DESIRE H. MICHAUD

During two terms of service for the city as Assemblyman, Mr. Michaud has missed but one meeting of the Assembly. At this time he was unavoidably absent from the city. The people should endorse such a record of faithful devotion to the city's business.

Otto Adler, one of the candidates for Councilman of St. Paul, is the proprietor of the cafe in the State Capitol, and for many years has been in the catering business and is well and favorably known by our people who follow waiting for a living, as he has employed them by the score. He has for years been an active member of the Lincoln Republican Club. He believes in giving all men a square deal, without regard to race or nationality. No one will make a mistake in casting a vote for him.

Mr. W. C. Stieger, the candidate for councilman, has proven in several instances that he's all right. He was in the council two years ago when the committee was trying to get an appropriation for the National Educational Congress and did all in his power to secure it. He is also largely responsible for Mr. O. C. Hall's appointment to the position he now holds as clerk in the county auditor's office. It might be very well to remember these things when making your selections of the six men you wish for councilmen at the primaries, March 17.

Brown de Luxe Powder" which is especially adapted to brunettes. He has a splendid soda fountain and is prepared to serve all the popular hot and cold drinks. First class candies and confections, best brands of cigars, etc., etc. Tel. Cedar 6190; Tri State 3347.

Mr. F. O. Pulling, one of the candidates for councilman at the coming primaries, March 17, is the sort of man that would be of some service to the Afro-Americans if elected. He believes in a fair, square deal regardless of the color of a man's skin. Mr. Pulling holds a responsible position in the city engineer's office and whenever an opportunity is afforded he gives work on the streets to Afro-Americans. One day recently a foreman to whom he had sent them, refused to put a couple of men to work just because they were Afro-Americans. They reported to Mr. Pulling and he at once had the prejudiced foreman removed and the two men put to work. This is a fact that can be fully vouched for. Vote for Mr. Pulling as one of your candidates for councilman, sure.

L. B. SCHWARTZ

Candidate for Councilman of the City of St. Paul.

St. Paul, bigger, better, more beautiful, more economical, more efficient, good to do business in. Above all good for men, women and children to live in. This is the idea of the new charter and my platform.

I believe in control of public utilities by the people with an eye towards ownership by the city. I believe in schools as social centers. Schools are city property, supported by the taxpayers, and the taxpayers' money should not be idle half the time. The schools, after school hours, should therefore be social centers, serving adults and children alike.

ORRINGTON C. HALL.

To Honest Afro-American Voters:— In these days when friends are few and needed much, we must care well for those we have.

As clerk in the office of the County Auditor, I represent our race in one of the best positions ever accorded any Afro-American man in St. Paul. The person immediately responsible for the appointment is, of course, Geo. J. Ries, county auditor, but it was an unprejudiced, honest hearted German boy demanding a square deal for every one that attracted Mr. Ries' attention to our people. That individual is now the man W. C. Stieger, alderman of the 12th ward who seeks nomination and election as councilman.

It is to the benefit of all that we elect men to office who are unbiased on the race question. Such men possess a degree of moral courage that may be trusted in other affairs.

We are under obligation to W. C. Stieger. Let us joyfully show our appreciation of him at the polls March 17th.

Will the ladies who read this article please remind the men to vote for W. C. Stieger for councilman?

Thanking my fellow citizens for their confidence and honors, I am, Looking for brighter days,
Orrington C. Hall.
