

WOMAN'S WORLD

MEN THAT WOMEN LIKE.
They Must be Above All Else Strong and Yet Gentle.

Men are always ready to give very freely their ideas of the style of women that please them and want every desirable quality embodied in that one little morsel of femininity, consequently it is not out of place for a woman to tell the sort of a man that a woman likes.

He must be essentially manly. The more dainty and feminine the woman the greater Hercules she admires, yet he must be merciful as strong. He can not adore her too much, yet at times must be masterful. He will be in every way worthy of respect, for unless he is she will not love him. A woman wants to look up, not down to the man who is her husband. She would rather that he would be her mental superior than her equal.

She revels in his strength, yet enjoy his tenderness. The man who can lift a woman in his arms and carry her from chair to couch when illness make her as weak as a baby and does so with the gentleness of a woman, is the sort of man that a woman turns into a hero.

He must be generous and, ah, yes, a trifling looking, but not to much so, for then he would be vain, and that she despises.

He must be a man other men look up to, and likewise one whom other women covet. He must be honorable and upright, but not goodly-good; must take an interest in our bonnets, though he may not know an ostrich feather from a ten-penny nail, and, in fact, be an all-around dear, delightful creature whom she can love with all her heart.—Philadelphia Times.

KITCHEN TOPICS

Sweet Potato Fritters.—Boil potatoes to make half a pound when mashed; mix together two large tablespoons of cream, two of powdered sugar, half a nutmeg, and the juice of one lemon; beat eight eggs mix with other ingredients and fry in lard.

Bechamel Sauce.—One half a cup of butter heated, add two tablespoons of dry flour, add a pint of cream, stirring constantly. Cook a few minutes on a hot stove, throw in a sprig of parsley and serve immediately. If desired, add hard boiled eggs finely chopped.

Pineapple Ice (enough for sixty people).—Juice of two dozen lemons, two quart cans pineapple, meat chopped very fine, and juice added. Enough water added to make eight quarts of the mixture. One and a half teaspoons sugar to the quart, or sweeten to taste. Whites of one dozen eggs beaten very light and stirred in when half frozen.

Eggs with Tomatoes.—One and a half cups of tomatoes, stewed and strained, a pinch of soda, one teaspoonful of butter, two tablespoons of flour, salt to taste, six or eight eggs. Heat the tomatoes to the boiling point, add to them the soda and seasoning, then the butter rubbed into the flour. Scramble six or eight eggs, and pour around them the tomato sauce. Serve very hot.

Rice Muffins.—One pint of sweet milk, one quart of flour, one pint of cold boiled rice, three eggs, two tablespoons of sugar, half a teaspoonful of salt, three teaspoonfuls even full of baking powder sifted into the flour. Beat the eggs and add the milk, then stir gradually into the flour. When smooth add the rice, beat well and bake in greased muffin tins. This will make about three dozen. For a small family make half the rule.

FASHIONS

Engagement cups and saucers continue to be one of the caprices of fashion.

Enamel flower pins are among the most beautiful of the current trills in jewelry.

A negligee sacque for morning is of white China silk, opened front over silk blouse, trimmed with jabots of self marine lace, with bows of ribbon at belt and throat.

Delicately figured bengaline silks are among the dainty novelties for the coming season. For church, visiting reception and high teas bengaline is the favorite material, and it supplants cloth, and even crepon, in popularity.

Yokes and trimmings to imitate yokes are the favorites for cloth and silk costumes. The style that has been generally adopted shows the top part of the waist, back and front of lace, and a very full and deep ruffle bordering the lace yoke. It is very becoming.

Tea gowns to be made a la mode must hang in the softest indescribable fold; they are made in crepe and crepon. Those who have old lace scarfs can turn them to the best account, for they are folded on the bodice back and front, the ends floating over the skirt.

Changeable silks trimmed with velvet yokes, Watteau bows of velvet ribbon of the same tone, black or white lace showing delicate touches of jet or steel passementerie are a "standby" for both afternoon and evening wear. Also very nice for driving, not being so delicate as to be easily injured by dust.

With white canvas or suede shoes one should wear white stockings. There are many fancy stockings with black feet and colored tops on all sorts of designs, points or stripes or solid color. These are a little showy, but are some times very pretty. Occasionally bright scarlet shoes with silk hose of the same hue are seen with dark dresses, but they are the exception.

