Quite an interesting program had been planned, but a chain of unavoidable circumstances prevented it from being fully carried out. However, those present had quite an enjoyable evening. There was an abundance of refreshments and dancing was indulged in. Every Tuesday night is "Ladies' Night" and the ladies should take advantage of the opportunity to spend a pleasant evening.

Falls to Recover from an Operation and Passes on to Glory.

The church was crowded with the many friends of the deceased and the floral tributes were very numerous and beautiful.

The sermon was conducted by Rev. H. P. Jones, assisted by Rev. E. H. McDonald, A. H. Lealait and Joseph S. Strong.

Mrs. R. C. Minor sang "Homeland." The Sunday school class of the deceased sang "Shall we meet Beyond the River."

The pall bearers were: Messrs J. W. Kelly, S. L. Ransom, J. C. Archer, R. C. Minor, S. S. Williams, G. H. Miller.

Lyles funeral director, interment at Oakland cemetery.

MATTIE ROSS-HALL

Mrs. Mattie Ross-Hall was born Jan. 22, 1876, at Tusculuma, Ala., and died May 23, 1914, aged 38 years, 4 months, 1 day.

Her parents were Henry and Wass Ross. She is survived by her husband, Orrington C. Hall; her mother, Mrs. Wass Ross; her sisters, Mrs. Carrie Allen, Mrs. Julia Midgett, Mrs. Eitta Talbot.

As the eldest of six unschooled girls when her father died, she finished the school in her home town and without means went to the Agricultural and Mechanical College then at Huntsville now at Normal, Ala., where she worked her way through.

Upon leaving school she became private secretary of Bishop Henry M. Turner, senior bishop of the African M. E. Church, all of the time sacrificing and subsisting upon little more than necessities in order to assist a courageous mother in the support and education of the remainder of the family, which was finally accomplished a few years since.

August 31st, 1901, she became the wife of Orrington C. Hall, to whom she remained the faithful helpmeet until death according to her vows. She lived closely to her ideals which were high, bright and well defined, with absolutely no compromise with any course she did not believe to be righteous.

Her life was a consecrated dedication to uplift, which began at her own home, where she kept the best room for the free use if necessary of any unfortunate. The more needed the more welcome.

While she worked in many uplift movements, it was her firm belief that the levation of the race would be in just proportion to the Christianity of the race; that the first year beginners of the Sunday School was the proper place to commence the work.

She was a conscientious member of the African M. E. Church since early childhood, and died as one of the faith.
