THE N. N. E. CONGRESS

IN ITS THIRD ANNUAL SESSION CONVENES IN ST. PAUL.

The meeting most successful in the History of the Congress from every point of view. Members delighted with Twin Cities.

The third annual session of the Negro National Educational Congress was held in St. Paul from July 15 to 19, inclusive and has passed into history.

Despite the knocks both from within and without the city, it proved to be everything else than what its opposers declared it to be.

The opposition caused the attendance to fall to come up to the expectation of its promoters and supporters, but those who were in attendance proved to be very fine representatives of the brainiest and most eloquent men and women of the race.

And while a few of the well known leaders, of thought and action, did not grace the occasion with their presence or lend it their aid and support those who were here, proved, to all who heard them, that there are others who are just as worthy of consideration.

There were over one hundred delegates present and among them were: Rev. John J. Smallwood, Rev. R. H. Bowling, Prof. J. S. Lee, Editor P. B. Young and Dr. C. S. Morris of Virginia; Mrs. Julia Embry, Colorado; C. J. Walker, Indiana; Atty. W. H. Harrison, Oklahoma; J. Silas Harris, and H. K. Graham, Missouri; Rev. J. C. Taylor, Ohio; Prof. A. W. Nicholson, New Jersey; Rev. Jas. Mason, Rev. W. H. Gray, Illinois and others who stand for something in the communities in which they live.

The APPEAL will make no attempt to give a detailed account of the proceedings of the Congress as a committee has been appointed to prepare a synopsis for publication by the American Press Association which will duly appear.

Three sessions of the Congress were held daily at the Old Capitol and all were well attended and full of interest.

There were numerous social courtesies extended to the delegates and visitors but the principal social function was the reception and entertainment held at the Auditorium on Tuesday evening.

There were about 500 present on that occasion and the scene with all the boxes filled with handsomely gowned ladies and gallant gentlemen and hundreds in the parquet and balconies was a scene that was inspiring in the extreme.

The audience was late arriving and the program which was very fine in every particular was not completed until nearly midnight yet the audience was good natured and the program was so enjoyable that the people did not get very nervous.

The program was as follows: J. Silas Harris, Presiding. Overture.....McCullough Orchestra Introduction.....Dr. A. H. Leiland Piano Solo—Concert Etude Op. 36 E. A. McDowell.....Miss Alberta Bell Welcome "St. Paul".....Mayor H. P. Keller Response.....Dr. W. J. Thompkins Violin and Piano.....3d Air Varié by Bellini, C. Danclo, Op. 89 Misses Edna M. Shull and Marjorie E. Jeffrey. Welcome "Minnesota".....Gov. A. O. Eberhart Response.....Rev. John J. Smallwood Response.....Atty. W. H. Harrison Solo—"Even Bravest Heart May Fall"—Faust-Gounod.....Mr. John H. Hickman, Jr. Piano Solo—"Valse Chromatique".....Goddard Solo, selected.....Miss N. Burden Reading "The Raven" Poem.....Richard M. Harrison Soprano Solo—"Farewell Ye Hills"—from Maids of Orleans.....Tschaikowsk Mme. Addie Crawford-Minor. Reading.....Mme. Hilda Hamilton Kennedy

Thursday afternoon the Congress held its afternoon session at Minnehaha Park, Minneapolis at an outing arranged by the people of the Flour City. It was a very enjoyable affair. The following program was carried out: Rev. C. H. Thomas of Madison Wis., acting as master of ceremonies; Invocation.....Rev. J. S. Strong Address.....Prof. H. L. McCrooney Address.....Miss Julia C. Frazier Singing....."My Country tis of thee" Address.....Rev. W. Harlee Address.....Dr. J. J. Smallwood Address.....Dr. J. C. Baldwin Address.....R. F. Gross Address.....C. Thomas Singing....."Nearer My God to Thee" Lunch was served to the delegates by the ladies.

In the evening a symposium and reception was held at Assembly Hall, court house with Charles Summer Smith presiding. Song—America.....Led by Rev. J. C. Taylor, Toledo, O. Invocation.....Dr. W. H. Harrison Pastor Bethesda Baptist Church. Welcome....."Minnesota".....Hon. A. W. Selover, Pres. Board of Aldermen. Response.....Atty. W. H. Harrison Piano Solo.....W. K. Bowie Graduate of Conservatory of Music, Wichita, Kan. Woman Suffrage.....Mrs. Wm. R. Morris Address.....Dr. Cyrus Northrop Pres. Emeritus University of Minneapolis, introduced by Mr. C. G. P. Flyer. Address—"Education".....Prof. J. J. Smallwood Quartette Melodies.....Billy D. Black's Serenades Address.....Higher Education Prof. W. S. Scarborough, Pres. Wilberforce University. Solo Soprano.....Mme. Addie Crawford Minor, St. Paul. The Northwest Nightingale. Dramatic Reading.....Miss Eva Walker, Minneapolis Address.....Hon. Albert A. Hall, Minneapolis The Races and Universal Humanity. Auld Lang Syne. Benediction.....Rev. M. W. Withers After the exercises the ladies served refreshments to all.

An excellent audience that tested the capacity of the hall was present and the various numbers on the program were warmly received. Minneapolis did herself proud.

Friday most routine work was done in the winding up of the business of the Congress.

Upon invitation of Governor Eberhart the Congress visited the Capitol in a body and gathered in the magnificent reception room of the Governor.

Dr. Charles S. Morris made the address and he out did himself in his impassioned eloquence.

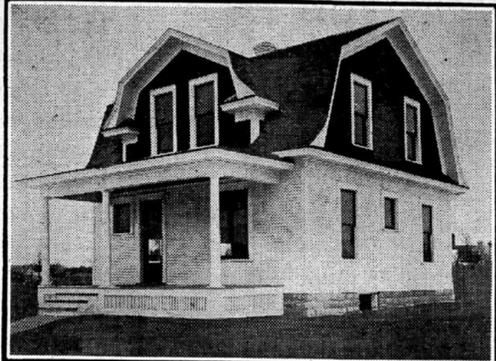

The Governor most fittingly and feelingly responded and then cordially greeted all with a hearty hand shake.

The local committee made its report which was so satisfactory that a rising vote of thanks was extended by the Congress.

The finance committee of the Congress also made its report which was also approved.

The Friday evening session took place after THE APPEAL had gone to press.

It is safe to say that the Congress made a very favorable impression up
