That misfortunes seldom come singly, was very terribly illustrated last Tuesday night. Mrs. Sabra Hilyard, 125 E. Ninth, who keeps a rooming house, as every one knows, has been a cripple for years, though able to conduct her business quite successfully. Recently she was compelled to take to her bed, her limbs having suddenly given out. To add to her misfortunes, on last Tuesday night, about 12 o'clock, a fire broke out in her house and she was overcome by the smoke, but assistance arriving she was revived. The fire was easily extinguished and did very little damage.

THE APPEAL had a very pleasant call from Mr. W. T. Johnson, who was in the city this week, having been called here by the death of his mother, Mrs. Sarah A. Adkerson. Mr. Johnson was formerly a resident of St. Paul, but for the past fifteen years has resided in Chicago. He is vice president of the famous Appleton Club of that city, and has accumulated considerable residence property. Just as he was leaving for St. Paul on his sad mission, he was presented a large magnolia wreath as a tribute of respect to his mother by the train crew of the "Pioneer Limited," C. M. & St. P. railway, viz.: C. S. Torrance, S. F. Mills, P. Locke, John Matthews, W. Carey and Peter Clark. Mr. Johnson was the guest of his brother, Mr. Moses A. Johnson, during his stay. He left for his home yesterday.

Mr. Joseph Elsing, president of the Golden Rule Co., who has endeared himself to people of St. Paul by his magnificent liberality toward the Crispus Attucks Home, is entitled the credit of another act of personal kindness. About a year ago he took old Mr. Lee from the Home and gave him employment around his Summit Ave. residence, and he says he was a most efficient workman. A couple of weeks ago he discovered that the old man had had one of his toes amputated before coming to work for him, and it seemed the wound had not completely healed. So he at once sent him to the hospital, where he is receiving the best treatment possible, and is setting from 12:00 m. to 3:00 p. m. Supper from 5:00 to 8:00 p. m. All regular meals 25 cts. All home cooking. Tel. T. S. 2718.

A quiet little wedding was solemnized last Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock, the high contracting parties being Mr. James Weldon and Miss Beatrice Coston of Montreal. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of St. James' A. M. E. church, by Rev. H. P. Jones.

Mr. J. A. Henderson, vice chancellor of John H. Hayes Lodge No. 6, K. P., who is now employed at Hotel Spaulding, Duluth, spent a few days in the city with his family. He left Wednesday, accompanied by Messrs. Arthur Botts and J. Glover, who will also take positions at the Spaulding.

HOLMES & HALLOWELL CO. Seven Corners Phone 401

TO WHOM THIS MAY CONCERN.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 8, 1912.

I have been informed by the tenants in the place on Farrington avenue, that a Mr. Brown had been there and informed them that he (Brown) had been appointed guardian for the children and they were warned not to pay any rent to me or my agent, except their mother and father, and one claimed that Mr. Brown was appointed guardian by Mr. Strong. Who ever appointed the other is immaterial to me.

I wish to state there is no guardian appointed, but if there is one needed, I am perfectly willing to suggest one, but under no circumstances will I suggest either of the two above mentioned, as I understand Mr. Brown, the self-appointed guardian, proposed to shape the moral destiny and his agent, I have informed the tenants that unless they receive a personal instruction from Mrs. Minor, who to pay the rent to, they should pay it to the former agent, and there is no one that has any say, or has any jurisdiction whatever over the children or their property, except their mother and father.

I wish all parties concerned would take warning and govern themselves accordingly.

Respectfully yours, R. C. MINOR, 471 Central Av.

TO WHOM THIS MAY CONCERN.

Under the terms of a written agreement, signed by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Minor, Monday, February 5th, in the office of Attorney Stan J. Donnelly, Mr. Minor's attorney, Mr. Minor deeded to his four children, Robert, Clinton, Leahmay and Walter, the property, 320, 324 and 326 Farrington avenue. Mr. Minor consented to allow Mrs. Minor custody and care of the children, and the revenue from rent on property for the care and keeping of Mrs. Minor and the children, and to maintain the property. Mrs. Minor waives all rights for any claim against Mr. Minor or any property which he now possesses or hereafter may possess.

