THE SHRINER'S BALL

Attracts the Twin Cities' Society People and as Usual Scores a Success. The Eighth Annual Ball of Fezzan Temple No. 26, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, which was given at Union Hall last Wednesday evening, was an unqualified success. There were some 250 present in full dress and they presented a scene of dazzling beauty. Even Oliver Taylor and his gait were in full dress in keeping with the occasion. Imported camel's milk was lavishly dispensed. Music was furnished by Cason Bros.' augmented orchestra.

The success of the affair was due mainly to the infatigable labors of the committee of arrangements comprising: R. M. Johnson, Geo. L. Hoage,

M. L. Barksdale, James Eddings, Clarence H. Roper, Wm. R. Morris, Dr. O. D. Howard, J. E. Murphy, J. H. Sherwood, C. H. Robinson, J. M. Morris, J. W. Cheatham and W. T. Joyce. Minneapolis was splendidly represented.

"THE CRACKERJACKS."

The Attraction at the Star Theatre Next Week.

"The Crackerjacks," a burlesque show extravagant in every detail, with a cast of forty people, including the prettiest array of beauties ever plucked, will be at the Star Theatre all next week starting Sunday matinee, Jan. 2.

While this production bears the same title as in past seasons, still it has a new vehicle and a new cast this season. The title of the new book is "Around Town," in which there is included a corking good vaudeville bill.

BISHOP W. A. QUAYLE

To Speak at Central Presbyterian Church Sunday, Jan. 2, 1916.

THE APPEAL is the recipient of the following invitation which is extended to its readers in the hope that those who feel an interest in the matter will attend.
