "Barbara Morville," opens the August number of Cassell's Family Magazine. Following close upon the heels of this is an amusing paper called "Our Belongings: The Boys," showing with pen and pencil the boy who is father to the man. The Paris and London fashion letters are as practical and suggestive as usual and there is a full and interesting "Gatherer"—Cassell's Publishing Company, 15 cents a number; $1.50 a year, in advance.

Jessie Miller Illustrated Monthly for August contains numerous articles of special interest to women. Mrs. Miller writes interestingly of "Liberty, Love and Art." Miss Mary F. Seymour has a timely article on "Typewriting as a Trade." Baronesse von Meyerbach discusses "Magic and Voice Culture." There is an interview with Superintendent Jasper on "Public Schools and Women as School Teachers." There is also an article on the "Cost of Girls in Colleges." "The Writers of Young France," by Vance Thompson, is timely and bright. In addition to these there are articles about Fashions, Children, Hints for the Home, and many brief papers very interesting to women. It is a magazine that no woman should be without. Price $1.00 a year, 10 cents a copy. Address, Jessie Miller Co., 114 Fifth Avenue, New York.

THE RACE PROBLEM

Housewives who have some favorite recipe which they have tried and know to be good, are requested to send the same to THE APPEAL for publication.

Lemon Tart.—Boil one cupful of sugar, one egg, one tablespoonful of butter, the grated rind and juice of one lemon until it thickens; remove from the fire, and fill shell of puff paste with the mixture.
Fresh Graham Bread (baked)—One quart graham flour, half cup New Orleans molasses, one teaspoonful soda dissolved in hot water, a pinch of salt. Mix with cold water to rather a stiff dough. If preferred use buttermilk. Bake two loaves (in a loaf) in a moderate oven.
Seasoned Sweet Potatoes.—Boil large sweet potatoes, peel and slice, put a layer in the bottom of a baking dish, spread with bits of butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper; put more potatoes butter and seasoning until the dish is full; pour over a little sweet cream; set in oven and bake brown.
Cream Sauce.—One cupful of milk, a teaspoonful of flour and a teaspoonful of butter, a little salt and pepper. Put the butter in a small frying-pan, and when hot, but not brown, add the flour; stir until smooth, then gradually add the milk, let it boil two or three minutes, season to taste and serve.

Ham Toast.—Grate a sufficiency of the lean of cold ham, mix some beaten yolk of egg with a little cream, thicken it with the grated ham, put the mixture into a sauceman over the fire and let it simmer awhile. Have ready some slices of bread nicely toasted and well buttered, spread the ham mixture over the toast thickly and send to the table warm.

Savannah, Ga.

THE APPEAL is becoming very popular here.

Yes, it is true that Miss R. D. L. is engaged.

Miss Anna Doose is spending a while in Augusta.

Mr. Alvin Jackson has gone to Florida. Take it easy Miss A. M. D.

Miss Clark of Americus Ga., is spending some time with friends.

Dr. Jas. C. Atkinson is here on a visit to the sick bed of his mother.

J. M. F. 1892.—How many girls do you love? 'Tis time to keep a record.

There is no such thing as a Colored Democratic club existing in this city.

Mr. W. R. Rannier has gone north on a business trip combined with pleasure.

Savannah continues to keep her reputation for cool days; it is cooler here than in any other city in the state.

There is nothing prettier or sweeter looking than Savannah's girls in their summer dresses as they walk upon the city's pretty and green streets.

Miss Lilla Maxwell and Miss Mamie Matthews of Brunswick are having a very pleasant stay over here with their many friends. Such pleasant faces we hope to have remain much longer.

A strong effort is being made by Savannah's best young men to perfect an organization of a Company B of the Forest City Light Infantry. Work on Jim; you and Dick deserve much credit.

Mr. Jackson Sheffall is the owner of one of the prettiest little horses in the city. His promising little animal "Julie" has been the subject of unlimited admiration on the part of all who have seen it.

The Peabody Institute for teachers has held a very successful session here. Dr. Davis addressed the Institute on Monday on the "Health of the Teacher," and was quite interesting and instructing. The instructors of the Institute are Prof. R. R. Wright, Miss Lucy C. Laney of Augusta, J. C. Butler Principle of West Broad St. school and Miss Mamie Jackson.

