splendid appearance in their elaborate and beautiful full regalia. The church was crowded. A handsome cash donation was made to both church and pastor by the Knights and the congregation. There was a splendid sacred concert given in the evening and the ordinance of baptism was administered.

The Mecca Club Ball at Bowly Hall last Tuesday evening was very nifty, one of the most swell-grand the club ever gave. The elite of the Twin Cities was well represented and the stunning gowns of the ladies were marvelous to behold. Of course the gentlemen, with their full dress suits, made a good background for the ladies. The grand march was led by President Owen Howell and Miss Hattie Loomis, and there were forty couples in the line. The night was a delightfully pleasant one, and everybody was in the best of spirits and all had a delightful time. The Mecca's annual ball has come to be the leading social event of the year and is looked forward to with pleasurable anticipations by its favored patrons. The city needs just such a club and the Mecca fills the place to a "queen's taste," and the good citizens lend it all the assistance and encouragement possible and show thereby their appreciation of the effort of the club to give first class, nice entertainments.

The National Grand Lodge of Elks of the world will be held in St. Paul during the last week in August. A large number of delegates and visitors are expected in the city during the meeting and it is desired that the citizens who can do so will prepare to accommodate them with board and lodging, and all persons who desire to do so will send their names, addresses and the number that can be accommodated to Dr. Valdo Turner, 386 St. Albans street, or Kendrick Block, 27 E. 7th street. Worlds Seven Ages.
One of the big things of the "World's Seven Ages" to be given under the auspices of the "One More Effort Club" at St. James church May 11th to 15th, will be the dramatic contests between a company of married ladies, under the command of Capt. J. H. Miller, and a company of single ladies under the command of Capt. John W. Kelley.

The following popular married ladies who are well and favorably known in church and social circles will form Capt. Miller's company: Mesdames Bessie Miller, Idell Johnson, Zelle Reynolds, Emma Archer, Maggie Jenkins, Harriet Williams, Mildred Johnson, Jennie Lazenberry, Cora Grissom, Lillian Mixwell, Cleota Owens, Grace Booker, Lottie Mitchell, Belle Tyler, Leola Bass and Lillie Hamilton. Capt. Kelley's company list will appear next week.

STATE GRAND LODGE
Of United Brothers of Friendship to Be Formed.
Secret society circles are having quite a boom in St. Paul at the present time and the boom has not been greater in any order than in the U. B. F. and S. M. T. Just a short time ago there was but one temple in the state, now there are ten bodies of brothers and sisters, the last being just set up this week.

It has been arranged to organize a Territorial Board for the purpose of setting up a State Grand Lodge of the order.
The meeting will be held at the old state capitol next Tuesday at 9 o'clock.
About 60 delegates will be present. Of course the meetings of the Board will be secret, but in the evening at 8 o'clock there will be a grand reception tendered to the newly elected officers at the old state capitol. The public will be freely admitted.
A fine, entertaining program will be rendered. (See program elsewhere.)
Refreshments will be furnished free to all visitors.
This promises to be a very pleasant affair and all are invited to attend.

THE ATTRACTION AT THE STAR NEXT WEEK.
Joe Oppenheimer's "Fay Foster" Company will open a week's engagement at the Star Theatre, commencing Sunday, April 26th. The company has been seen by St. Paul audiences before, but its reappearance this time is signaled by the introduction of new specialties and a brilliant array of burlesque stars.

On the rise of the curtain "Dress Parade" is presented: This is a spectacular farce replete with all the latest scenic effects and the many novel features introduced in this will make one forget everything and settle down to a few hours of solid enjoyment.
Extra Attraction! Original moving pictures of the Gutch-Hackenschmidt world's champion wrestling match.

Republican Candidate for City Treasurer.

S. J. McDONOUGH
Republican Candidate for Alderman of Eighth Ward.

S. J. McDonough, the Republican candidate for alderman of the Eighth ward, has lived in St. Paul for a quarter of a century, is a man of family, and for the last thirteen years has been a property owner and taxpayer. He has conducted a successful business during all this time, which is a recommendation so far as his business capacity is concerned. He is liberal in his ideas and believes in the theory of live and let live. If elected, as he doubtless will be, he will not be found looking after the interests of his relations instead of his constituents. Vote for him and you certainly will make no mistake.

Mr. McDonough is a fine gentleman to meet, one of exceptional ability. No one that ever had any dealings with him but will testify to his splendid qualities.

ROBERT H. SENG.

Republican Candidate for the Assembly.

JAMES L. JOHNSON.
Republican Candidate for Justice of the Peace.
James L. Johnson, Republican candidate for the office of justice of the peace, has been a resident of St. Paul since 1879, and has lived in the First ward all the time. He is a self-made man. Although having had worse obstacles to surmount than the average young man, in that he met with a severe accident some years ago, whereby he suffered the loss of his left hand, he, through perseverance and good will, obtained an education and is a college graduate, having taken a general course, including commercial law.

The circumstances of Mr. Johnson might have some weight with some of the voters, but that in itself, without fitness and ability, would be no reason why we should vote for him. The fact that he is a man of good character and no question as to his honesty and integrity, he having held the office he is now seeking the past two years and made an excellent record, proving his competency by conducting the same in such an impartial, courteous and prompt manner that he gained the confidence of all who came in contact with him in his official capacity. That is a valid reason why he should receive the support of all Republican voters. He needs the office and is worthy of it.

