of Romans to be delivered on Saturdays during May by William R. Newell of the Moody Bible Institute in connection with a union bible class, expected to number 2,000 at the Moody church, La Salle and Chicago avenues, under the auspices of 400 churches. The services will begin each Saturday in May at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

C. McIntyre, an Afro-American, living at 112 Thirty-fifth street, was attacked and severely beaten by three men who accosted him on Twenty-sixth street and Cottage Grove avenue late Friday night. He was left unconscious in the street and was found later by a pedestrian who notified the police. After his injuries were dressed, he was taken to his home.

The police later arrested James Laidlow, who is thought to have been one of McIntyre's assailants. He is being held at the Cottage Grove avenue police station. The police believe McIntyre was taken for a non-union worker.

Sets Pace in Divorce.

All Chicago records for speedy divorce trials were shattered Saturday when two cases were heard at the same time by one judge. Following this lightning mode of severing marital bonds, and in the same courtroom, two judges heard separate cases at the same time from the same bench.

It was country judges who thus taught Chicago the possibilities of rapidity in divorce trials. Judge Charles A. Bishop of Sycamore was the jurist who heard the two cases at once, afterward joined by Judge Arthur H. Frost of Rockford, and the two simultaneously heard testimony in separate suits.

THE STRIKE.

There were several shooting affairs Sunday which did not result in the serious wounding of any person, but showed that the rough element in the ranks of the teamsters was seeking for opportunities to injure the Afro-American non-union men. At the barn of the Employers' Teaming association, at Eighteenth and Dearborn streets, Albert Wells, an Afro-American driver, was shot in the left wrist by a white man recognized as a union picket.

Two non-union Afro-American teamsters of the Employers' Teaming Company were painfully hurt and escaped serious injury only by the interference of the police in a riot today in the alley north of the Olympic theater. The injured men were Wade Crowder, who was cut about the head and face, and John Pitkins, struck on the head by a stone.

Leon Mandel, a Jew, member of the firm of Mandel Brothers, said Monday: We do not want the Negro non-unionist. It was a mistake to import them. They breed jealousies and disturbances which lead to slugging, violence and rioting.

Sheriff Barrett and County Commissioner Oscar De Priest, who is an Afro-American, had a lively tilt in the office of the sheriff, when De Priest appeared and urged Barrett to appoint several Afro-Americans as deputies. Barrett emphatically refused, declaring that the presence of Afro-Americans as deputies would only incite riot. This angered De Priest and hot words passed between the two county officials.

Since the swearing in of special deputies began two days ago several Afro-Americans have appeared at the office of the sheriff, asking that they be appointed. They had letters of introduction from De Priest in some instances. They were refused by Chief Deputy Peters, who gave them no reason other than by inference why he could not appoint them.

The riot press have attempted to make out that the strike is a race war. This is absolutely false. There are Afro-American members in nearly all of the labor unions, including the garment makers' and the teamsters' unions. The Afro-American non-union teamsters have certainly not shown the white feather.
