THE FIRST JUNE BRIDE OF THE SAINTLY CITY.

Mr. William Ewing Takes unto Himself a Better Half in the Person of Miss Livina Houser, in the Presence of a Number of Their Many Friends.

June is conceded to be the favorite month for weddings and so it may be, but the first notable June wedding in our city was the beautiful house wedding of Mr. William Ewing and Miss Livina Houser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Houser, which was solemnized at the residence of Mrs. Della Pettis, 495 Fuller street, on last Thursday evening. When the hour for the ceremony arrived, the high contracting parties took their positions before Rev. C. Anderson, while Miss Carrie Douglass played the wedding march and with the usual formula were shortly pronounced man and wife and received the congratulations of their friends.

The bride was given away by her father. Miss Missouri Anderson acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Daniel Hardin as best man.

The bride wore a gown of white albatross handsomely trimmed with satin and lace, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

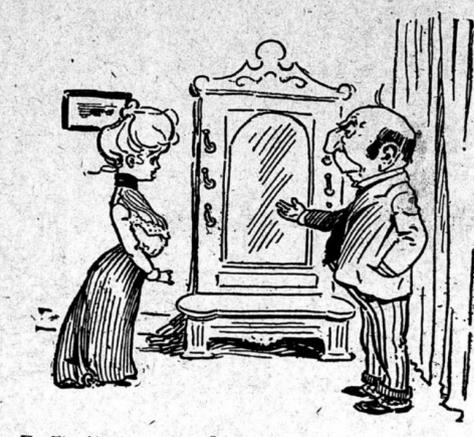

The bridesmaid wore white organdie and lace, and carried white roses. The groom and best man wore the conventional attire for such occasions.

The reception committee consisted of Mesdames Harry Shepherd, A. Bellesse, Kittie Terrill, Della Pettis, O. D. Howard, J. H. Dillingham and Mary Walker.

After the congratulations refreshments were served and all went merry as a wedding bell.

AFRO-AMERICAN REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF MINNESOTA.

Believing that our elevation must be done largely through our own efforts; that we can make our influence as a race and our importance as a part of the citizenship strongly felt and recognized, if we unite and centralize our power, a number of the citizens of the city of St. Paul, en masse assembled, voted to call a state convention of Afro-American Republicans to meet in the city of St. Paul, Minn., on the 8th day of July 10-13 a. m., the convention to be held at the Masonic Hall, 317 and 319 Wabasha street, between Third and Fourth streets.

The apportionment of delegates to be as follows: Any Afro-American Republican who is at this time a member of a Republican club in the state of Minnesota is eligible to attend the convention as a delegate, upon presentation of proper credentials from the club of which he is a member; or any Republican residing in a locality in Minnesota where there is no Republican club, is entitled to attend as a delegate and represent the locality where he resides.

All persons interested in the future of the race in the state of Minnesota are earnestly requested to be present on this occasion and assist in effecting an organization that will accomplish much good for the race. (Signed) HARRY HOWARD, Chairman. J. F. PARKER, Secretary. HARRY SHEPHERD, D. E. BRADLEY, W. T. FRANCIS, REV. W. D. CARTER, Committee on Call.

Hamm's New Velvet Beer.

The Theo. Hamm Brewing Co., of St. Paul, notwithstanding the excellent brews of beer that it now furnishes, has just put a new extra pale beer on the market that promises to surpass anything in the line of bottle beer. This new beer is called "Velvet." It is an extra pale beer, having a rich, agreeable hop flavor and just the right amount of malt strength to make it an ideal tonic beverage. This beer is guaranteed to be absolutely pure and wholesome and to be made of the very best selected malt and imported hops. Telephone the Big Home Brewery, Main 935, for a case.
