MEMORIAL EXERCISES. For Mattie Ross Hall.

On Sunday afternoon, June 21, at one o'clock, a memorial was held under the auspices of St. James A. M. E. Sunday School for the late Mrs. Mattie Ross Hall. The deceased was the wife of the superintendent, Mr. O. C. Hall, and was a teacher and officer in the Primary Department.

A very fitting program was rendered by friends of the deceased, each representing a club or institution of which she was a member.

Mrs. Florence Duckitt, representing the Charles Jacobs Mite Missionary Society read a short paper on Mattie Ross Hall as secretary of that society. The Little Miss Ruth Owens spoke very beautifully, "The Great Beyond."

Mrs. Addie Belesen, superintendent of the Primary, told of the deceased's work in that department.

Mrs. Ethel Howard Maxwell represented the Sunday School Board and recalled much of Mattie Hall's helpful work.

Mrs. Sadie Johnson read a set of resolutions prepared for the occasion by Mrs. Hattie Pettis Cage and herself.

Miss Edith Lenard spoke of the great value of the deceased to the Y. W. C. A.

The exercises were concluded by remarks from Rev. H. P. Jones, the subject of which was, "Hard Work" and the singing of "Sweet Bye and Bye" by the Sunday School.

The Assistant Superintendent, Mr. B. C. Archer presided.

CAMP HOPE Is the Name They Have Given to Our Only Camp.

"Back to nature" is the slogan several of our St. Paul families have adopted and are practicing the same for the summer. They have six large rain-proof living tents and a large mess tent arranged in a semi-circle on the shore of the pretty bays of Lake Demeriville, one of the chain of the Four Lakes.

With the use of blue flame burners, freless cookers, sanitary couches and other modern conveniences they have contrived to almost eliminate the petty worries common to camp life and are having a glorious time.

After weathering the storm of last Tuesday night without a single serious mishap the campers say the worst has passed. "As dry as a chip" one of them said the next morning (referring, of course, to external condition). "I'd as soon be in one of these tents as in my bedroom at home." This sounds good anyway.

With the reported catches of pickerel, crappies, sunfish, the excellent bathing beach and picturesque woods, a lot of interesting kodak pictures may be expected when the Hope campers return to the city.

The camping party comprises: Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Edwards and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hall and two daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Willis and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cloak, son and daughter; Messrs. E. Chapman, A. V. Hall, J. Robinson, Douglas Green, Geo. Grissom and son.

Several of the men are spending their vacation at the camp, the others come in every morning and go out at night. The camp is two miles from the railroad station, which is a pleasant hike for them, they say. Any way they are having a grand time or at least think they are which is about the same thing.

The place to have your shoe repairing done in the best possible way at the lowest possible price is at JARVIS, 104-106 East Fifth street. He has a complete stock of men's, women's and boys' shoes of the best grades for the money to be found in the city.—Advertisement.

A HALL IN SIGHT. After Years of Waiting and Wrangling and Working.

For many years the people of St. Paul have been talking about building a hall and numerous projects have been started, all of which came to naught.

But, now, it seems that a hall is in sight. For the past four months a committee of sixteen, composed of eight members of Mars Lodge, Odd Fellows and Perfect Ashlar Lodge, Masons, has been meeting weekly and working faithfully on the project and have got their plans so far perfected that they have incorporated themselves into the Union Hall Association for the purpose of erecting a $15,000 building on Aurora between Macubin and Kent streets.

The final meeting for signing the building contracts will be held Monday night and the project will be fully launched. The officers of the Association are: S. E. Hall, president; E. J. Murphy, vice president; C. H. Miller, secretary; R. M. Johnson, treasurer.

The board of directors consists of S. E. Hall, chairman; E. J. Murphy, C. H. Miller, R. M. Johnson, W. T. Francis, Geo. L. Hoage, J. B. Johnson, C. H. Brown, J. H. Dillingham, H. The erection of a hall is now assured.

BIG SHOW ON THE WAY. Pink Lemonade Day is to come in St. Paul Soon.

