A WEEKS RECORD IN MINNESOTA
TA'S CAPITAL.

The Salinity City and Salinity City folks—Newly formed of Social, Religious and General Matters Among the People, Bold and Down.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Johnson spent Wednesday fishing at Forest Lake, Minn.

FOR RENT—No. 574 Fuller street; four large rooms at reasonable rates. Splendid location.

No one can afford to pay something for nothing. The Gordon has established the right price for fine hats—$6.

Attorney F. L. McGhee went to Duluth Thursday on professional business. He will return tomorrow.

One or two gentlemen roomers wanted. Apply at 527 St. Anthony avenue, or at THE APPEAL office.

Mr. J. R. White assumes the position of head hall man at the Ryan, with nineteen bellmen under his charge.

If you wish to visit a nice summer resort for hunting, fishing and picnics, try Lake Owassaw, the beauty of Minnesota.

Look out for the grand moonlight steamboat excursion which will be given by St. Peter Claver's sodality about the middle of July.

Those of our patrons who desire to have matter published must get the same in this office not later than Thursday, otherwise it may be crowded out.

WANTED—A first-class barber, one who can please a good class of trade and who does not get drunk. Address W. B. Wright, Sioux Falls, S. Dak.

Persons desiring to visit the Appeal office are hereby notified that it has been removed from the fifth to the third floor, rooms 109 and 110, in the rear Union Block.

Minnesota Lodge, No. 2, A. F. and A. M., will meet Thursday evening, at which time the annual election of officers will be held. All members are requested to be present.

Mr. John Godfrey has moved his boarding house to No. 148 East Ninth street, between Robert and Jackson, and is now prepared to furnish those delightful meals. His new place is much more convenient to his patrons. All are invited to call and try a meal.

Benny Cates was arrested early Thursday morning, while pawing some goods in a Minnesota street pawn shop. He was taken before the police court and was discharged.

Is your hair straight? If not send 50 cents to Ozonized Ox Marrow Co., a bottle of Ozonized Ox Marrow and 76 Wabasha avenue, Chicago, Ill., for you can easily straighten it.

TRY THE MEALS AT JOHN GODFREY'S, NO. 148 EAST NINTH STREET, BETWEEN ROBERT AND JACKSON, AND YOU WILL NOT WISH TO EAT ANY OTHERS.

Mrs. Mary Davis, of Chicago, mother of Mrs. C. A. Mason, is in the city visiting her daughter, who has been laid up for a long time with rheumatism, but who is now able to be out again.

Miss Minnie T. Farr, who is entitled to the distinction of being the only Afro-American teacher in the public schools of St. Paul, has been re-appointed first assistant at Lincoln school.

Mrs. H. B. Roger will give a musicale and soiree for the benefit of St. Peter's Choral Association, at her residence, corner of Groto and University avenue, Tuesday, June 19th. Admission 25 cents.

Mr. James H. Harris is to be among the fortunate citizens of St. Paul who will attend the Paris Exposition. He already has his transportation in his inside pocket, but will not leave for a few days yet.

Some people who send matter for publication in THE APPEAL seem to think they need only to put a 1 cent stamp on same because the envelope is unsealed. All communications should bear a 2 cent stamp.

Mrs. Addison Davis has received the sad intelligence of the death of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Smith, at Lebanon, Ky., Wednesday morning. The deceased was sixty years old and had been sick for nearly a year.

If you wish a good shave, hair cut or shampoo, call at Richard Cusby's neat shop, No. 374 1/2 Minnesota street. First-class workmen only. Satisfaction guaranteed. Music for occasions furnished on short notice.

At the St. Paul Carnival on June 18th to 30th there will be Hawaiian, Japanese, Puerto Rico, Filipino and Oriental theaters, which will give the visitors an opportunity to witness amusements as supplied by theatres in foreign lands.

Mr. F. H. Engles, of Barnesville, Minn., wishes to get some good, young girl, 16 or 17 years of age to work for him. There are three in the family. Good wages and a good home. Transportation furnished. Apply to him or at THE APPEAL office.

Those who wish to revel in repasts evidencing the highest style of culinary art in their preparation; or, in other words, those who wish to eat good, wholesome, home-cooked meals should try those furnished at John Godfrey's, No. 148 East Ninth street, near Jackson.