The Republicans are to be congratulated upon the fortunate choice they made in the man to head their ticket. Mr. McKibbin is a successful business man, who will bring to his office the same business methods that have brought him success in his private business. He will not be a mere figure-head, but will put into operation his marvelous executive ability to build up the city along right and proper lines, and this is what all good citizens desire. The only thing that is needed is for the good people to put themselves to the very little trouble of going to the polls on May 5th and voting for the representative of law and order, Mr. Joseph McKibbin, for mayor.

D. H. MICHAUD.
Republican Candidate for the Assembly.

Mr. D. H. Michaud, who is among the nine Republican candidates for the assembly, showed by the good run he made at the primaries that he is something of a hustler, and it is hustlers that we want in the city council. And the fact that he has conducted a real estate business for twenty-four years very successfully shows that he is a thorough business man, and it's business men we want in the city council. He has lived in St. Paul thirty-two years, and, of course, is closely identified with the best interests of the city, as he is one of the largest taxpayers. He favors the same sort of business administration in the city affairs that he gives to his private business, and there is no doubt that he will give just such service. Don't fail to vote for D. H. Michaud on May 5th.

W. B. MILLER
Republican Candidate for Constable at Large.

Everybody was surprised at the phenomenal run W. B. Miller made at the primaries and there is little doubt that he will not do much better at the election. He has made good during his present term of office and as one good turn deserves another just put an X opposite his name on your ballot May 5th and help to keep a good man in his place.

THE RAMSEY COUNTY COLORED REPUBLICAN CLUB AND THIRD AND FOURTH WARD CLUBS WILL HOLD A GRAND MASS MEETING AT

PILGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH, CEDAR AND SUMMIT, FRIDAY EVENING, MAY FIRST ON WHICH OCCASION JOSEPH McKIBBIN WILL DELIVER AN ADDRESS ON THE ISSUES BEFORE THE VOTERS.

MR. McKIBBIN IS A SPLENDID SPEAKER AND YOU SHOULD HEAR HIM. LADIES ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND THIS MEETING. THEIR COMFORT WILL BE ASSURED, SO COME, SEE AND HEAR THE NEXT MAYOR OF ST. PAUL. FREE-ADMISSION-FREE.

The Woman's Charity Club, through the columns of THE APPEAL, wish to extend hearty thanks to the many patrons in the Twin Cities whose presence helped to make their affair at Dania hall so successful and pleasurable.

Mr. F. L. McGhee, of St. Paul, will give a grand reading at Bethesda church on Tuesday evening, May 5th for the benefit of the church. His subject is from Paul Lawrence Dunbar's best literary work, "The Sport of the Gods." Don't fail to hear it. It is interesting, thrilling and realistic.

The lecture of Rev. C. E. Stewart at Bethesda Baptist church on Monday evening last was full of interest, as he detailed some of his varied experiences during the Civil War. The lecture was followed by a hunt for a lost hen's nest, which occasioned a great deal of merriment and pleasure. Miss Helen Rice secured the nest, which contained six beautiful eggs. All voted the entertainment a success. Rev. Stewart is chairman of the board of trustees.

The residence of Mrs. O. Rice, on Friday evening, April 10th, was a scene of brilliancy, and the festivities lasted until a late hour. The occasion was the birthday party of Miss Helen Rice, who was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. The birthday cake was the production of an artist, and was made and presented by Miss Julia Spatt. The house was decorated with carnations and ferns. Guests were present from both St. Paul and Minneapolis to about the number of thirty. After a delightful lunch was served, all retired to their homes, wishing Miss Rice many happy returns of the day.

Elks Bury Walter Allison.
Palm Sunday, a year ago, the Elks of Rice Lodge laid away one of their members, a brilliant young man, whose death shocked the community. Palm Sunday of this year death once more rudely invaded their circle and took away another young man, than whom no one stood higher in the order or was more useful, in the person of Walter Allison, the secretary. Pneumonia in an illness of less than a week accomplished its remorseless work. The mother, whose darling he was, was stricken, and the people at large have rarely been more depressed than by this death. The funeral services were held from the family residence on Lafayette street. The sweet consolation of the Episcopal burial service, the low music, huge banks of flowers of beautiful design, the sad faces of his lodge brethren and the heart-rending grief of the mother can never be forgotten. The funeral cortege was very long, many friends having come in their own carriages, and as it wound its way toward Fairmount the members of the Elks and friends, by their pouring, paid the highest tribute that the living can pay to the dead.

Those bereft by this death are the father, mother and brother immediately, and the young folk and the whole community generally, among whom he has set an example of honesty and industry. At the time of his death he was an employee of the Boutwell Brothers' Art Studio. O. J. Gilmore was the undertaker in charge. Deceased was the son of Edward Allison, deputy sheriff of Denver, Colo., and the nephew of John M. Allison, deputy sheriff, Minneapolis.

Mr. Charles Miller now has charge of the laundry department of the Valet Tailoring Co.
