Mr. W. C. Stieger, the candidate for councilman, has proven in several instances that he's all right. He was in the council two years ago when the committee was trying to get an appropriation for the National Educational Congress and did all in his power to secure it. He is also largely responsible for Mr. O. C. Hall's appointment to the position he now holds as clerk in the county auditor's office. It might be very well to remember these things when making your selections of the six men you wish for councilmen at the primaries March 17.

After considerable unavoidable delay Dr. Geo. W. Nelson has his new and up-to-date drug store, corner of Wabasha and Summit avenue, in proper shape to invite the general public to call. He has everything in the line of drugs and proprietary medicines, all the best cosmetics, including the famous "High Brown" and "High Brown De Luxe Powder" which is especially adapted to brunettes. He has a splendid soda fountain and is prepared to serve all the popular hot and cold drinks. First class candies and confections, best brands of cigars, etc., etc. Tel. Cedar 6190; Tri State 3347.

Well, there was some fun at the big Prize Chattering Supper given at Banks & Watkins, 40 E. Third street, last Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Thaddeus Crump were the entertainers with their excellent repertoire. Of course there was much excitement over the drawing of the ten prizes which were given free. The fortunate ones and their prizes were as follows: Fancy punch set, Mr. and Mrs. E. Craig; gold ring, Gus Erwing; gold cuff buttons, Robert Carroll; set Haviland dishes, Burrell Smith; ivory clock, M. C. Alford; quart "Cedar Brook," B. Brown; bottle champagne, J. Banks; vanity case, J. Scott; silver cigarette case, R. Rouse; vanity case, J. Scott. There will be another big time at the same place next Tuesday night when Chef Seely will serve a chicken craque supper and ten prizes will be given to those who are present. The prizes are absolutely free with no strings to them. Every person attending the supper gets a coupon ticket that gives the bearer a chance to win one of the ten prizes. Don't forget the time and place—Tuesday evening, March 3, at Banks & Watkins, 40 E. Third street, St. Paul. You are invited.

For years he was the managing editor of the Pioneer Press. He is thoroughly equipped with an intimate knowledge of city affairs. He has made an excellent public servant. He solicits and deserves your support.

It will be remembered that one of the actresses at the Orpheum last week was said to be the possessor of a Cinderella-like foot. In fact it was published in the daily papers that she wore a 12 1/2 child's size slipper. And one of her slippers was placed on exhibition in a Robert street shoe store with the announcement that any woman who could wear the slipper would be presented two box seats. Several of the ladies of the city went and put on the slipper and got the tickets. Among the fortunate ones was Mrs. Nellie Francis, wife of Attorney W. T. Francis, who wore the Lilliputian foot gear with ease and was presented tickets for two box seats and Mr. and Mrs. Francis occupied a box last Friday night.

Coleman-Alred.
On last Saturday afternoon at 4:00 a quiet home wedding was solemnized, when Mr. T. B. Coleman of Minneapolis and Mrs. Lottie Alred were wedded in wedlock in the presence of a few intimate friends by Rev. H. P. Jones. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's daughter, Mrs. Oscar G. Davis, 861 Marion street.

After the ceremony congratulations were offered by those present and all partook of the elaborate supper which was served.

The bride was the recipient of several presents as follows:
Five dollars, Princess Ozell Chapter No. 45 O. E. S.
Handsome chocolate set, Ladies of Omega.
Beautiful teapot, Mr. J. H. Pope.
Beautiful Haviland lunch set, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Copen.

Several beautiful and useful presents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Davis.
The wedding cake and German picture, Mrs. Anna Henegie.
All had a delightful time and left wishing the happy couple a long and prosperous life.

GREAT MEETING.

Under Auspices of St. Paul Branch of N. A. C. P. at Plymouth Church.
Last Sunday evening Dr. Shailer Mathews, dean of the divinity department of the Chicago University, delivered an address before the St. Paul Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, at Plymouth Congregational church, cor. Holly ave. and Mackubin street.

There was quite a large audience present comprising representatives of the best people of both races in the Twin Cities.