Hagenback's great wild animal show will be seen at the St. Paul Carnival, given by the Elks from June 18th to 30th. No traveling menagerie carries a finer collection of animals than will be presented and the admission to see them will be but the small amount of ten cents.

John Godfrey, No. 148 East Ninth street, between Robert and Jackson, is prepared to take care of a few roomers at reasonable rates. Transients accommodated. Board furnished when desired. Best home-cooked meals in the city. If you doubt it, try them once and you'll be convinced.

Mr. T. J. Irvin, who started for Cape Nome, has returned, as when he got to Seattle he found it would be two months before he could secure passage on any vessel for that point. Mr. Clarence Jackson, who also started for the gold fields, concluded to stay in Seattle and wait for a chance to be transported.

The Oriental Hair Parlors, Mrs. E. J. Allen, prop. Fashionable hair dressing, shampooing, hair cutting, curling, manicuring, etc. Hair straightening and scalp treatment a specialty. Hair work to order. Calls made at residences; satisfaction guaranteed. Special sale on switches during the holidays. 205 Krahmer Block, N. E. cor. 7th and Sibley.

The Japanese theatre at the St. Paul Carnival, from June 18th to 30th, has one especial novelty. A Japanese juggler lies upon his back and tosses in the air with his feet a little Japanese boy and a barrel, alternating the objects, keeping both the boy and the barrel in the air at the same time. The little fellow seems to enjoy the toss-up.

The Midway at the St. Paul carnival, to be given by the Elks from June 18th to 30th, will furnish a series of most attractive exhibitions. The streets of Cairo will always be a novelty to an American audience. They will be a special attraction to children, as an opportunity will be offered for riding elephants, camels and burros. This will suit both old and young, and the children will flock by the thousands to the streets of Cairo.

In the streets of India which will be reproduced at the St. Paul Carnival, given on June 18th to 30th, some of the most remarkable features of juggling ever seen will be witnessed. The juggler will make a tree grow before the eyes of the audience; he makes a poisonous snake stand on its tail and dance to music; he causes a fifteen-year-old boy to disappear, though he has no stage or apparatus to aid him, and performs various other wonderful features.

Political Points.
Reginald Ames, late private secretary to late Mayor Kiefer, has been appointed to a position as clerk in the Board of Public Works.

Among the last official acts of Mayor Kiefer was the appointment of County Commissioners Grey, Quehl and Hardick as a jail committee.

Henry Johns has been appointed to the position of second assistant made vacant by the resignation of Frank Arnold in the Corporation Attorney's office.

The vacancy in the health department created by the appointment of Adam Bohland as city assessor has been filled by the appointment of William Burke.

Mayor Smith's first appointment was that of M. J. Costello as private secretary, the position he so ably filled during the last term of Mayor Smith. He also appointed to his old position of messenger, James Nugent.

Mayor Robert A. Smith was inducted into office with the usual impressive ceremonies last Tuesday and the plaudits of his friends who filled the council chamber. He has the unique distinction of being mayor and postmaster of St. Paul at the same time. He will hold his office of postmaster until July 1st, when ex-Governor A. R. McGill will succeed him.

The only two men who have resigned their positions since the advent of the new city administration are Afro-American, viz.: Robert Morris, chief of the city work-house, whose place has been filled by the appointment of a white man, and Louis Liverpool, jailer at Central Police Station, whose place has been filled by the appointment of next Monday.

THOSE ENVOIOUS ARTISTS.

Artist I.—I expect to have a little something on the line next May! Artist II.—What! Going to change your shirt?

stans, Seventh ward; C. D. Smith, second ward, clerks. Miss Matilda A. Tschiffely, the stenographer, was retained.

Mayor Smith on Tuesday recommended the removal of Chief of Police P. L. Getchell, Chief of Detectives M. L. McIntyre, Lieut. Joe Davis, Detective John Christiansen, Patrolmen Jacob Stadfield and J. T. Samtons. He appointed John J. O'Connor as chief, Henry Meyerding as lieutenant, D. L. Ahern as detective and Joseph Pagleasa and Norman Schaufhausen as patrolmen. The officers appointed have not assumed their positions yet, as their appointment has not been confirmed by both bodies of the council. It is thought that the matter of removals and appointments will be forced upon the new police commission, which will probably be ready for action by next Monday.

The Elks Midsummer Exposition and Carnival.