One of Savannah's most intelligent Colored audiences listened to an able address delivered by President Burstead of Atlanta University on Monday evening at Beach Institute. His subject was, "Higher Education a development of the Lower Education. Prof. R. R. Wright introduced the speaker. He said the lower education generally consists of three R's but if he could be allowed to call Geography an R he said would consist of four R's; Reading, Writing, Arithmetic and Geography. We first learn to read in our mother tongue in the lower education but in the higher education we not only learn to read our mother tongue but also other tongues. He said the question is often asked "Does Higher Education pay?" He said it does pay because it helps to develop manhood—character, raises us above animalism and develops our higher natures with better brains and souls as a picture of this truth he compared John L. Sullivan the great animal-man with Gladstone of England. Higher education gives us power over nature as the construction of the Suez canal by the wonderful intellect of DeLesseps, the Brooklyn bridge and the tunnelling of the Alps. It pays because it gives us power over men as doctors, lawyers, etc., the influence it gives them because of their higher education. It also gives us money power. He said we as a race need to get this higher education because of being still hampered somewhat by the unfortunate past slavery our sudden freedom and our poorness, weakness and oppression but now we are strong and growing stronger and must get it. 20 out of every thousand are getting it equal to the other race, but we need to do more than that. The speaker ended urging that the Colored race get this higher education both sexes when this is done then we will have true men to develop manhood and true women to develop womanhood. He was warmly applauded. The singing by the teachers was well rendered. The solo of Dr. T. J. Davis also that of Miss Addie McNeill deserve mention as well as the duet by Dr. Davis and Miss Eureka Jackson.

BLACK MAN.

(TO BE CONTINUED)

Danville, Ky.

Miss Rachel Rowe says she is not lonely he comes regularly

Miss V. A. Penman has returned home and there were four gentlemen to see her father Sunday afternoon.

Bro. G. W. Bundy says a man can't make a good steward of the A. M. E. church unless he attends his class and prayer meetings.

Since Mr. Carr of Stanford bit off that man's finger Misses Bell Irvin and V. A. P., say Miss Fannie Helm may go with him just as much as she pleases.

Mrs. Martha Green is in Cincinnati, O. looking for a husband we hope she will find one Mrs. Bettie Curd tried it in the same city but she could not make it.

Mr. Henry Walker's wagon was mashed by the cars and one of his horses badly crippled. He escaped unhurt it all happened by the carelessness of the railroad company.

Mr. Burney Meaux is a first-class farmer and would make a good husband. Now Miss Miriam catch him if you can.

The young dude with the rheumatism is improving very fast Dr. Arthur says he will soon have him entirely well.

There is a certain young man who has just arrived home this summer will not show himself. Some say he is trying to bleach so that he won't have to ride in the Jim Crow car. Come out brother and help us in the fight your hair has one to many curls in it to let you pass out of the race.

Miss Fannie T. Jackson formerly of Chicago is in Lexington she promised some one that she was coming to Chicago but she will not be there this summer so I will say to W. M. Cowan, Anthony Broady, and Julius Averdorph, put on your mourning garb for Fannie T. Jackson will not be there.

Some one is writing anonymous letters to the absent teachers of the public school and had one of them to come here from the bedside of her sick mother. The letter sounds just like that for-g-d letter that was sent to Miss S. D. Henry some time ago. Just keep on and there will be no Colored trustees next. The writer had better lay low some one has an eye on him.

Mr. Geo. Burks of Lexington, Ky., an uncle of Rev. G. H. Burks, departed this life August 7th in the 50th year of his life. He had been a consistent member of the Methodist church for forty years and died in full triumph of living faith; he leaves a wife and six children and many other relatives and friends to mourn his death. He was sick about thirteen weeks during which time his daughters Mrs. Ida M. Dorsey and Miss Roberta Burks of Minneapolis, Minn., administered to his wants and did not allow him to suffer for anything that was in the reach of money. They had him buried very cozily at Lexington, Ky., his home funeral services were conducted by R. vs. Chas. Thomas of M. E. church and S. P. Young of Baptist church of Lexington, Ky. His widow will move to Minneapolis with her daughters Ida and Roberta.

A Relationship Problem.

Two ladies out walking met a gentleman; he raised his hat to one, and the other said: "Do you know that gentleman?" The other lady replied his mother was my mother's only child.
