to vindicate her good name by hanging the murderers. Will that be done?

MOHAMMEDANISM SPREADING. A Berlin correspondent writes that Mohammedanism is gaining more proselytes than is Christianity, among the natives of the African colonies and tribes that once professed the latter are now relapsing into the former.

SPAIN AND THE VATICAN. It is probable that many of our readers are puzzled, as we have been, to know just what is the trouble between Spain and the Vatican, and they will be glad to read the following extract from the Post, which seems to explain the matter briefly and clearly.

OPPOSED TO UNIVERSAL EXPRESSION. It has remained for Chicago's woman superintendent of schools to say the sensible thing to the pupils about handwriting. "Write any way you please," says Mrs. Young, "but write

RACE PREJUDICE.

I am convinced myself that there is no more evil thing in this present world than Race Prejudice; none at all. I write deliberately—it is the worst single thing in life now. It justifies and holds together more baseness, cruelty and abomination than any other sort of error in the world.

— G. Wells in the N. Y. Independent.

legibly and fast." The foregoing is from the Chicago Tribune, which warmly commends the sentiment of Mrs. Young. But THE APPEAL is not so sure that Mrs. Young has said the sensible thing, just because it is opposed to universal experience.

THINGS SAID DURING THE WAR.

It is very interesting to read some of the things said during the war of the rebellion, but which have now almost faded from the memories of men. The New York Sun reproduces the following:

The American people are ruled by felons. With all his vast armies, Lincoln has failed! failed! failed! failed! And still the master usurper wants more victims for his slaughter pens. I blush that such a felon should occupy the highest gift of the people. Perjury and larceny are written all over him.

RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by National Business League at New York. The following resolutions were adopted by the league at Friday's session: The National Negro Business League was organized and held its first meeting in the city of Boston in August, 1900.

When the National Negro Business League was organized ten years ago there were no State Negro Business Leagues or local leagues anywhere in the United States. There are now eight State Leagues and nearly five hundred local league organizations established throughout the country.

We would earnestly urge our people in every part of the country to continue to secure property, to increase the number of homes owned by them, and to enter every field of commercial and economic activity.

THE QUARTO CENTENNIAL.

An Assured Success—Everybody Indorses It. That the Quarto-Centennial Celebration of THE APPEAL is an assured success there can be no doubt.

press its hearty appreciation for the generous services rendered by the press association in publishing the proceedings of this convention.

Resolved, that we appreciate the generous hospitality of the local business league and the citizens of New York City and State for their cordial hospitality extended to this convention, and as we depart, we are conscious of new strength, for higher achievement, in business enterprises, because of the generous hospitality.

St. James Church. Sunday is dollar money rally day. Every member and friend of St. James is asked to give one dollar.

St. Thomas Mission, corner Fifth and 27th street. Evening service at 8 o'clock. Holy Communion first Sunday in each month at 9 a. m. Rev. A. H. Leiland, Rector. All welcome.

white fellow citizens, both North and South, who are giving us moral and financial aid, and who have done so much to assist us in our upward efforts to become self-sufficient.

At our last meeting it gave us pleasure to record our thanks to the President of the United States for sending a Commission, to the Republic of Liberia to investigate conditions in the little black republic. Since that time the report of the Commission has been published.

As business men striving to become sufficient and strong in all our business enterprises, we earnestly desire to express ourselves in favor of the higher ethical standard in business, that are now insisted upon by the progressive business men in the United States, and that we hereby pledge ourselves to contribute our strength and interest in behalf of civic righteousness in every community where we reside.

Resolved, that this committee express its hearty appreciation for the generous services rendered by the press association in publishing the proceedings of this convention.

Mrs. Fannie Pierre is back from her sudden trip to Chicago. She reports her sister's illness as very serious. Miss Sadie Marshall has returned to the city from her vacation trip to Mt. Pleasant and Des Moines, Iowa.

Mrs. Sadie Sample entertained some of her friends at breakfast in honor of Mrs. Ballard and daughter of Chicago. J. S. Bogle, who formerly lived on Third avenue south, has moved to his newly purchased home at 616 Tyler street, northeast.

Rev. G. W. Mitchell will occupy the pulpit of the Zion Presbyterian church of St. Paul, left vacant by the resignation of Rev. Boddy. Mrs. Chas Brodie of 2119 Oakland avenue, spent a few days in Duluth with her husband last week. J. M. Brodie is engaged in business in Duluth.

Last Wednesday Mesdames Aphelia Rice, Robert Young of Boston, Mass., Elizabeth Graham, Wm. Smith and daughter, Miss Essie Mason, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Addison Drake at Stillwater.

Miss Effie Buford, who has been visiting in Seattle, Washington, for some time, made a flying visit to her mother, Mrs. Sims, and left last Thursday for an indefinite stay at Omaha, Neb.

The Misses Plummer and Van Hook gave a party in honor of Miss Edna Gray of Washington, D. C., last Friday at Lyndale Hall. The young people spent a pleasant evening tripping the light fantastic toe.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Smith have issued invitations for the celebration of the 20th anniversary of their wedding, Monday evening, Sept. 5, from 8 to 11 o'clock, 3358 Oakland ave.

MRS. HARRIET G. HALL, teacher of piano and pipe organ. Hours arranged to suit patrons. Terms reasonable. Residence 996 Iglegart avenue, St. Paul. Tel. N. W. 3565.

