The Valet Tailoring Co., which has been in successful operation for several years, has decided to enlarge its business scope and has reorganized as follows: C. H. Miller, president; B. G. Wright, vice president; J. H. Hickman, Sr., secretary and treasurer; Owen Howell, manager, under whose able management the present success of the company has been attained.

There were two cases in court the other day which showed that human nature is just the same in all nationalities. Fred Elks, whose white wife, was arrested for fighting her and Lee O'Brien, who has an Afro-American wife, were complainants against Eliza Becker, a white woman, for stealing their chickens. As the Chinaman says: They are "alike same."

The photos which were taken of Eureka Temple, the Auditorium ball and the members of the parade at the new Capitol were work of S. E. Johnson & Co. and copies of the same may be had by calling at or sending to 604 Marshall avenue. They will be delivered at residences of desired. They are very fine all of them and no one should be without them. Get them now before all are gone.

About three months ago Samuel Sellers, during an altercation, shot a cook on a dining car on the Philadelphia & Reading road. Sellers escaped arrest, came to St. Paul and for the past two months has worked at Carl's restaurant, downtown restaurant. The victim of Sellers' bullet has been hovering between life and death in a Philadelphia hospital. He was arrested Tuesday and consented to return to Philadelphia without extradition.

The Ramsey County Afro-American Club, formerly located on Cedar street, is now located on the second floor of 115 E. Third street, with everything new but the name. The membership is growing daily, demonstrating the popularity of the club and the board of management. The appointments of the new club are far superior to those of the old club, and it is now a thing of beauty and a joy forever. President Phelps and Secretary De Lyons, are up-to-date in their methods and their management of the club leaves nothing wanting.

PORTERS' AND WAITERS' CLUB An Up-to-Date Chartered Social Institution for Gentlemen.

The Porters' and Waiters' Social Club, which for a long time has had its quarters on the third floor of 319 Wabasha street, has recently added the second floor to its holdings. On the second floor are situated the billiard, pool, card and smoking rooms fitted up in elegant style.

The third floor is devoted to sleeping rooms for the members. The entire place has been newly painted, papered and refurnished, making it a strictly first-class place and the most complete club the city has had in a long time.

It is the intention of the officers of the club to endeavor to make it a model club, conducted on strictly first-class business lines. The club is run for the benefit of its members only and such visitors from other cities who may come to St. Paul.

The officers are: Wm. Christman, president and treasurer; Samuel Perry, secretary and manager; Carl D. Pickett, chairman of House Committee.

Special Notice. The regular meeting of the North Star Lodge 138 U. B. F., will be held at Wagner Hall next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock sharp. It is earnestly hoped that every member will be present, as there is business of grave importance to be transacted.

By order J. R. White, W. M., J. Q. Adams, W. S.
