ater, commencing tomorrow's matinee, will be Edw. F. Rush's Brilliant Bon-ton Burlesques, presenting two fascinating frolics, "Tutti-Frutti" and "A Daffy Shop." Full of sunshine and sparkle, the wittiest and brightest burlesques of the season. Costumed superbly. Rich in artistic scenery, racy in comedy, lavish in speciality. Illustrated by beautiful women.

Ethyella, the youngest daughter of The Appeal man, aged five years, like many other little tots, is constantly making some sage remark or observation that gives evidence of thought worthy of one of more mature years. The Appeal man, like all fathers who wish to bring up their children in the way they should go, is constantly telling his children what they should or should not do, on the don't-do-as-I-do, but do-as-I-say theory. A few days since, at the breakfast table, he was talking quite earnestly on some subject, the importance of which he wished to impress upon the minds of the youthful quartet which the storm so generously left at his domicile, and the tone of his voice, his solemn manner or his occasional punctuations on the table with his clenched fist, must have caused the little one to recall the manner and actions of some itinerant exhibitor or pulpit pounder whom she had seen or heard, for all at once, during a temporary lull in the lecture she naively inquired: "Papa, could you be a preacher if you wanted to?" It is needless to add that the moral effect of the lecture was lost.

worthy cause.

"HEARTS OF OAK"

At Grand Opera House, St. Paul.

James A. Herne's "Hearts of Oak" company presented by a carefully selected aggregation of talented players will be seen at the Grand Opera House the coming week. The attraction will be first class in every respect and will be given with realistic scenic effects. The trade mark of success won by the Herne management is carefully lived up to year after year.
Every one who has witnessed any of Mr. Herne's plays will ever remember the charm of the children he introduces. Especially in "Hearts of Oak" and "Shore Acres" the children are real, living natural beings. The author provides them with lines such as they would really utter and allows them to lip their words and express their feelings as they would in real life. Another realistic scene is the famous dinner scene consisting of good old-fashioned baked beans, a meat pie, boiled potatoes, griddle cakes, bread and butter and tea. There is nothing make-believe about the supper for the actors and actresses enjoy the meal during the mimic representation of New England life, and rarely leave any of the good things spread upon the supper table. This is the first time that this play has been seen here at popular prices and ought to prove a strong drawing card at that play-house. The engagement will be for one week with the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinee.

Oxygen Is Life's Necessity.
Without Oxygen man dies, but when the blood is well fed with oxygen man lives in the full enjoyment of health.
Life should be a constant physical revolution. Oxygen is a feeder of living tissues.

Disease and sickness arise from lack of vitality, which is due to lack of oxygen in the blood. OXYDONOR animates and thus reverses this degen-eration, opens the way for the whole organism to drink freely of oxygen. through the pores of the skin and membranes, and sets in operation an energizing, irresistible, vital force, which speedily overcomes disease.

One OXYDONOR will serve the family. It cures while you rest, and its results are equally efficacious for the infant and grandchild.

The following testimonial, one of many hundreds, testifies as to the efficiency of the Oxydonor:

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 28, 1903.
Dr. C. S. Wilson:

I take great pleasure in notifying you that I have given the Oxydonor a thorough test lately, when my wife was sick with La Grippe, Bronchitis, and a touch of Pneumonia. It was a severe attack, accompanied by high fever, and I must confess that I had some doubts about the outcome. But to my surprise the Oxydonor worked the magic: I had to use it in ice for 35 hours, but it conquered the disease. Applying the Oxydonor two more nights perfected the cure.

Yours very gratefully,
JOSEPH SIEP,
925 E. 6th St.

Anyone wishing to investigate further in regard to the Oxydonor should call on or communicate with Dr. C. S.
Wilson, 611 N. Y. Life Bldg., St. Paul, Minn.

SHAME! SHAME!! SHAME!!!

