Mrs. G. J. Charleston gave a party on Thursday afternoon in honor of the 12th birthday of her grand-daughter, Ruth Charleston. Quite a large number of the little lady's friends were present and had a most delightful time. She was the recipient of a number of nice presents.

The funeral of little Corinne Melker was held at St. Paul's Episcopal Church yesterday afternoon. The deceased was the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Durand, and to whom both were as much devoted as their own. She was a very young girl, about 10 years of age, who died of spinal meningitis. The funeral was largely attended by the friends of the family and was conducted by Rev. E. H. McDonald.

The ladies of St. Paul Chapter No. 29, Order of Eastern Star, gave a most delightful "November Party" at the Yehuda Hall last Thursday night. There was a very good looking crowd present though the number was not as large as it should have been owing to the deaths in two prominent families of the Order. Those who were present had a splendid time. The members of the committee to whom the credit for the very pleasant affair must be given are: Mrs. R. C. Minor, Mrs. Mildred Johnson, Mrs. Della Pettis, Mrs. G. L. Hoage, Mrs. J. H. Dillingham, Mrs. Oliver Taylor and Miss Nora Godette. Minneapolis was largely represented.

If you are looking for a large time, just go over to Minneapolis on Monday evening, Nov. 21, and go to the entertainment at South Side Auditorium, Twelfth avenue south and Third street, just one block from Washington avenue, given by the Happy Land Serenaders, their first annual entertainment. The attractions include: Billy D. Black, Happy Land Quartette, Billy and Helen Morrison, Emanuel Tyler, W. H. Seymour, Chas. Hunter, The Two Andersons, Mamie Tyler, Prof. Albert E. Lee, Frank Kirk, Judge Johnson, Big Cake Walk, Possum and Sweet Potato Supper. Admission 50 cents. You must not miss this whatever you do. Of course there is the usual grand promenade.

"This said, the young may die, but the old must die. Be this as it may, the grim monster never crosses a threshold a welcome visitor. And no matter if he is expected his coming brings a shock. This was the case with his visit to the household of Mesdames L. Terrell, and Della Pettis on last Wednesday night when he took away their mother, Mrs. Harriet Moore, who was 90 years old last February. Though her death had been expected for some time it was none the less regretted when it came. The funeral will be held at the residence on Fuller street this afternoon and will be conducted by Rev. H. P. Jones, pastor of St. James A. M. E. Church, of which the deceased was a member. Mrs. Moore had been a resident of St. Paul for more than fifteen years and was very highly respected by all who knew her.

Mrs. McCullough cordially invites all the old patrons of the Autumn Leaf Dancing School to the November Soiree and Class Party to be given at Dearborn Hall, 45 Fourth street south, Minneapolis, Monday evening, Nov. 14th. This will be a particularly interesting affair. Mrs. McCullough will put on all the dances she has successfully introduced since she started, including the "Vivian" and the "Charleston Special." Admission 35 cents. Wraps checked free.

Card of Thanks.
The members of Gopher Lodge No. 105, I. B. P. O. E. W., are highly elated over the financial as well as the social success of their entertainment, held at Hawatha Temple on Nov. 10th. It was the best ever given. The lodge has given in many ways, and the success was due in no small measure to the earnest work of the members of the lodge and their friends. The members of Ames Lodge, Minneapolis, took part with a vim heretofore unknown and helped very materially and at the regular meeting of Gopher Lodge Thursday night a rising vote of thanks was tendered to them, also a committee was appointed to visit the Ames Lodge and convey the information of the vote of thanks was also tendered to Owen Howell, Master of Social Sessions and Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements of the entertainment Nov. 1, through whose indefatigable push and energy it was made so successful. The committee, composed of J. E. Coville, $122.35 with considerable outstanding and collectable. And the committee and the lodge tenders thanks to the public generally for its generous support.

Gopher Lodge 105.
The Y. P. E. L. and D. Society. The organizers of the Young Peoples' Ethical Literary and Debating Society, Messrs. W. J. Utley and A. J. Wilmore, wish to state to the public through the columns of THE APPEAL that their organization is absolutely NON-SECTARIAN and that all young people of good moral character and literary inclination are eligible for membership, and that the general public is hereby cordially invited to attend the meetings of the society which are held every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The place of meeting will be given each week through THE APPEAL and other sources.

The membership initiation fee is 25 cents and monthly dues 10 cents.
A. J. Wilmore, President.
W. J. Utley, Sergeant-at-Arms.

"THE COZY CORNER GIRLS."
Next week's attraction at the Star Theater will be the big burlesque of the burlesque field, the famous "Cozy Corner Girls," regarding in which the management claim to present the classic program of its kind, opening with the one act musical burlesque of song, merriment and comedy entitled "Room Number 6," followed by a series of ten notch vaudeville numbers, including the favorite Gorman comedy and star, Rich. W. Craig and Billy Spencer. Yale and Orloff, MacRae and Levering, Mardo and Hunter, Danny Manning, Margaret Newell, Margaret Sheridan and others, beauties of stage and screen.

The closing burlesque, "The Broken Brothers at Atlantic City" is said to be the most dazzling production ever attempted by a burlesque organization in its entirety. The performance may be termed a quick action of laughter, song and fun, of the vintage kind and there is always cause for laughter throughout the low and varied program. "The Cozy Corner Girls" has proved to be one of the real record breakers of the season, which may be accepted as convincing that it is the sort of a performance the general public appreciate.