THE HOUSEKEEPER

A boiled clothes-line will not sink. Rice, boiled very dry, is acceptably served with fish instead of potatoes.

ON THE WIGWAG

Madison, Ga., has a queer dog that has a complete figure of the moon and seven stars on one side of his head. The effect is produced by the different coloring of the hair, in black and white.

The bower bird of Australia is the most extraordinary builder among all the feathered tribe. In addition to its nest it constructs a most curious playing place, which it decorates in every manner that it can possibly manage.

Although whales grow to an enormous size, sometimes eighty and even ninety feet long, the throat is so small that it cannot swallow a bite as large as a tea biscuit. This applies to the common whale. The sperm whale has a mouth large enough to swallow a man.

Lexington, Ky.

BEHINDHAND.

Miss Summit—Can you tell me the time by your watch, Mr. Traverser? Traverser (sadly)—Not before next week.—Detroit Free Press.

BEFORE AND AFTER.

Mrs. Newed—You never objected to my talking before we were married. Newed—But, my dear, you didn't talk to me then as you do now.—N. Y. Sun.

A REMINDER.

"That rooster reminds me of a man I knew once."
"In what way?"
"He has such a tame crow."—Puck.

REMARKS.

Miss Summit—Can you tell me the time by your watch, Mr. Traverser? Traverser (sadly)—Not before next week.—Detroit Free Press.

DEAR EDITOR.

I am eight years old and I go to school, I like to go to school. I

THE WOMAN OF FASHION.

Some Predictions Concerning Fall Styles.

Some New Materials That Have Made Their Appearance—How the New Gowns Look—A Pretty Blue Surah—How to Edge a Skirt.

WHAT ARE WE GOING TO WEAR THIS FALL? We have felt the touch of a cooling breeze now and then, and the nights have had a freshness about them that makes the thought of heavier garments not altogether disagreeable. We're a little tired, too, of summer clothes, and turn with avidity to something fresh.

Well, in the first place, so far as we can tell from what has reached us from Paris, we're going to be a trifle soberer in our colors this fall. To be sure, some have three sisters and one brother. I have a cat for a pet.

Sallie Smith, Oxford, Miss.

MR. EDITOR:

I live on a farm. Papa has four horses, six cows, five horses, and thirty hogs. My grandfather takes THE APPEAL and we like it very much. I got one new subscriber. Grandfather has a clock with works all of wood. Your little friend. Bennie Johnson, aged 9.

FEMALE INCONSTANCY.

"Woman is a curious creature," remarked Bachelor John H. Haskell at the Luncheon yesterday. "Just now she is horrified at the suggestion of a dress reformer that skirts be chopped off above the ankles. It is so immodest, you know. Yet the average young lady will appear in amateur theatricals in skirts that scarcely fall below the knee or parade the sands at a popular bathing resort in a costume that would make a ballet-dancer blush hard. A lady will almost faint with mortification if, by chance, her shoulders are exposed; yet an evening dress that discloses half her bust and back is worn with perfect sangfroid. Circumstances alter cases in a very peculiar and illogical manner where the fair sex is concerned.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

NUPTIAL KNOTS

Mr. Sam Smith and Miss Belle Thompson, of St. Louis are now one.

Mr. Peter Lyons and Miss Laura Strangler were married at Birmingham, Ala.

Mr. E. D. James and Miss Lula Gregory of San Francisco have been joined in wedlock.

Mr. Luke Blackburn and Miss Ella Davis were nuptially knotted at Nashville last week.

Mr. Ben Watkins and Miss Sue's Peters of Blatinore were matrimonially knotted Thursday.

SHOULD LEARN POKER.

Of course with the mannish shirt front the adoption of suspenders and the broad rimmed sailor hat the little feminine games of old maid, catch on and hearts would never answer for the girl who regards her training at the "gym" a part of her daily routine and who has blossomed out into a pretty Amazon possessing all the accomplishment of her brother without any of his vices.

Therefore, in order to be quite correct, she means to learn the National game of poker, but is discouraged when every one says that no woman can play well, as she gives her hand away by the broad grin of satisfaction when she sees a straight or the little angry frown when ace high or a bob-tail flush appears before her disgraced vision. In order to overcome this little difficulty all the advanced girls who wish to take part in this up to date entertainment with cards this coming winter, and who feel their blood tingling in their veins at the thought of a "real gambler," are learning the poker stare.

