$20,000 WANTED

By J. Frank Wheaton for a Rank Outrage put Upon Him.

When the Black Patti Troubadours were in the city, J. Frank Wheaton Esq, Clerk of the Municipal Court of Minneapolis called to see Black Patti's husband Mr. Jones. They repaired to the buffet to get a little lunch. There they found D. F. Longstreet, manager of the city railroads in the city of Mexico, and J. M. Hawthorne. After a while Longstreet went out into the office to pay his hotel bill and discovered that his pocketbook, which he had carried in his inside coat-pocket, was missing. In the wallet were two drafts for $100, each on D-nyer Bank also $100 in currency. Longstreet appealed to his friend Hawthorne, and the latter said it would be a wise plan to have Wheaton and Jones searched. The central police station is but a block away and two officers took the gentlemen men thence. Longstreet declined to push the matter, and after a conversation with the officers, allowed the gentlemen to go. However, no search was made. Longstreet declares that when he went into the buffet he had his wallet, and that when he came out, it was gone. Wheaton has entered suit against Longstreet and Hawthorne for $20,000 damages for false arrest and imprisonment. It is hoped he will push the matter to a successful outcome and teach these people that because a man's face happens to show the presence of African blood in his composition he may not be suited and outraged with impunity and without danger.

New Photographic Firm.

Mr. Harry Shepherd, our bustling photographer who is setting the pace for the photographers of the North West has so increased his business that he has been compelled to take in a partner in the person of Mr. Charles Wilson, formerly headwaiter of the Merchants Hotel, who for the past three years has been learning the business. The style of the firm will remain "The Shepherd Photo Co." Mr. Wilson will have charge of the office while Mr. Shepherd will devote his whole time to the operating room. The new firm starts out with the same and will now work for the fortune in which they have the best wishes of THE APPEAL.

Let a man who wants to find abundance of employment procure a woman and a ship; for no two produce more trouble if you begin to equip them; neither of these two are ever equipped enough.—Plautus.

ROBERT FITZSIMMONS

At the Grand Opera House, St Paul.

Novelty is the order of the Day. This fact is evidenced by the enthusiastic appreciation the public always gives to something genuine of this description. For the coming week at the Grand, Manager Hays announces a distinctly genuine novelty in the initial appearance of Robert Fitzsimmons, the champion of the world. In all ages have the people delighted in contests of skill and strength and there is always a great curiosity on the part of the public to see a gladiator, who has won fame and fortune through his courage and endurance. Robert Fitzsimmons, after a career of pugilistic triumphs reached the pinnacle of his glory when he defeated James J. Corbett at Carson City, World-wide was the interest in that contest and world-wide has been the fame of the victor. Mr. Fitzsimmons, departure in the amusement business has not consisted of an attempt at "play acting" but the champion has confined his stage work to the vaudeville branch. Mr. Fitzsimmons heads a company of high class vaudeville stars, contributing himself, the most interesting feature of the program in his celebrated bag punching, exhibition and in a spirited boxing set in the last round of which, is portrayed exactly by the champion, the manner in which Corbett met his Waterloo. Ernest Roeber, the champion wrestler is also with the company and will unquestionably meet several local wrestlers during his stay here. The vaudeville support of the fatig champion is strong and includes Whitman and Davis, Charles B. Lawlor, Beautiful Theo., Mulvey and Imann, Crane Bros, McCle and Mc Daniels and Nelson, Clineverri and Deronin.

A Hint to the Wise is Sufficient. The J. H. Dillingham Fuel Company has made arrangements with the Youghiogheny and Lehigh Valley Coal Co. to furnish that company's coal to their customers. This is the best grade of coal in the market and is now selling at reduced rates. The wise will purchase the dividend tickets now on sale by E. W. Oranum the agent of the firm and thus get a reduction of 50 cents per ton on the coal or 50 cents per cord on wood. "A penny saved is a penny made" don'tcherknow! Office 304 Minnesota street.

A Light Meal. First Moth—"Still hungry?" Second Moth—"Yes, I had only a girl's bathing suit for dinner."