Old Ben Tillman, the most intense hater of Afro-Americans the South has produced, has been invited to deliver a lecture on "The Race Question From a Southern Standpoint" at the First Baptist church of Minneapolis. Why the good (?) people of that church wish to desecrate God's Holy Temple with the carcass of a man as beast as Tillman is beyond sane comprehension.
It is well known that his foul-mouthed harranguing which he has frequently repeated is not one that should be allowed in a place dedicated to the worship of God. Of course there will be few self respecting persons present, who were not drawn there out of a morbid curiosity to see the lowest thing in human form that God for some unknown reason allows to encumber His footstool.

Lower Five is Better.
"In our city," said Mrs. Blugore-Penn, "admission to the upper ten implies good birth." "Strange," replied Miss Ida Pen-dence, "now in sleeping car the lower ten implies much better birth."—New Orleans Picayune.

Rev. Reeves, is dangerously ill at her home.

editor of the Gazetteer and Guide, is in the city this week.

Ex-Mayor Ames will return to Minneapolis next week; he starts from New Hampshire today.

Mrs. D. W. Carter, Mrs. Fanne Dodd, and a number of others of St. Paul attended the old maids' convention.

The remains of Mr. H. Barnes, who died in St. Paul, were sent to his home in St. Louis by the K. of P. Thursday.

The Christian Endeavor meets every Sunday 6:30 p. m. at Bethesda Baptist church. You are most cordially invited.

Attorney McCants Stewart is in the city for a few days. Mr. Stewart will make his future home in Portland, Oregon.

Chas. Williams and James Wofford, the two men who were arrested on Nicollet ave. Sunday, were held to the grand jury.

Dr. P. A. Hubert of Chicago addressed a large audience at St. James Church Sunday evening. The doctor said in the course of his remarks that, "Ben Tillman was the best first established Afro-American has." Hell is full of such friends.

The Original of "Uncle Tom" Dead.
Norman Argo, born a slave, died Monday at Paint Lick, Ky., at the reputed age of 111 years, the authenticity of which is fairly well established by the family in whose service he spent the greater part of his life.
Argo belonged to Gen. Samuel Kennedy, one of the wealthiest planters in Garrard county, and the first representative of this county in the Kentucky legislature. He was only three feet four inches tall, and for that reason was known as "Little Norman." He was employed as a house servant, and was a great favorite with the children. Mrs. Stowe got most of the material for "Uncle Tom's Cabin" from the Kennedy place.
Argo is said to have been the original Uncle Tom, as many of the traits which made him respected by his owner are found in Uncle Tom. Argo was proud of this distinction. He had been repeatedly written up. Fifty years and more ago he was a wonder as a jockey, and by his skillful riding won thousands of dollars for his owner.

A SYMPOSIUM ON LIARS.

The following symposium on "Liars" is worth reading, even if it fails to do the subject complete justice:

The liar whom the editor hates worse of all is the man who, when dunned for a year's subscription, says he only received two or three copies during the year, and refuses to pay.— Clarksville Graphic.

Next to, if not above this one, the editor hates a liar who takes the paper seven or eight years, and when finally cornered for settlement, says he never ordered the paper at all.— Pike County Post.

But the worst liar of the whole lot is the man who takes the paper several years, then moves away without paying or saying anything about it, and yet says he is an honest man.— Elsbury Advance.

Bretren, you all fall short of the truth. The biggest liar in the lot is the editor who publishes the obituary of these aforesaid liars and intimates that they have gone to heaven.— Plymouth Independent.

What He Wanted.
"Your honor," said the prisoner, who had been brought in for a preliminary hearing, after six weeks in the county jail. "I want a change of menu."
"You mean," said the judge, kindly,
"that you want a change of venue.
Now, the proper course—" "No, I don't mean that. I want a change of menu. That sheriff seems to have tried to corner the corned beef supply of the world."—Baltimore American.

Largest Armor-Plate.

Duesseldorf, Germany, last year.