This stare is a hard, firm and very wooden look. The eyes are trained to gaze straight ahead. The eyelids wink with automatic regularity, and even the feminine nose is trained to keep perfectly calm, with no dilation of the nostrils when the owner beholds three of a kind looking sweetly up into her face. There must be no frowns of anxiety, but a calm and placid brow at all times. When all this is accomplished and nothing can upset her serenity save the appearance of a mouse in the midst, then will a woman be fit to compete with the men in that beautiful and scientific game of bluff known as poker.

HOW TO TRIM YOUR SKIRT.

lashes and sometimes into other queer shapes. All of these designs, however, are of subdued colors, and the dots melt into the groundwork, as our summer dots do not.

Although there seems to be more common sense than usual in these materials, the cut of the Paris gowns seems more fanciful than ever. One dressmaker seems to vie with another in adding one more eccentricity, one more fanciful touch here and there. And so things are getting worse and worse, and dressmakers on this side of the water are driven well nigh to despair. The only comfort left is that human ingenuity will soon come to the end of its resources in the particular line it is at present pursuing, and must needs start afresh in a new direction.

Gowns have a tendency to double themselves over the shoulders. Dame Fashion, remembering that her devotees have been baring neck and shoulders for her sake all these summer evenings, seeks before the winter season shall have fairly set in to clothe them well with double garments that shall atone for any lack in the past.

THE NEW CAPE-GOWN.

Russian sleeves and hanging lace bib were the first indications of this tendency, and now a dress fresh from Paris has a funny loose overcape that is quite short in front and gets longer and longer till it reaches the middle of the back. At this point it is only a few inches above the waist line. There over this very queer velvet revers of rich chestnut color, joined at the front by a heavy knotted cord; they run around in a broadening band over each shoulder, then slope off to the back and join midway between neck and waist. Underneath the waist is plain in cut, adorned with rich bands of passementerie running downward at each side of the front; a broad velvet band ties at the front. The gown is a rich brown shade, diagonally and finely striped in pale blue.

A pelerine with full yoke on a standing collar so very high that it turns over slightly has the garment proper fastened

WOMEN NOT ALL ALIKE.

One of the constitutional opinions of the average man is that women are all alike, writes Junius Henri Browne in a pertinent article entitled "Are Women All Alike?" in the August Ladies Home Journal. It crops out in his speech perpetually, sometimes in the way of kindness and sympathy, often in the way of derision and contempt. When a wife has forgiven some great wrong done by her husband, when a mother has sacrificed herself for her children, we hear: "It is just like a woman." We hear the same thing if she has deceived her lover, or involved her father in debt. This dissent is due to the fact that some men are sentimentalists, and that more men are cynics. The former are always praising women, the latter are generally sneering at or deifying her; but both think that she has only one nature. The sentimentalist believes her to be good, gentle and loyal, truthful under every circumstance; the cynic pronounces her bad harsh, inconstant, hypocritical on instinct. Neither is wholly right nor wholly wrong. She is good and bad, gentle and harsh, loyal and inconstant, truthful and hypocritical. Her qualities depend largely on the individual, and the individual varies with mood and environment. She is not cut out of the ideal, nor is she drawn from debasement. She is primarily human, as man is; a compound of brain and body, of strength and weakness, of justice, and selfishness, of charity and prejudice, of altruism and egotism, of affection and aversion. Some women are far better, some women are far worse than the mass; but better or worse, they are fundamentally unlike one another, and often unlike themselves. Poets and novelists may, to a great degree, be responsible for the average man's opinion of woman. The poets have ordinarily used her as a vehicle of passion and romance; as a source of light to set off the darkness of men's sins. She has been portrayed as their better angel, as turning them from vicious courses, as comforting them in illness and affliction, as recompensing and blessing them after all their trials with her unalterable love.

OLD MAN'S DARLING.

A Colored Woman and Her Seventy-Year-Old Lover.

Wm. Beech a Colored man, who lives at Cumminsville, Ohio, inquired at the Probate Court Monday if a license to marry had been issued to his wife Levina and a man named Whitson. He said his wife became infatuated with Whitson, who is 70 years old. He tried in various ways to cure her of her fancy, but without avail. Finally she left, and he supposed she went away with Whitson. A search of the records revealed that a marriage license had been issued to Wm. H. Whitson and Louisa Float on the 13th inst. Whether that woman was Mrs Beech is not positively known.