Introductory remarks were made by Dr. P. P. Womer, pastor of the church. Governor A. O. Eberhart introduced Dr. Mathews, and in so doing incidentally referred to the impression that was made upon him by the able addresses that were made by Attorney W. H. Harrison, Dr. John J. Smallwood and Dr. Charles S. Morris at the National Educational Congress in the Auditorium in 1912, and on the occasion of the visit of the members of the congress at the state capital, which he said still linger and ever shall linger in his memory.

Dr. Mathews spoke on "Abraham Lincoln and Fifty Years After." The burden of his remarks was for a square deal for the Afro-American, and he declared was unquestionably one of the great factors in this country. He described the prevailing disposition to treat him as only a half man. He wound up by saying "He is a man, a real flesh and blood man and he is entitled to the American 'square deal.' See that he receives it."

After the ceremony with Dr. Mathews were Gov. A. O. Eberhart, Dr. George Vincent, president of the State University; Dr. T. Morey, president of Mac-

THE HOUSE WARMING.

At the Manse of Zion Presbyterian Church, Thursday Evening.

One of the most delightful social functions of the week was the "house warming" of the new manse of Zion Presbyterian church, corner of Farthington and St. Anthony avenues, on last Thursday evening. The beautiful manse of six rooms and bath is strictly up-to-date in every particular and is as neat and cozy a home as one would wish to see, hardwood finish, heated by furnace, lighted by electricity.

A large and very representative gathering of citizens graced the occasion and Rev. and Mrs. George Washington Camp did the honors of receiving their many guests with becoming grace and eclat.

Rev. E. H. McDonald acted as master of ceremonies and the following program was furnished: Opening hymn; invocation, Rev. E. H. McDonald; welcome, Mr. J. P. Anderson; instrumental, Prof. W. A. Weir; "Language of the Heart," Rev. H. P. Jones; "Why We Are Here," Rev. A. H. Lealand; "We Bring," Dr. D. M. McCaslin; "Reminiscences," Mr. J. H. Hickman, Sr.; "What We Wish for You," Mr. E. G. H. Hazzard; "The Open Door for Our Friends," Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Camp; "Blessed Be the Tie," everybody.

After the exercises refreshments were served to all and a general inspection of the manse and the new church adjoining was had. Nothing but words of commendation were expressed for the beautiful buildings.

During the evening a special program of music was given by a Glee Club of the Lutheran congregation, which had been furnished by the company, and Mr. Grant Bush, an expert employe of the company, was sent to manage it, and this was not the least of the enjoyable features of the occasion.

The host and hostess were surprised by having a number of beautiful gifts given to them, as follows: Set silver oyster forks, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilson; large bag of sugar, Mr. and Mrs. Ewing, Miss M. Chancellor, Mr. J. F. Houser; water color painting, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sharp; towels, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hood; decorated china fruit bowls, Mr. George H. Hazzard; frame for photo of church and manse, Mr. E. G. B. Lowe; set star cut water glasses, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hunt, Messrs. Sam Johnson, John Busquire; vegetable and canned goods, Mr. and Mrs. George Bell; canned goods, Mrs. Addie Bell; set of Haviland dishes, Messrs. and Mesdames J. Q. Adams, J. H. Charleston, Valdo Turner, B. C. Archer, J. E. Murphy, S. L. Maxwell, H. F. McIntyre, Wm. Tandy, C. E. Jones, O. C. Hall, W. T. Francis, J. H. Sherwood, J. B. Johnson, J. H. Claiborne, J. W. Milton, W. F. Chandler, W. A. Benjamin, D. R. Bonaparte, Messrs. W. A. Weir, E. H. Jones, Lee Averette, Harry Hill, A. H. Tucker, J. H. Duty, M. Graves, H. McDowell, H. Holmese, J. A. Fallagas, S. B. Johnson, J. Lewis.

The affair throughout was very pleasant. A delightful little dancing party was given last Tuesday evening by Miss Carrie Harris at her home, 642 Rondo street. About twenty couples were present. The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated in red, white and blue and cut flowers. After the dancing a delicious and bountiful supper was served. Every one had a good time and Miss Harris was well pleased with the success of the evening.
