Breakfast from 7 to 11 a. m.; lunch from 12 m. to 2:30 p. m.; dinner from 5 to 8 p. m. Meals to order when desired. Sunday dinners a specialty. Regular meals 25 cents.

Little Misses Adina and Margaret Adams of St. Paul, who were the guests for a week of Miss Mildred Plummer, were tendered a surprise "fruit shower" on Friday evening of last week at the residence of Mrs. Fannie Cunningham. The promoters of the affair were Masters Frankie Wheaton, Ralph Ward and Myrtle Ithier. There were about thirty youngsters present and they had a time such as only children can have.

The most notable event of the week in social circles was the wedding of Mr. T. McCants Stewart of Portland, Or., and Miss Mayme Delia Weir which took place at high noon Tuesday at All Saints' Episcopal church. Rector Thomas officiating. About a hundred particular friends and relatives were present at the ceremony. The bride wore cream lacy hand, Brussels net overdress, a Greek key pattern of cream satin ribbon. She wore a short tulle veil and carried a white vellum prayer book, a present from her mother; her only ornament was a gold locket and chain, a gift from the groom. The bridesmaids, Miss Zelma Laforce, cousin of the bride, and Miss Eugenie Coulter, wore white chiffon trimmed with valenciennes lace, pearl necklaces, white chiffon and tulle hats and carried pink dahlias. The maid of honor, Miss Hattie Weir, sister of the bride, wore flowered organdie over pink silk, trimmed with valenciennes lace, white polo hat and carried white asters. Mrs. H. F. Weir, mother, who gave the bride away, wore charming costume of gray silk. The groom's best man, Mr. Ralph Grey, and ushers, Messrs. S. E. Hall, F. D. McCracken, C. Yancey and R. Marshall were attired in full dress. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. F. Weir, 1208 Thirtieth avenue south, which was attended by the bridal party and a few intimate friends only. After the breakfast Prof. W. A. Weir, an uncle of the bride and the Coleridge-Taylor quartet furnished some delightful selections. In the evening a reception was held at the residence of Mrs. Z. A. Pope, 216 W. Thirty-first street, from 8 to 10 o'clock, which was attended by about two hundred guests. The entire bridal party were in the receiving line. The whole affair was very pretty and delightful throughout. The happy couple left Wednesday for Portland, Or., their future home.

AT DETROIT.

Twenty-Fifth Session National Afro-American Press Association.

The Twenty-Fifth Session of the National Afro-American Press Association will be held in Bethel A. M. E. Church, Detroit, Michigan, Tuesday, August 29, 1905. The time selected for the meeting is just prior to the meeting of the National Afro-American Council, so that it will be convenient for editors who attend that meeting to be present at the Press Association.

A special rate of a fare and a third on the certificate plan has been secured on all railroads as far West as Cheyenne, Wyo., and all points in Colorado, for persons attending the Council meeting, and editors may take advantage of that. Ask for tickets to the National Afro-American Council and be sure to get a certificate.

It is hoped the session will be largely attended.

NAMES OF BIBLICAL TINGE.

Remarkable Cognomens, Some Doubtless Apocryphal.

Praise-God Barebones and other quaintly named Puritans had their forerunners in such saints as Deogratias (Thank God), Bishop of Carthage, who is commemorated on March 23. Deogratias' episcopal predecessors rejoined in the name of Quodvultdeus (What-so-ever-will), which was borne by half a dozen fifth or sixth century bishops. Habetudeum (He-hath-God) and Adeodatus (Given-by-God) were other names of the time. Latin can form such names, usually less grotesquely than English. It is probably apocryphal, however, that praise-God Barebones, or Barebone (really Barbon), had two brothers, named Christ-came-into-the-world-to-save Barebone, If-Christ-had-not-died-for-you-you had been-damned Barebone, which, according to Hume, was called "Damned Barebone" for short. Hume also mentions God-reward Smart, Standfast-on-high Stringer, Kiss-in Pimple, Fly-debate Roberts, and Fight-the-good-fight-of-faith White.

Surgery An Ancient Art.

Surgery was practiced with fair skill by the ancient Egyptians. Hippocrates of the school of Cos is pre-eminent for the degree of advancement to which he brought the art. B. C. 400. The practice of dissecting the human subject did much to improve it, and was begun by Erasistratus, at Alexandria, in the third century. It was long discontinued among the Romans, who were enjoined by public edicts to follow the good old plan of healing, through the medium of religious incantation. Asclepiades made some efforts to break through this popular superstition. This was in 96 B. C., and Celsus enjoyed considerable celebrity as an operator about 17

HIS VALET'S GENTLE REBUKE.

Diplomat Forcefully Made to See His Sad Condition.

In the "Autobiography of Andrew D. White" is a story of a former senator of the United States who about the year 1840 was sent to Russia as minister. Sobriety was not this gentleman's especial virtue and this led to the resignation of his valet, who told as follows of the final quarrel: "This morning OI thought it was time to get his igillinity out of bed, for he had been drunk about a week and in bed most of the toime, and so OI went to him and says, gentle loike, 'Would your igillinity have a cup of coffee?' when he rose up and shruck me in the face. On that OI took him by the collar, lifted him out of bed, took him across the room, showed him his ugly face in the glass and OI said to him, says OI: 'Is thim the eyes of an invoy extraor-dinary and minister plinipotentiary-ry?'"