Have you paid for the paper you are now reading.

IN SOCIETY

Miss Nora Morrison of Akron, Ohio, is visiting in Ravenna.

Mrs. Wm. Whitehall of Schuyler, Neb., is visiting in Omaha.

Miss Leslie Sampson of Richmond, Va., is visiting relatives in New York City.

Miss Nettie T. Densmore of Mobile, Ala., is the guest of her sister at Birmingham.

Mrs. C. C. Stamm has returned to Saturnon, Va., after spending two weeks in Atlantic City.

THE CHURCH

St. Mary's Catholic church, Wabash avenue and Eldredge court. High mass at 10:45 A. M. Father Augustus Toltn, n. priest in charge.

Shiloh Baptist church 330 63 street. Services 11 A. M. and 7:00 P. M. Sunday school 8:00 P. M. Rev. R. DeBaptiste, pastor, 6654 Hartwell Ave., A. C. Brown, S. S. Supt.

Oak Park Mission, W. C. T. U. Hall Lake street near Harlem avenue. Morning service at 10:30 A. M., Sunday school at 12 M. Evening service 7:30 P. M. Rev. H. W. Knight supply.

Olivet Church, Harmon Court, near State. Services at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M., Rev. J. F. Thomas, pastor. Sunday school at 1:30 P. M., Geo. F. Williams, superintendent. All invited.

St. John's Mission A. M. E. church Wentworth ave. and Chestnut St. Englewood. Rev. J. H. W. Collins, pastor, 2730 Armour Ave. Sunday service at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Sunday school at 12:30.

Services every Sunday morning at 11 and evening at 7:30 at St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Dearborn street near 30th, Rev. J. E. Thompson, pastor. Sunday School at 12:30, J. W. Womack, superintendent.

The North Side Mission of the A. M. E. Church will hold services hereafter at the corner of Wells street and Chicago ave., at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. Rev. W. R. Alexander, pastor, residence 78 Larrabee street.

Quinn Chapel, A. M. E. church, corner Wabash avenue and Twenty-fourth street. Sunday services at 10:40 A. M. Classes Nos. 1 and 5 at 12:30. Sunday School at 2 P. M. Preaching at 7:30 P. M. Rev. J. T. Jenifer, pastor, 3010 Armour. Bethesda Baptist Church, corner 34th street and Armour avenue. Preaching at 11 A. M., and 7:45 P. M. Prayer meeting Friday evening at 8 P. M. Sunday School at 12:30 P. M. D. C. Smith, Sup. and Rev. W. A. Burch, pastor, 2902 Armour avenue.

Grace Presbyterian Church, Dearborn street near 34th. Preaching at 10:45 A. M. and 4:00 P. M. Sabbath School at 12:15 M. sharp. Prayer meeting every Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. Rev. M. H. Jackson, pastor, 3438 Dearborn street.

A. M. E. Zion Church, Dearborn street near 30th. Services every Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock and evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. J. M. Washington, pastor, 3150 Armour avenue. Sabbath school at 2:30 P. M. Rev. A. D. Howard, Superintendent.

The Peoples Church meets at Appoll Hall 2730 State street. Preaching regularly at 11 A. M., and 7:45 P. M., Sunday School 12:30 P. M., Jas. Walker Superintendent Teachers Bible Class and Prayer meeting each Wednesday evening at 8 P. M., at the Parsonage. Rev. S. C. Goosley, 3512 Armour avenue.

REPEATING AIR RIFLE

THE MATCHLESS

65 SHOTS PRICE $2.50.

ADAMS & WESTLAKE CO. CHICAGO U.S.A.

REMINGTON STANDARD TYPEWRITER.

SIMPLICITY DURABILITY NEATNESS.

DISPATCH RELIABILITY.

WYCKOFF, SEAMANS & BENDIS, 175 MONROE ST. CHICAGO.

THE WOMAN OF FASHION.

Some Predictions Concerning Fall Styles.

Some New Materials That Have Made Their Appearance—How the New Gowns Look—A Pretty Blue Surah—How to Edge a Skirt.

WHAT ARE WE GOING TO WEAR THIS FALL? We have felt the touch of a cooling breeze now and then, and the nights have had a freshness about them that makes the thought of heavier garments not altogether disagreeable. We're a little tired, too, of summer clothes, and turn with avidity to something fresh.

