The Washburn-Crosby Flour Company of this city had a booth for the exhibition of its Gold Medal flour at the Emancipation celebration at the Louisville, Ky., Army which was held this week for the benefit of the "Colored Orphans Home." They gave prizes of a barrel, a half barrel, a fourth barrel, and a number of sacks of flour which were given as prizes for cakes made from Gold Medal flour.

A great concert was held in Washington, D. C., on the 16th inst. for the purpose of raising funds to purchase the home of the late S. Coleridge-Taylor, the eminent musical composer, in which Mr. and Mrs. Andrew F. Hilyer, parents of Mr. Gale Hilyer, were moving spirits. The concert was given in the famous Metropolitan A. M. E. church and was both an artistic and a financial success, and was under the auspices of the S. Coleridge-Taylor Choral society of which Mrs. Hilyer was the founder; and she sang the first two parts of Coleridge-Taylor's great work, "Hiawatha." She also read a paper on the life and work of Coleridge-Taylor which was considered so very fine that she has been requested to publish the same. The concert was an immense affair, as well as a great society event. There were eight numbers on the program. The chorus included 34 sopranos, 25 altos, 20 tenors and 17 basses. Prof. John T. Layton was conductor with Miss Mary L. Europe and Mr. R. W. Tibbs at the piano. The principals in the numbers of the program were: Miss Elsie Brown, Miss Lulu V. Childers, Mrs. Wm. A. Weiss, Miss Georgeanna A. Fessler, Mr. Felix F. Weir (a nephew of Prof. Wm. A. Weir of St. Paul), Mrs. Kathryn Seene-Mitchell, Miss M. P. Burdell, Mrs. Mamie E. Hilyer, Dr. Charles Summer Wormley. There were 336 of the most prominent of Washington people in the list of patrons. The net proceeds of the concert was over $300. Minneapolis

PARCELS POST INFORMATION.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 4, 1913. Publisher, THE APPAL.

Although the newspapers from time to time have published information with reference to the parcel post system, in operation since January 1, 1913, it is evident that many people do not fully understand the essential points with reference thereto, and therefore I respectfully request that you publish for the information of your readers, that:

1. Distinctive parcel post stamps must be used on all fourth-class matter, that such matter bearing ordinary stamps will be treated as "held for postage."

2. That parcels will be mailable only at the post office, the branch post offices, or the numbered stations designated by the postmaster, or presented to rural or other carriers duly authorized to receive such matter; that

3. All parcels must bear the return card of the sender, otherwise they will not be accepted for mailing.

4. It will also be understood that parcel post stamps are not valid for payment of postage on matter of May 1st, 2nd and 3rd class, nor can any of said classes be accepted at the parcel post rate of postage.

5. Registration of parcels has been discontinued, but instead parcels are insured against loss in an amount equivalent to its actual value, up to $50.

Respectfully,
O. H. Neegaard,
Supt. of Mails.

HOT TIME FOR DELINQUENTS.

We clip the following from one of our exchanges to warn our delinquent subscribers what a hot time they will have if they fail to pay their newspaper bills. The same fate awaits our slow-paying advertisers:

"An editor who died of starvation was being escorted to Heaven by an angel sent for that purpose. May I just glance in at the other place before we ascend to eternal happiness?"

So they went below and skirmishing around, taking in the sights. It so happened that the angel lost track of the editor and went around Hades hunting him. He found him sitting by an enormous furnace, fanning himself and gazing with rapture upon a crowd of lost souls in the fire. Over the furnace was a sign bearing the words, "Delinquent subscribers."

editor, "I'm not going. This is heaven 'Come,' said the angel, 'we must be going now.' 'You go on,' said the editor to me."