On last Monday afternoon at 2:30 the funeral services of Mr. Del Green, who died at his residence, No. 9 Second St. N., were held at the J. M. Morris undertaking parlors. Rev. J. L. Wharton officiated.

Mrs. Joel Cage and her two sons are in the city for a few days' stay. They are on their way from Indianapolis, Ind., to their home in Portland, Ore. Mrs. Cage is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Al Moss.

Mesdames Gray and Harper left for Chicago last week to attend the 25th wedding anniversary of their cousin, Mrs. Bowman. The Misses Ida and Edna Gray will return home with them to visit here for a few weeks.

WHEN IN ST. PAUL go to the St. Louis Kitchen, 317 1/2 Wabasha St., upstairs, for your meals. All home cooking. All regular meals 25 cents. Breakfast from 7:00 to 11:00 a. m.; dinner from 12:00 to 3:00 p. m.; supper from 5:00 to 8:00. Mrs. Julia Hinson, Prop. Tel. T. S. 2718.

Mrs. Nettie Scott, widow of Mr. James A. Scott, of 2217 Elliott avenue, on yesterday received a check for $2,000 from the Pacific Mutual Insurance Co. in payment of a policy held by her late husband, who was run down and killed in the depot yards in St. Paul a few weeks ago.

The many friends of Mrs. Isabel E. Brooks have received with deepest regret the news of her death. A sufferer for years from various ailments, she succumbed last Tuesday to an attack of paralysis.

Since coming to Minneapolis 12 years ago from Madison, Wis., Mrs. Brooks has made her home with her foster daughter, Mrs. Wm. C. Jeffrey, in Minneapolis. Here, surrounded with every comfort, her last days were passed, administered to by the loving care of her daughter. Mrs. Brooks was one of the ladies of the old school—full of life and energy and Christian zeal. Her years were spent in happy service for those who were loved, and death came as the welcome end of a life full and satisfying.

The funeral service was preached by Rev. C. P. Tyler, at the Bethesda Baptist church, Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey went with the remains to Madison, Wis., where Mrs. Brooks will be laid by the side of her husband.

Mrs. Ida Sellers, who reports a grand visit at Carbondale, Ill., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Jackson at their beautiful home. Mr. Jackson is the leading and most skillful undertaker in the town as well as one of their most progressive citizens. Mrs. Sellers, who is state organizer of the Women's Clubs of Minnesota, assisted one of the prominent ladies of Carbondale in effecting the organization of a fraternal order that she had been endeavoring to organize for some time.

During her visit she displayed her ability as an elocutionist. Her friends in the Twin Cities may be assured she sustained her local reputation. Mrs. Sellers, during her stay, was highly entertained by carriage drives, receptions and the usual entertainment that accompanies such a trip. She brings with her an interesting report of the work of the Grand chapter sessions. Pride of the West Chapter No. 30 was honored in having had her appointed by the Grand Chapter as a member of the building committee for the proposed Eastern Star Home for aged members.

Whether the people are all there or not, the program of exercises for the Appeal's Quarto-Centennial Celebration will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock. Just so many minutes will be allotted to each number, and the exercises will go right on to the end. So come early if you wish to enjoy the good things that will be presented.

The Republican platform, adopted at Chicago, explicitly demands justice for all men with regard to race or color, and just as explicitly declares for the enforcement, and without reservation, in letter and spirit of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution. It is needless to state that I stand with my party squarely on that plank of the platform, and believe that equal justice to all men and the fair and impartial enforcement of the amendments are in keeping with the real American spirit.

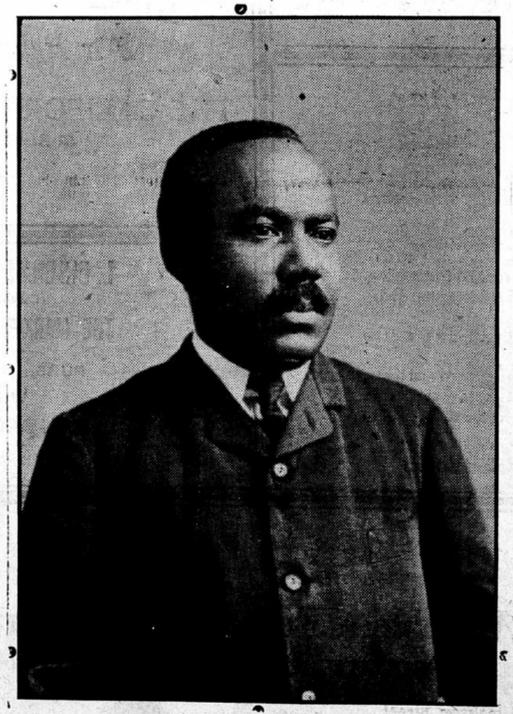

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1910.

THE BUTCHERS SHOULD BE HANGED.

The butchery of the Afro-Americans at Palestine, Texas, was so horrible that even many of the Southern newspapers are condemning it in fitting language. The Galveston News thus refers to it:

To call that tragedy near Palestine a "race riot" is to take too much license with the English language. "Slaughter," it seems to us, is the word that more fittingly characterizes the proceeding. If the statement of Anderson, county's sheriff even approximates the facts, this slaughter had not a provocation, but merely a pretext. Up to date no white man has lost so much as a thimbleful of blood, whereas from twelve to twenty Negroes have been slain, most of them, it appears, having been shot in the back.

Still, such brave talk will do but little good, unless it stimulates Texas
