

MRS. MASON'S MUSICALS.

One of the Most Delightful Social Functions of the Week.

On last Wednesday afternoon the charming home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott J. Mason, 1045 Cross avenue, was the scene of one of the most delightful social functions of the season, in the form of a ladies' musicale.

The program consisted of the following numbers: Piano solo, (a) "Dance Caprice", (b) "Butterfly" both by Greig, Miss Albretha C. Bell; vocal solo, (a) "When the Lilies Bloom" - Buck, (b) selection from "The Honeymoon Trail", Mrs. Wm. M. Smith, Minneapolis; vocal solo, (a) "I Hear a Garden at Eve" - Chadman, (b) "A Thru Romance" - Sadler, Mrs. S. E. Hall; piano solo, (a) "Dance" - Meyer Helmer, (b) "Farewell Alma Mater" - Mabel Harding, Miss Edythella Adams; vocal solo, (a) "In the Garden of My Heart" - Roma, (b) "Mine" - Soloman, Mrs. J. A. Roberts; piano solo, (a) "Elegie in C Sharp" - E. Nollet, (b) "Nocturne" - Chopin, Mrs. J. M. Hutton; vocal solo, "The Rosary" - Nevil, Mrs. John Lewis; piano solo, original composition, "The Toboggan Slide Waltz," Mrs. Thos. H. Lyles; vocal solo, (a) "Yesterday and Today" - Spron, (b) "Birth of Morn" - Leoni, Mrs. Scott J. Mason; reading, "Uncle Moses's Prayer," Mrs. R. J. Jones.

After the program a dainty luncheon was served at the beautifully decorated table in the dining room, consisting of chicken salad, finger rolls, olives, coffee, ice cream, cake, grape juice punch. (The ice cream melted into the form of a large watermelon was a beautiful novelty, from which generous slices were served.)

Those who enjoyed this recheche affair were: Mesdames Jasper Gibbs, E. J. Stewart, Wm. M. Smith, Eleanor Jones, E. H. Roberts, J. H. Burk, Minneapolis; C. M. Jones, J. H. Sherwood, J. Q. Adams, T. H. Lyles, R. J. Jones, O. C. Hall, S. E. Hall, J. T. Quarles, J. A. Roberts, G. W. Willis, W. H. Reynolds, John Lewis, O. D. Charleston, J. M. Hutton, C. D. Jones, Wm. Cannon, R. T. Waters, J. Miss Abretha C. Bell, Edythella B. Adams; Messrs. B. C. Archer and J. Q. Adams.

The ladies were handsomely gowned, apparently a "style show" on a small scale. The men were there merely to prevent it from being an Adamless Eden.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason were very satisfactory host and hostess and the occasion will long be remembered.

BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION.

Is Addressed by Rev. A. H. Lealtad at Its Last Meeting.

An honest earnest effort is being made by the business men among us to better conditions commercially and looking to that end the Colored Men's Business Association has been duly organized and for the past few weeks has met regularly at the Valet Tailoring Company, 154 E. Sixth street, and there are about 35 members enrolled.

The officers are: P. H. Lyles, president; Dr. O. D. Howard and Jos. S. Strong, vice presidents; A. J. Wilmore, secretary; Wm. Gardner, treasurer.

At the meeting held last Monday evening the members of the Association were addressed by Rev. A. H. Lealtad, rector of St. Phillips Episcopal church, who said among other things, "That he felt honored in having the privilege of addressing the body of men representing the commercial and industrial life of the race in St. Paul. While times have changed I warn you, gentlemen, that the fundamental principles of conducting business are the same as they were centuries ago. To you young men just starting in business, I would say be honest with your selves and with your customers. Have confidence in your selves and also in your patrons. Do not think people of your race must deal with you simply because you are colored men. Treat them square and honestly, study their wants and needs in your line of business. Again, have confidence in your ultimate success, persevere, display the bull dog tenacity and you are bound to succeed."

"Dark and trying times are experienced by almost all business men; such periods serve to bring out the real qualities of the man. Demonstrate to your customers your interest in them, strive to serve them to the best of your ability and your interest in them will be more considerable toward you, more in overlooking mistakes which are bound to occur from time to time."

"In conclusion I would say, love your business, take interest in it, let it in fact become a part of yourself and the star of victory is sure to shine forth upon your efforts."

Rev. Lealtad's remarks were listened to with apparent pleasure by the members and frequently warmly applauded.

Mr. P. D. Parker was present and gave a brief but helpful talk for a few moments. He was followed by Mr. J. H. Charleston, after which the meeting adjourned to meet again at same place and hour next Monday evening.
