SIMPLE

A savings account is simple. No bookkeeping is required—no figuring is necessary to find out how much you have in the bank. The bank book shows exactly what is due.

A saving of $2 each week plus 4% interest added twice a year will in ten years amount to $1,267.11.

STATE SAVINGS BANK 83 East Fourth Street. 1890 1915

THIS SEASON'S CROP OF UNTAMED OATS—

—the boys are busy sowing, and some will soak their overcoats to keep the crop growing. The boys will sow the year around to sound of fife and whistle. Some seed will fall on dry ground, and some will fall in mid-thistles, but rain will fall on every seed, and the growth will be uniform. No need to fear pest and weed in any wild oats farming! I have a friend who in his youth sowed oats as wild as rabbits, till sowing came to be in truth, the strongest of his habits. Now he has bowls of wild-oat meal as an exclusive diet. He doesn't hesitate nor squeal, but swallows it in quiet. He says the oats are somewhat sour, and hard on his digestion. He eats a bushel every hour, and that without a question. When I see youths in beer saloons absorbing kegs of whisky, or acting like two-bit buffoons, so clumsy, loud and frisky, or when I see them throwing dough their dads have earned by sweating, into the fire to see it glow, or wasting it in betting, I always think of my old friend who lives on wild-oats porridge. These younger sowers in the end will eat that self-same forage.

The regular meeting of the So-Lit club was held at the residence of Mrs. and Mrs. J. Q. Adams Thursday evening, with Mrs. Adina Adams as hostess. After the routine business was transacted a nice lunch was served. The club has decided to present a comedy or drama in the near future. Watch and wait for it. It promises to be something worth while.

Rev. and Mrs. E. H. McDonald were tendered a genuine surprise donation party Thursday evening. The party was headed by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jackson, accompanied by about 20 others. They brought all sorts of good things to eat in staple and fancy groceries that were very acceptable. The evening was spent with recitations, music and speeches and all had a joyous, happy time.

FLOWERS—Persons desiring cut flowers, floral designs for funerals, palms, ferns, or potted plants, for weddings or decorations of any kind, for any occasion, will do well to place orders with Geo. W. Bell, who has been appointed as agent for L. L. May & Co. He is prepared to make special rates on all orders sent through him. Prompt delivery at all times. Leave or send orders to Geo. W. Bell, 1776 W. Minnesota street, DuSable-Midway 1657. On large orders a reduction of ten per cent will be allowed.

On last Sunday Mrs. Mary Davis died at University Hospital, Minneapolis, aged 59 years. The remains were brought to St. Paul and the funeral was held at the mortuary chapel of Simpson & Wills, 423 University Ave., last Wednesday afternoon, Rev. T. B. Stovall officiating, assisted by Rev. J. P. Sims. A large number of the friends of the deceased were present and the floral tributes were numerous and very beautiful.

Mrs. Addie C. Minor sang "Face to Face." The deceased was one of the pioneers of St. Paul and was the mother of Mrs. Leona Mason-Giles, of Minneapolis and Wm Landre of Chicago. She was a sister of Mrs. W. T. Johnson of Chicago and Mrs. Cora Patterson of this city. Interment at Oakland.

Mrs. Isabel Grissom died at Bethesda hospital on Saturday, Jan. 8, from a stroke of apoplexy, aged 73 years. The deceased had been a resident of St. Paul for a number of years and was the mother of eleven children, only two of whom survive her, viz.: Mrs. S. E. Hall and Mr. George K. Grissom of this city. Her funeral was held at St. James A. M. church on last Monday afternoon. Rev. B. N. Murrell, by request of the deceased, officiating, assisted by Rev. J. P. Sims. There was a large concourse of friends and tributes of respect and there were many beautiful floral tributes. Mrs. Cleat Oliver sang, "Swing Low Sweet Chariot" as a solo. Simpson and Wills funeral directors. Interment at Oakland.

The prettiest party of the New Year, and perhaps, the prettiest ever given by the So-Lit club, was the Fourth Anniversary Party, that elite society organization of the Twin Cities at Union Hall, Friday evening of last week. The costumes of the ladies were simply "scrumptious," nearly every one of them was made especially for that occasion and never was there a more airy, fairy scene presented to the view than when the torchbearers' divertissements were at their height. There were upward of 150 guests present representing the creme de la creme of the Twin Cities' social set.

The gentlemen in their up-to-the-minute "evening clothes" made a handsome background for the superb gowns of the ladies. The happy spirits prevailed, the guests seemingly vying with each other in making the occasion "a thing of beauty and a joy for ever" and right royally they succeeded. The present officers of the club are: Zeph Neal, president, Minneapolis; Miss Adina Adams, vice president, St. Paul; Miss Eleanor Barksdale, secretary, St. Paul; Mr. Donald Brady, treasurer, Minneapolis.

The Carnival and Cabaret that was advertised to be given in the "4A" Gymnasium at Union Hall last Tuesday night was all right in conception and attracted quite a large crowd of lovers of athletics, including a number of ladies. Mr. F. D. McCracken was master of ceremonies; Mr. Theodore Collier, time keeper; Mr. J. Homer Goins, referee. The exercises began with a boxing bout by Chauncey Miller and Champ Clark who went two rounds. Then there was another bout between Arthur White and Arthur Tucker of two rounds. They were only exhibitions of the manly art of self defense and were not "prize fights" but some over officious person telephoned police headquarters that a prize fight was being pulled off, and the chief-of-police ordered the boys to close up. They however had a wrestling match between George Manning and A. Barksdale, which was won in two falls by Manning. A splendid exhibition of bag punching was given by Robert Hopkins, after which the crowd reluctantly left the hall. The "4A's" have been invited by the Ice Carnival Committee to take part in the carnival and participate in the athletic program.

THIS EXPLAINS ITSELF. 435 Jay St., St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 11, 1916. To the Officers and Members of the Athletic Association, St. Paul, Minn. Gentlemen:

We wish to extend to your body a very cordial invitation to attend our Sunday evening services Jan. 23, 1916, on which occasion we would be glad to speak a word of encouragement to you in your work of development of the physical and intellectual side of life. If you have no special subject on which you would desire to have me speak, I would be glad to speak on "Our Need of An Athletic Association for Our Young People." If you prefer to have a short program in connection with the services we would leave that to your body. Trusting that this may meet your approval and that I may hear from you at your earliest, I am, Yours for success, J. P. Sims, Pastor.

The association has gratefully accepted the invitation and will arrange an interesting program. The public is cordially invited. The exercises will begin at 8:15 p. m.

"CITY SPORTS." The Attraction at the Star Theatre Next Week.

The largest and most elaborately staged production of the season comes to the Star Theatre next week. The ever popular "City Sports" will be presented by those progressive managers, Jacobs & Jermon. This is by far the most ambitious effort ever attempted in this field of amusement. More than 70 performers have been called into requisition and large sums of money have been expended for scenery, costumes and other appurtenances until the show stands second to no production of its kind on the road. Those ever popular comedians Harry Koler and Arthur Mayer head the list of funmakers, ably assisted by Taylor & Le Compe, Virginia Tyson, Maybelle Maylinn, and Clark & Turner, and a chorus of beauties.
