Several very expensive flower designs decked her pretty white casket and six of her girl friends acted as pallbearers. leaves a devoted grandmother, father, five aunts and a host of cousins and friends to mourn her loss. May they find comfort in the knowledge that over Jordan there is sweet peace.

Mr. T. J. Hunter, class No. 1 of Quinn Chapel, has the largest enrollment of any class in the Sunday school and members and visitors have pleasant moments together. For three or four Sundays very interesting papers on the Bible have been prepared and read before the class by some one of the members. Feb. 17 the paper was "The Lord's Supper." This class meets in one of the side rooms. If you wish to visit it ask the usher at the door for class No. 1. Visitors are always welcome. Mr. Hunter's bride is a very pleasant little woman and is making herself at home among her new acquaintances.

Dr. J. Albert Johnson, pastor of the Metropolitan Church of Washington D. C., was in the city last week and spoke Sunday morning and evening a' the Institutional Church. Sunday evening he read from the 19th chapter of St. Luke and took as his text, Son of man has come to seek and save that which was lost." Dr. Johnson is very able and eloquent in his dis-courses and held the undivided attention of the large congregation that came out to hear him from the opening to the close. Farty-eight dollars was the collection for the day. The two quartettes rendered some excellen music and a Mr. Clark (white) an organist of Brooklyn, N. "What The Outlook does is to give the fairest, the most unbiased, the clearest conception of the many momentous occurrences which are shaping the world's history to-day. This weekly combines the functions of the newspaper and of an illustrated magazine, and discusses politics, religion, education, economics, literature, and art."—New York Times.

In The OUTLOOK

LYMAN ABBOTT & HAMILTON W. MABIE, EDITORS

during the months of November, December, and January will appear a series of ten autobiographical papers from telling the romantic story of his life, from birth in a Virginia slave cabin to the eminent position which he holds as the builder and head of Tuskegee Institute and the honored and trusted leader of the colored race in this country.

Every Reader of This Paper will surely be interested in Mr. Washington's story, and as a special offer in order to introduce The Outlook to new readers, we will send The Outlook for the three months above mentioned at the special price of twenty-five cents (regular price, seventy-five cents), providing the name of this paper is mentioned. The Outlook tells the story of world happenings every week in short, clear, labor-saving paragraphs. Address Comrade Alfred Cerney, of John Brown Post, No. 50, died Feb. 14, at his home, 2928 Firth avenue, of typhoid pneumonia and was buried from Olivet Church Sunday, Feb. 17, at 2 p. m. Rev. Thomas officiating. Text, 12th Chapter, Eccl. 1-7 verses.

Comrade Cerney was born in South Carolina; enlisted with 61st U.S. V. I. March 14, 1864; discharged Jan. 25, 1865; joined John Brown Post No. 50 Sept. 21, 1898. He leaves to mourn his lost, his wife, Henrietta, and grown son, Alfred. The services were conducted by Post. No. 50 and Women's Relief Corps No. 14. Several G. A. R. ladies were present. Olivet choir sang some very appropriate music. Floral tributes were very pretty from Post and W. R. C.

Miaco's Trocadero Theatre.

Rice & Barton's Gaiety Extravaganza, headed by those peerless humorists Rice and Barton, will play one week at Miaco's Trocadero, beginning next Sunday afternoon. These two genial jesters need no introduction to Chicago audiences. Be it sufficient to say that they will take part in every performance. They will personally head their jolly cohorts in two new farces, "Brown Among the Daisies" and "Satan's Inn," while Idylla Vyner, a new burlesque star, will lead the feminine contingent, all good looking girls of gay attire. The specialty bill will be of exceptional quality, and will include Ruf and Retto, trapeze wonders; Rice and Elmer, comedians, J. K. Mullen and Annie Dunn, humorists; the Revere sisters, dancers; the musical team of Eckhoff and Gordon, and the Princeton Sisters, gay soubrettes. Music, scenery and costumes will all be of the most brilliant and impressive styles.

The I. B. W. Club. The I. B. W. W. C. met Thursday at Mrs. I. Lewis, 3836 Dearborn street. It was Current Topic night and a goodly number were out. Mrs. Lewis, leader, had a very interesting paper and so many current topics that when a paper was open for discussion each present could choose a different topic to discuss and as women love to talk and when they have the privilege they know how to use it. The Herald was read, dues collected, then adjournment. Menu, cocoa and ham sandwiches, ginger wafers and lemonade

The W. C League]

The W. C. League held its regular meeting Feb. 17 at Quinn Chapel and after the general order of business Mrs. Irene Lewis read the following article, which "Marion Harland," o the Evening News, gave to "L. F. D."

"Inquirer." In a certain portion of this city a few days ago there was a young lady of respectable parents in fair circumstances, who fell in love with a young Afro-American. Her parents on finding the matter out forbade her from ever speaking to him again. The lady said that he was the man she loved, and he was the man she would marry. She has been rejected from home for doing so. Please express your opinion as to this affair."

"Marion Harland's Reply." "There can be but one opinion on this matter among right minded people. Miscegenation of this sort is of-fensive to good taste, repulsive in the extreme to those who have studied the race question in all its bearings. The parents should resort to almost any extreme measure of prevention to save the family reputation and their child from the life long misery. To reject her from their home does not relieve them from responsibility and hurries on her ruin. The topic is intensely disagreeable throughout. Such a fancy can hardly exist in a sane mind and s incompatible with delicacy."

Mrs. Irene Lewis' opinion of Marion Harland's reply, which as yet has not appeared in print in the News: "In Wednesday's Daily News, Jan. 9, a letter signed "L. F. C." wrote you in re-gard to a young white woman loving a young Afro-American and your reply was "that miscegenation of this sort is offensive to good taste, repulsive in the extreme to those who have studied he race question in all its bearing." Now in regard to repulsiveness of the mixing I agree with you for the foolish Afro-American man usually allows his affection to be centered on some one of the poorest of the white race, such SEE OUR RUBBER SOLES, as the better positioned white man would not look upon, knowing that they in their ignorance could never reach their plane.