Well, in the first place, so far as we can tell from what has reached us from Paris, we're going to be a trifle soberer in our colors this fall. To be sure, some have three sisters and one brother. I have a cat for a pet.

Sallie Smith, Oxford, Miss.

MR. EDITOR:

I live on a farm. Papa has four horses, six cows, five horses, and thirty hogs. My grandfather takes THE APPEAL and we like it very much. I got one new subscriber. Grandfather has a clock with works all of wood. Your little friend. Bennie Johnson, aged 9.

FEMALE INCONSTANCY.

"Woman is a curious creature," remarked Bachelor John H. Haskell at the Luncheon yesterday. "Just now she is horrified at the suggestion of a dress reformer that skirts be chopped off above the ankles. It is so immodest, you know. Yet the average young lady will appear in amateur theatricals in skirts that scarcely fall below the knee or parade the sands at a popular bathing resort in a costume that would make a ballet-dancer blush hard. A lady will almost faint with mortification if, by chance, her shoulders are exposed; yet an evening dress that discloses half her bust and back is worn with perfect sangfroid. Circumstances alter cases in a very peculiar and illogical manner where the fair sex is concerned.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

NUPTIAL KNOTS

Mr. Sam Smith and Miss Belle Thompson, of St. Louis are now one.

Mr. Peter Lyons and Miss Laura Strangler were married at Birmingham, Ala.

Mr. E. D. James and Miss Lula Gregory of San Francisco have been joined in wedlock.

Mr. Luke Blackburn and Miss Ella Davis were nuptially knotted at Nashville last week.

Mr. Ben Watkins and Miss Sue's Peters of Blatinore were matrimonially knotted Thursday.

SHOULD LEARN POKER.

Of course with the mannish shirt front the adoption of suspenders and the broad rimmed sailor hat the little feminine games of old maid, catch on and hearts would never answer for the girl who regards her training at the "gym" a part of her daily routine and who has blossomed out into a pretty Amazon possessing all the accomplishment of her brother without any of his vices.

Therefore, in order to be quite correct, she means to learn the National game of poker, but is discouraged when every one says that no woman can play well, as she gives her hand away by the broad grin of satisfaction when she sees a straight or the little angry frown when ace high or a bob-tail flush appears before her disgraced vision. In order to overcome this little difficulty all the advanced girls who wish to take part in this up to date entertainment with cards this coming winter, and who feel their blood tingling in their veins at the thought of a "real gambler," are learning the poker stare.

This stare is a hard, firm and very wooden look. The eyes are trained to gaze straight ahead. The eyelids wink with automatic regularity, and even the feminine nose is trained to keep perfectly calm, with no dilation of the nostrils when the owner beholds three of a kind looking sweetly up into her face. There must be no frowns of anxiety, but a calm and placid brow at all times. When all this is accomplished and nothing can upset her serenity save the appearance of a mouse in the midst, then will a woman be fit to compete with the men in that beautiful and scientific game of bluff known as poker.

HOW TO TRIM YOUR SKIRT.

lashes and sometimes into other queer shapes. All of these designs, however, are of subdued colors, and the dots melt into the groundwork, as our summer dots do not.

Although there seems to be more common sense than usual in these materials, the cut of the Paris gowns seems more fanciful than ever. One dressmaker seems to vie with another in adding one more eccentricity, one more fanciful touch here and there. And so things are getting worse and worse, and dressmakers on this side of the water are driven well nigh to despair. The only comfort left is that human ingenuity will soon come to the end of its resources in the particular line it is at present pursuing, and must needs start afresh in a new direction.

Gowns have a tendency to double themselves over the shoulders. Dame Fashion, remembering that her devotees have been baring neck and shoulders for her sake all these summer evenings, seeks before the winter season shall have fairly set in to clothe them well with double garments that shall atone for any lack in the past.

WOMEN NOT ALL ALIKE.

