THE DATE FIXED

For the Appeal's Quarto-Centennial Celebration for Sept. 12.

The Committee of Management for THE APPEAL'S Quarto-Centennial Celebration has fixed the date for the same for Monday evening, September 12th. No special invitations will be issued, but the good citizens may obtain tickets of admission from any of the gentlemen in the list of Patrons. The price of tickets has been fixed at One Dollar each.

It is with much satisfaction and pleasure that the announcement is made that the magnificent new Junior Pioneer's Hall, cor. of West Ninth and Exchange streets, has been secured in which to hold the QUARTO-CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION OF THE APPEAL. This is a hall (or rather a building, for the whole building will be used), which we have never had before, nor have we ever had a hall that in elegance approximates this except when the reception to the Minnesota graduates was held in the United Commercial Travelers, or old Elks' hall, over Field & Schlick's store; and which was generally conceded by those who were there to have been the swiftest local social function ever held in St. Paul. The coming QUARTO-CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION is to follow along the same general lines of the graduates' reception and as in some respects the accommodations and appointments surpass those of the old Elks' hall; and as the number that will attend is expected to be much larger there is little, if any, doubt that that magnificent entertainment will be far surpassed, as it is the general consensus of opinion that the coming affair must be a full dress one. Just go by the corner of Ninth and Exchange the next time you are in that neighborhood and take a look at the magnificent building with its large granite pillars and broad stone steps and the outside will give you an idea of what the inside must be. Then go home and begin to get ready to participate (if you are to be so fortunate) in the most recherche local social function ever witnessed in St. Paul.

We will do all we can to make the Quarto-Centennial an event to be long remembered.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Minor.

We heartily concur in the Quarto-Centennial Celebration and will do anything necessary to make the affair a success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cloak.

We will do what we can to make the APPEAL celebration a success.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Anderson.

We will be pleased to lend our presence to anything that will advance the interests of THE APPEAL.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blair.

You may depend on us for any assistance we can give.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Pierre.

We heartily approve of THE APPEAL Quarto-Centennial and deem it worthy of our support.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Franklin.

We are heartily in sympathy with the celebration; will give our support.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hyde.

We shall be pleased to assist in celebrating the 25th anniversary of THE APPEAL.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Peyton.

We approve very much of THE APPEAL celebration and you may count on us for our support.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Lucas.

The issuance of a Quarto-Centennial edition of THE APPEAL ought to mark an epoch in the general history of the Afro-Americans of the Northwest. The success of which should redound to the credit of its editor for his perseverance. May the celebration be unsurpassed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. French.

I heartily support the action taken by the citizens to formulate plans for the Quarto-Centennial Celebration of THE APPEAL, and believe it to be a worthy cause.

Geo. W. Willis.

The celebrating of the 25th anniversary of THE APPEAL is a good idea. We will be pleased to assist it in any way we can.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Taylor.

Count us in every time when it comes to helping our friends. We are with you for the Quarto-Centennial Celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Duckett.

You are assured of our assistance in making the affair a success.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hicks.

We will render what assistance we can to make the Quarto-Centennial a record breaker.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Bush.

Your movement is a good one, keep it up. We are with you.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harper.

We shall be pleased to assist in any way to make the Quarto-Centennial Celebration one long to be remembered.

Mr. and Mrs. A. White.

I am heartily in accord with the idea of celebrating the 25th anniversary of THE APPEAL and believe the good people of the Twin Cities will help to make it a grand success.

B. R. Durant.

I am heartily in accord with the Quarto and Centennial of THE APPEAL and indorse the movement of the same. I am also pleased with the attending spirit that seems to awaken from that of ingratitude to the appreciation of service, and that the people of the Twin Cities are heartily indorsing those who are struggling to do something for the race, especially that of THE APPEAL. We do wish success for it in the future, and under the management, we say well done to the editor of the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Morris.

We are in love with THE APPEAL and will do all we can to boom its Quarto-Centennial.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jones.

We heartily congratulate you and will do all in our power to make the Quarto-Centennial a success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Solomon.

In relation to the Quarto-Centennial idea we think it is just the proper thing and we may be depended upon for any assistance we can give.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Alston, Sr.

The Quarto-Centennial Celebration has our heartiest approval. We will do all we can to help make it a grand affair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mills.

Will lend any aid we can.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Archer.

We wish you success in your celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Alexander.

When a journal can for a quarter of a century hold the position that THE APPEAL has, with credit to itself, its editor and the race, that paper most certainly deserves hearty recognition from the people whom it so creditably represents.

We hope to be of some service.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jeffrey.

We are heartily in favor of THE APPEAL'S Quarto-Centennial movement and will do all in our power to make it a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Pope.

We O. K. THE APPEAL'S Quarto-Centennial proposition.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stewart.

The Quarto-Centennial meets our hearty approval. Count on us to render any assistance to make it a success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Charleston.

We are in sympathy with the move and consider it a good one.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brown.

We will do all we can to make the Quarto-Centennial an event to be long remembered.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Minor.

We heartily concur in the Quarto-Centennial Celebration and will do anything necessary to make the affair a success.