The arrangements made by the St. Paul Elks for their Midsummer Exposition and Carnival in St. Paul from June 18th to 30th renders it certain that all visitors will find infinite variety of amusements. First there will be a main street where there will be several hundred booths with a variety of articles on exhibition, music by Messrs. Fred Lee and Fred Cunningham, accompanied by two Washington Ave. ladies, were seen Sunday afternoon driving in a swell carriage on Park Ave. The two Freds were dressed up-to-date, wore white gloves and the reins which held the horses were white. Everyone said the procession was over after they passed.

The Lake City (Ga.) postoffice, which was discontinued after the murder of Postmaster Baker, has been re-established with Mrs. Della D. Carter (white) as postmistress. This was done on petition of practically all the people, whites and Afro-Americans. How quickly we condone wrong doings and allow wicked men to sit in high places with the blood upon their hands unavenged.

Grand concert by the Twin City graduates to be given at Bethesda Baptist church Monday evening, June 11, 1900. An excellent and varied program will be rendered, consisting of literary productions and music, among which will be the brilliant oration of Miss Lulu Blair, which she will deliver at the coming commencement exercises.

intended for publication in The Appeal will receive attention if left at West Hotel Drug Store.

Dr. R. S. Brown was called to the Pullman House Wednesday evening to relieve Mattie McDowell, who had taken half an ounce of laudanum.

The Appeal is mailed to most of the homes of the people of the Twin Cities, and if you wish matters to reach these homes you must publish them in the Appeal.

Miss Mae Williams, one of the Central High School graduates, is reported very ill at her home and will not be able to take part in her graduating class, but will receive her diploma.

Mrs. Amanda Smith, the greatest evangelist of the race, will preach at St. Peter's church June 10th, morning afternoon and evening. Every one is invited to attend all of the services.

Robert W. Gully was arrested and held under $1,000 bond for stealing $200 from Mr. Noah Adams, a passenger on the Milwaukee road. Gully was the porter. The money was found in his sock. He was arrested in St. Paul and brought to Minneapolis.

A concert will be given by the Twin City graduates at Bethesda Baptist church Monday evening, June 11. An excellent and varied program will be rendered, consisting of literary productions and music, among which will be the brilliant oration of Miss Lulu Blair, which she will deliver at the coming commencement exercises.

11, 1900. An excellent and varied program will be rendered, consisting of literary productions and music, among which will be the brilliant oration of Miss Lulu Blair, which she will deliver at the coming commencement exercises. This will be the event of the season. Don't miss it. Admission, 15 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark and son Evern left the city Monday morning for Chicago, where they will attend the Evangelical School for three months, and then leave for New York and sail for Africa, and take up evangelistic work. Mr. and Mrs. Clark both spoke at St. Peter's church Sunday night, and it was a sad scene as they bade their friends good-bye. They will be greatly missed in the church, as she was a singer in the choir, and he a class leader. Their little son will visit his grandparents for the three months and then join his parents and accompany them on their journey.

The Woman's Guild of St. Thomas Mission will hold its first post-lenten social at Knickerbocker Hall, corner Ninth St. and Fourth Ave. S., on June 12 at 8 p. m. sharp. The public is cordially invited. This initial entertainment bids fair to excel in uniqueness and high literary and musical merit anything ever given in Minneapolis. Come and bring your friends. Admission, 10 cents.

The following is the program: Piano solo, Miss E. Grey; tenor solo, Mr. G. Carlisle; essay, Miss Lulu Blair; vocal solo, Mrs. W. Smith; vocal duet, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Francis; piano solo, Mr. G. A TREAT.

In Store for Ladies and Children of Minneapolis.

Mrs. Victor Webb, who for the past year has been in attendance at the infirmary parlors of the N. I. O., has opened at 29 Washington Ave. S. a very neat bath parlor where she is prepared in a modest way to give alcohol, vapor, sulphur and sponge baths also massage treatment.

Mrs. Webb, on making inquiry, found that there was not a place where ladies of her race could receive these benefits, hence her long cherished desires have been fulfilled by opening such a place herself.

Rheumatism, nervousness, kidney and skin diseases successfully treated, also, by securing perfect circulation of the blood the complexion is made clear and the skin smooth. She earnestly solicits the patronage of all who desire health and beauty. As she will make no distinctions of race or color she will be pleased to have any and all of her friends call.

Hours: 9:30 a. m. to 9:30 p. m., 3rd floor, No. 29 Washington Ave. S.