One of the constitutional opinions of the average man is that women are all alike, writes Junius Henri Browne in a pertinent article entitled "Are Women All Alike?" in the August Ladies Home Journal. It crops out in his speech perpetually, sometimes in the way of kindness and sympathy, often in the way of derision and contempt. When a wife has forgiven some great wrong done by her husband, when a mother has sacrificed herself for her children, we hear: "It is just like a woman." We hear the same thing if she has deceived her lover, or involved her father in debt. This dissent is due to the fact that some men are sentimentalists, and that more men are cynics. The former are always praising women, the latter are generally sneering at or deifying her; but both think that she has only one nature. The sentimentalist believes her to be good, gentle and loyal, truthful under every circumstance; the cynic pronounces her bad harsh, inconstant, hypocritical on instinct. Neither is wholly right nor wholly wrong. She is good and bad, gentle and harsh, loyal and inconstant, truthful and hypocritical. Her qualities depend largely on the individual, and the individual varies with mood and environment. She is not cut out of the ideal, nor is she drawn from debasement. She is primarily human, as man is; a compound of brain and body, of strength and weakness, of justice, and selfishness, of charity and prejudice, of altruism and egotism, of affection and aversion. Some women are far better, some women are far worse than the mass; but better or worse, they are fundamentally unlike one another, and often unlike themselves. Poets and novelists may, to a great degree, be responsible for the average man's opinion of woman. The poets have ordinarily used her as a vehicle of passion and romance; as a source of light to set off the darkness of men's sins. She has been portrayed as their better angel, as turning them from vicious courses, as comforting them in illness and affliction, as recompensing and blessing them after all their trials with her unalterable love.

OLD MAN'S DARLING.

A Colored Woman and Her Seventy-Year-Old Lover.

Wm. Beech a Colored man, who lives at Cumminsville, Ohio, inquired at the Probate Court Monday if a license to marry had been issued to his wife Levina and a man named Whitson. He said his wife became infatuated with Whitson, who is 70 years old. He tried in various ways to cure her of her fancy, but without avail. Finally she left, and he supposed she went away with Whitson. A search of the records revealed that a marriage license had been issued to Wm. H. Whitson and Louisa Float on the 13th inst. Whether that woman was Mrs Beech is not positively known.

Have you paid for the paper you are now reading.

IN SOCIETY

Miss Nora Morrison of Akron, Ohio, is visiting in Ravenna.

Mrs. Wm. Whitehall of Schuyler, Neb., is visiting in Omaha.

Miss Leslie Sampson of Richmond, Va., is visiting relatives in New York City.

Miss Nettie T. Densmore of Mobile, Ala., is the guest of her sister at Birmingham.

Mrs. C. C. Stamm has returned to Saturnon, Va., after spending two weeks in Atlantic City.

THE CHURCH

St. Mary's Catholic church, Wabash avenue and Eldredge court. High mass at 10:45 A. M. Father Augustus Toltn, n. priest in charge.

Shiloh Baptist church 330 63 street. Services 11 A. M. and 7:00 P. M. Sunday school 8:00 P. M. Rev. R. DeBaptiste, pastor, 6654 Hartwell Ave., A. C. Brown, S. S. Supt.

Oak Park Mission, W. C. T. U. Hall Lake street near Harlem avenue. Morning service at 10:30 A. M., Sunday school at 12 M. Evening service 7:30 P. M. Rev. H. W. Knight supply.

Olivet Church, Harmon Court, near State. Services at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M., Rev. J. F. Thomas, pastor. Sunday school at 1:30 P. M., Geo. F. Williams, superintendent. All invited.

St. John's Mission A. M. E. church Wentworth ave. and Chestnut St. Englewood. Rev. J. H. W. Collins, pastor, 2730 Armour Ave. Sunday service at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Sunday school at 12:30.

Services every Sunday morning at 11 and evening at 7:30 at St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Dearborn street near 30th, Rev. J. E. Thompson, pastor. Sunday School at 12:30, J. W. Womack, superintendent.

The North Side Mission of the A. M. E. Church will hold services hereafter at the corner of Wells street and Chicago ave., at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. Rev. W. R. Alexander, pastor, residence 78 Larrabee street.

Quinn Chapel, A. M. E. church, corner Wabash avenue and Twenty-fourth street. Sunday services at 10:40 A. M. Classes Nos. 1 and 5 at 12:30. Sunday School at 2 P. M. Preaching at 7:30 P. M. Rev. J. T. Jenifer, pastor, 3010 Armour. Bethesda Baptist Church, corner 34th street and Armour avenue. Preaching at 11 A. M., and 7:45 P. M. Prayer meeting Friday evening at 8 P. M. Sunday School at 12:30 P. M. D. C. Smith, Sup. and Rev. W. A. Burch, pastor, 2902 Armour avenue.

