The Colonade Dancing Academy had a splendid crowd on last Wednesday evening and all enjoyed themselves. The splendid music by Prof. Lafayette Mason and Armand's orchestra gave the Musical Saturday Armand's orchestra will be present at all the assemblies of the Colonade Dancing Academy, corner of University and Farrington Aves. Be sure to attend next Wednesday evening, Arthur Winstead, principal.

The Colonade Dancing Academy means to please the public immensely as the number of patrons is constantly on the increase. The hall is a very nice one, has a fine floor and everything is as snug as can be. Despite all counter attractions every Wednesday night the usual large and highly pleased crowd is present. Principal Winstead is constantly on the lookout to please his patrons and special attention is paid to beginners.

Beautiful hand made rugs may be made out of your old carpet, no matter how dirty or worn out it may be. Rugs made any size desired and out of any sort of old carpet which will be cleaned and disinfected free of charge. Just call up the Simonet Rug Company, N. W. phone main 1772 L 1, or T. George Mahan, charged with the murder of his wife, Hattie Mahan, April 23, pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging murder in the first degree before Judge Lewis in district court Wednesday afternoon. Mahan wanted F. L. McGhee appointed as his attorney, but the court appointed H. P. Keller. The case was continued until the June term. Mahan was so weak from a bullet wound inflicted by himself when he shot his wife that he had to be supported before the judge's desk by three deputy sheriffs.

Our enterprising, highly successful and artistic photographer, Mr. Harry Shepherd is to be lost to our city. He left Thursday evening for Chicago. He has sold his photographic studio on Sixth street for a large sum and also sold a half interest in the La Sangre Chemical Co. to a gentleman from North Dakota for $5,000 cash. He will probably locate in Chicago, where he may open another photographic studio. Mr. Shepherd has established nine photograph establishments during his business career here, all of which were disposed of advantageously. He has been one of our most enterprising and successful business men and his loss will be deeply felt.

The Thanksgiving anniversary and special services of the Odd Fellows, at Pilgrim Baptist church, last Sunday afternoon, attracted a large audience that was highly pleased with the interesting program furnished, which was as follows: Introductory remarks, P. Mr. Charles H. Calloway left for Kansas City, Mo., Thursday to begin the practice of law. Mr. Calloway came to this city four years ago fresh from Fish University, Nashville, Tenn., and has taken a course of law at the State University of Minnesota. He was a faithful student, a good citizen, and the many friends he has made during his residence here regret to have him leave, and he has their earnest wishes for success in his new field of labor.

The musical program of the choir of St. Thomas Mission was exceptionally excellent last Sunday afternoon. Particularly well rendered was the soprano solo, "Come Unto Me," by Miss Ada Spence, and the anthem, "Hear Us, O Father," by the choir. By special arrangement of the rector in charge, the afternoon of the second Sunday of each month has been set aside for a musical service, at which time an especially prepared program will be rendered. The choir has a large and growing collection of the best music, including selections from Elijah, Gounod's Redemption, Hayden's Creation and other standard works, and will be prepared to put them on in a most creditable manner.

Mrs. G. W. Nelson of 2818 Chicago avenue is shortly to leave the city to join her husband in Portland, Ore., where he has gone to open a drug store. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson have endeavored themselves to the people of Minneapolis, and a number of their friends, headed by Mrs. Minnie Plummer, got up a surprise party for her last Wednesday evening. The crowd of some fifty persons swooped down upon her about 9 o'clock and so completely surprised her she burst into tears. She, however, recovered, and proceeded to make her unbidden guests as welcome as possible. The rugs were taken up from the polished floors of her handsome residence, which is a monument of the success of her husband as a druggist during his business career in this city, and dancing was begun and continued until a late hour, when refreshments were served, and the guests departed wishing Mrs. Nelson and her husband all the good things possible in their new home.