MRS. SARAH A. ADKERSON.

A Devoted Mother Gone to Her Eternity.

The many friends of Mrs. Sarah A. Adkerson, late of 1152 Sherburne avenue, were shocked to hear of her death last Monday, which occurred at the home of her son, Mr. Moses A. Johnson, of 479 Thomas street.

While she had been sick several months, her relatives did not realize that the end was so near.

Mrs. Adkerson was born in Murfreesboro, Tenn., Feb. 15, 1843. She moved to St. Paul with her husband and family in October, 1888, and has resided here ever since.

She was formerly a member of St. James A. M. E. church, but some time ago joined the Seventh Day Adventists, where she remained until her death. She was a consistent Christian, devoted wife and loving mother.

She leaves a husband, two sons, Moses A. Johnson of this city, and W. T. Johnson, of Chicago; two daughters, Mesdames Nettie Cunningham, of Minneapolis, and Mattie R. Hicks, of St. Paul; thirteen grand children, two great grand children and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

Her funeral services were held at the residence of her son, Mr. Moses A. Johnson, 479 Thomas street, on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The funeral was largely attended. Rev. Kuehl, her pastor, officiating. There was an abundance of beautiful floral tributes.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. Samuel Hatcher, John R. Lawrence, George B. Lowe, Wm. M. Turner, Henry Johnson and Lincoln Overalls. Interment at Oakland cemetery.

May she rest in peace.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fairfax of Louisville, Ky., the guests of Mrs. Matthew Johnson.

Sixty-Three Degrees Below Zero.

The people of the Twin Cities who have been bemoaning their fate because they have had to live in the frigid temperature as low as 32 degrees below zero this winter, will feel a little less like complaining when they read this—perhaps.

THE APPEAL is just in receipt of a letter from a former Minneapolisite, Dr. George W. Nelson now a resident of Dawson City, Y. T., bearing date of Jan. 14, in which he states: "We have just ended a week of sixty-three degrees below zero."

Now, will you quit talking about the weather here being cold?

"THE GOOSE GIRL."

The Next Attraction at the Grand Opera House.

Hold MacGrath's well known romance, "The Goose Girl," adapted by Geo. D. Baker, is to be the current attraction at the Grand for the week starting with a matinee next Sunday, and including a special matinee Lincoln's birthday.

This delightful story has been cleverly handled for the stage by Mr. Baker, in his dramatization he has succeeded in conveying to the boards, the romantic atmosphere, the superb characters, the scintillating dialogue and the delightful scenes and situations so ably constructed by Mr. MacGrath.

The management of "The Goose Girl" company, in offering this play to theatergoers, have borne in mind the necessity of surroundings. In this respect, they have endeavored to cast the play as near like the types and characters created by Mr. MacGrath. That they have succeeded in their efforts has been attested by the praise of the public and critics wherever the play has been witnessed. In furthering their scheme, they offer a scenic production unrivaled as to elaborateness by any dramatic organization on tour. Play, cast and production are said to be more than ordinary, which augurs well for the forthcoming engagement at the Grand.

Oregon Angler's Luck.

The most remarkable fishing story brought to this city for some time comes through the reliable authority of Ski Meek, a Coburg angler, who asserts he caught five doublets. That is, with several hooks on his line, he caught two fish at once five times. All were trout and hooked within a rather short space of time.

They were caught in the McKenzie river near Coburg. He used a six-foot leader with two flies and a baited spoon hook.—Springfield correspondence Portland Oregonian.

Splinter Off the Coronation Chair.

Dean Buckland when at Westminster used to tell a curious story of a brown paper parcel which he received one day by post. After many wrappings had been unfolded he found a small black splinter of oak about an inch and a half long. The writer of the unsigned note accompanying the parcel said that when he was a boy, many years before, he had shipped the splinter off the coronation chair. As age advanced, his conscience grew troublesome, and he asked the dean to be kind enough to restore the splinter to its place.—Pall Mall Gazette.