Grace Presbyterian Church, Dearborn street near 34th. Preaching at 10:45 A. M. and 4:00 P. M. Sabbath School at 12:15 M. sharp. Prayer meeting every Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. Rev. M. H. Jackson, pastor, 3438 Dearborn street.

A. M. E. Zion Church, Dearborn street near 30th. Services every Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock and evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. J. M. Washington, pastor, 3150 Armour avenue. Sabbath school at 2:30 P. M. Rev. A. D. Howard, Superintendent.

The Peoples Church meets at Appoll Hall 2730 State street. Preaching regularly at 11 A. M., and 7:45 P. M., Sunday School 12:30 P. M., Jas. Walker Superintendent Teachers Bible Class and Prayer meeting each Wednesday evening at 8 P. M., at the Parsonage. Rev. S. C. Goosley, 3512 Armour avenue.

REPEATING AIR RIFLE

THE MATCHLESS

65 SHOTS PRICE $2.50.

ADAMS & WESTLAKE CO. CHICAGO U.S.A.

REMINGTON STANDARD TYPEWRITER.

SIMPLICITY DURABILITY NEATNESS.

DISPATCH RELIABILITY.

WYCKOFF, SEAMANS & BENDIS, 175 MONROE ST. CHICAGO.

Silver Ware

OF THE HIGHEST GRADE

THE QUESTION: WILL IT WEAR?

you need never be asked if your goods bear the

TRADE MARK

AS THIS IN ITSELF GUARANTEES THE QUALITY.

BE SURE THE PREFIX "1847" IS STAMPED ON EVERY ARTICLE. THESE GOODS HAVE STOOD THE TEST FOR NEARLY A CENTURY.

SOLD BY FIRST-CLASS DEALERS.

WOMAN'S CANNING AND PRESERVING CO.

Makers of Choice LUNCH TONGUES, DELICIOUS PUDDINGS.

Puttings List: APPLE TAPIOCA, PEACH TAPIOCA, APRICOT TAPIOCA, INDIAN FRUIT PUDDING.

All goods put up by competent workmen. Greatest neatness and care exercised, ensuring perfection. Highest inducements from dealers and us etc. Order through your dealer, and if he does not supply the goods write us.

WOMAN'S CANNING AND PRESERVING CO. 19 Michigan av., Chicago Ill.

APPARATUS AND SUPPLIES FOR PHOTOGRAPHY

KODAKS AND HAND CAMERAS

DEVELOPING AND PRINTING

Send for Price List.

SWEET, WALLACH & Co 215-221 WABASH AV., CHICAGO

LIEBIG COMPANY'S EXTRACT OF BEEF.

BEST PUREST BEEF TEA CHEAPEST

INVALUABLE

In the Kitchen for Soups, Sauces and Made Dishes.

Church Carpets

In connection with our wholesale business we are accustomed to sell Carpets for use in Churches at manufacturers' prices. Correspondence Solicited.

JOHN H. PRAY SONS & CO., Wholesale and Retail, 646 to 658 Washington St., Boston.

ILLINOIS TRUST & SAVINGS BANK

"ROOKERY" BUILDING.

CAPITAL & SURPLUS, $3,250,000.

Interest allowed on Deposits

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

AS YOU LIKE IT.

THE EDGAR NUTMEG GRATER.

Special Inducements to Agents this month.

EDGAR MFG. CO., Reading, Mass.

There is a time and place for Everything.

Now, is the time, to advertise.

THE APPEAL, is the place.

REPEATING AIR RIFLE

THE MATCHLESS

65 SHOTS PRICE $2.50.

ADAMS & WESTLAKE CO. CHICAGO U.S.A.

REMINGTON STANDARD TYPEWRITER.

SIMPLICITY DURABILITY NEATNESS.

DISPATCH RELIABILITY.

WYCKOFF, SEAMANS & BENDIS, 175 MONROE ST. CHICAGO.

REPEATING AIR RIFLE

THE MATCHLESS

65 SHOTS PRICE $2.50.

ADAMS & WESTLAKE CO. CHICAGO U.S.A.

REMINGTON STANDARD TYPEWRITER.

SIMPLICITY DURABILITY NEATNESS.

DISPATCH RELIABILITY.

WYCKOFF, SEAMANS & BENDIS, 175 MONROE ST. CHICAGO.