The May Musical Festival by the Cosmopolitan Quartet assisted by one of the best local talent under the auspices of St. James A. M. E. Sunday school at St. James church Friday evening of last week, was a veritable musical treat, which deserved to have been enjoyed by a larger audience than was present. But what the audience lacked in numbers was made up by the cordial reception given to the excellent numbers rendered by the performers included: Messdames Addie Crawford Minor, Mattie Campbell, Lagunina Williams, Hattie Hall, Bessie Miller; Misses Gladys Wright, Bertha Lewis; C. D. Jackson, Landon Jackson, C. H. Miller and J. H. Hickman, Jr. How could it be otherwise than artistic.

Some of the people to whom THE APPEAL is as regularly sent as it is issued—that is every Saturday—act as though they are under neither legal nor moral obligation to pay for it; when, as a matter of fact, they are under both. There is no law compelling any one to receive THE APPEAL, but there is law to compel any one to pay for it who receives it, upon the principle that if one must pay for anything he receives. Ordinarily a paper discontinued does not pay any amount that may be due and unpaid, and the publisher has the right to continue to send his paper until whatever may be due for it is fully paid; then an order to discontinue must be obeyed. It is hoped that every one who reads this, that is indebted to the paper, will bring or send to the office the amount due. Every one who receives THE APPEAL is expected to pay for it.

The annual Thanksgiving services of Mars Lodge No. 2202, and Household of Ruth No. 555, at Pilgrim Baptist church last Sunday afternoon was one of the best ever held by the order in this city. McDonald; scripture reading, Chaplain J. H. Dillingham; Anthem, Morning Choir; responsive reading led by P. M. V. P.; W. T. Francis, N. G.; Anthem, Morning Choir; Memorial exercises, C. H. Miller and S. E. Hall; hymn, "Blest be the Tie That Binds"; Thanksgiving Sermon, Rev. E. H. McDonald; solo, "Lord My God, Why Hast Thou Forsaken," J. H. Hickman Jr.; Thanksgiving Offering; Closing Ode; Benediction. The members of the Order marched to and from the church, escorted by the Twin City Military Band and the parade made a very fine appearance. The Thanksgiving offering of something over $30 was raised and Mr. F. D. Parker on behalf of the order presented to Rev. McDonald $100 and Mr. B. C. Archer presented $100 to the church. Rev. McDonald's sermon was very fine, as it developed that he had been a member of the order and could speak with authority.