Fix your mouth for the taste of popcorn and red lemonade. Practice crossing your eyes, so you can see two ways at once. For on Wednesday, July 8th, the Sells-Floto Circus and Buffalo Bill (himself) is to appear in St. Paul for a one day's engagement and—well, you know the rest.

Double the size of previous years is the Sells-Floto circus this year. A tent which will seat fourteen thousand persons, two stages, two great steel wild animal arenas, three rings and aerial devices never before used form a part of the complement of the circus. As for the attractions, they are many.

For instance, there is Zora, bravest woman in the world, and her three herds of performing elephants, Capt. Dutch Recardo, the man who trains lions with a buggy whip; Devlin's famous Zouave Regiment; the Hobson family of riders, the famous Stickneys, the Alpine family, Paulo and Grego, the tight rope walking ponies; Omar, the lion horse, the widely known Rhoda Royal troupe of high school horses, more than a hundred acrobats, aerialists, contortionists and tumblers, forty clowns, and all of them the funniest possible to procure; a whole congress of beautiful, shapely equestriennes and many other features.

Among which is Buffalo Bill himself, who will appear with his retinue of riders, ropers, ranch girls and Indians in a new spectacle entitled "War-path," which shows the progress of civilization from the time of the frontier to the present day.

The parade of the Sells-Floto Circus is to come at 10:30 o'clock the morning of the show and will be led by Buffalo Bill himself. All the cages will be open, the nine bands playing, the Vocals and the Giant Serenading on parade, as well as the five United States government whips.

The price this year? In spite of the fact that everything about the circus has been enlarged, one thing remains the same, the admission, which is still twenty-five cents.

On last Saturday morning, quite unbeknownst to most of the people of St. Paul, Mr. Harold W. Cage and Miss Harriette S. Pettis went to the residence of Rev. E. H. McDonald, at eleven o'clock and informed him they would like very much to be joined in the holy bonds of wedlock. As it is in the line of his profession to unite souls as well as to save them he was nothing loth to grant their request and at once proceeded to permit them to tie a knot with their tongues that they can't undo with their teeth. The ceremony was performed in the presence of Miss Y. A. Loomis, Miss Adina Adams and Mr. Paul Crane who were "hep" to what was going on. After the ceremony the party repaired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Parker, where the newly weds will make their home for the present. A very delicious wedding breakfast was served at 12:30 p. m. by Mrs. Parker for the party. The new mariners on the uncertain sea of matrimony are popular young society people and have the best wishes of a host of friends for a long and happy life.

PROF. WILLIAM PICKENS. The Noted Orator and Race Man Visits the Twin Cities.

St. Paul was favored with the presence of Prof. William Pickens, of Talladega College, Alabama, this week. His fame as an orator and champion of his race is second to none and he very ably sustained his reputation. He arrived in the city Sunday morning, having come here under the auspices of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and at 10:45 delivered an address at Plymouth Congregational church to a large audience. At four o'clock he spoke at Pilgrim Baptist church upon "Fifty Years of Emancipation." The church was crowded, many being present from Minneapolis, and to use the vernacular phrase, he held his audience spell-bound from start to finish, covering a period of one and one-half hours. Lieutenant Burnquist, president of the St. Paul branch of the Association, presided, and Dr. P. W. Womer, pastor of Plymouth Congregational church, introduced the speaker in most eloquent and complimentary terms which he subsequently justified with his mastery address that was listened to with profound attention and was heartily applauded a the close.

Excellent music was furnished by a volunteer choir in which some of the best musical talent of the city was represented.

The invocation was by Rev. H. P. Jones.

In the evening Prof. Pickens spoke on the same subject at Hennepin Ave. Methodist church, Minneapolis, where he was greeted by an immense crowd and interested his hearers very much.

Monday evening he was guest of honor at the meeting of the Social and Literary Society of Pilgrim Baptist church, which met at the residence of Mr. George W. James. He made a very forceful address here. Tuesday evening he left for Chicago, where he spoke before the International Sunday School Association yesterday. During his visit to the city he was the guest of Dr. Valdo Turner.
