There is an old but true adage, "if you want a good servant wait on yourself." The same principle should be applied to THE APPEAL. If you want to see something special in it SEE THAT IT GETS TO THE PUBLISHER YOURSELF. Don't put off 'til tomorrow what should be done today. DO IT NOW.

Mrs. C. James and Mrs. H. Williams attended the funeral of Mrs. Emily Grey in Minneapolis on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Grey was one of the pioneer settlers of Minneapolis, having come with her husband to the northwest from Pennsylvania over sixty years ago. Her husband and four children preceded her in the sleep that knows no waking many years ago. Mrs. Grey was a pioneer member of the Swedenborgian church of Minneapolis from which place the funeral services were held.

That last Tuesday was the third wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Camp was not forgotten by the members and friends of Zion Presbyterian church, so a number of them, headed by Mrs. R. E. Pearson met at the manse and presented Mrs. Camp a beautiful gold watch and chain. Mr. Toliver also personally presented a set of dining room linen. Quite a pleasing program including addresses by Rev. E. H. McDonald, Mr. Geo. H. Hazzard and Mr. Jose H. Sherwood was presented after which refreshments were served. It was a very pleasant affair.

"BLUE RIBBON BELLES."

The Attraction at the Star Theatre Next Week.

At the Star Theatre, week of Jan. 23, the Blue Ribbon Belles will present "The Washing Stone" and "Panama Frolics" a pretentious musical farce in two acts, with T. Theo. Murphy in a stellar role admirably suited to his style of humor. There is a well defined story which of course is all comedy and Murphy is said to have the greatest opportunity of his enviable career at the highest salaried eccentric comedian in burlesque in this piece for fun making. Chas. Douglas is also in the cast, and a host of other stars, supported by a galaxy of feminine beauty in evidence at all times when they do not interfere with the unfolding of the laughable story of the piece.

THIS EXPLAINS ITSELF.

435 Jay St., St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 11, 1916. To the Officers and Members of the Athletic Association, St. Paul, Minn. Gentlemen:

We wish to extend to your body a very cordial invitation to attend our Sunday evening services Jan. 23, 1916, on which occasion we would be glad to speak a word of encouragement to you in your work of developing the physical and intellectual side of life. If you have no special subject on which you would desire to speak on "Our Need of An Athletic Association for Our Young People." If you prefer to have a short program in connection with the services we would leave that to your body. Trusting that this may meet your approval and that I may hear from you at your earliest, I am, Yours for success, J. P. Sims, Pastor.

The association has gratefully accepted the invitation and will arrange an interesting program. The public is cordially invited. The exercises will begin at 8:15 p. m.

Thats Just What the Candidates for the City Offices Intend to do—Only One Dozen More Days For Filing.

There is one thing about the present system of filing for office that is considered to be commendable and that is, the friends of any man may shy his castor into the ring. The result of this is that the voters have a large field to choose from and can pick such men as pleases them. There are twelve more days in which filings may be made and then the battle royal begins.

JENNIE FREEMAN,

Wrongfully Sent to Prison, is Pardoned by the State Board.

Some time last year one G. W. Anderson, a white man, induced Jennie Freeman of Enid, Okla., to leave her home and accompany him to Alexandria, Minn., where she was supposed to take a position as a domestic in his family, as he stated it. On arriving at Alexandria the girl found that he had no family, but being without funds she concluded to remain on the promise of a weekly wage of $6. Anderson, however, did not treat her right and she decided to return home after four weeks. She endeavored to get her wages from Anderson but he only paid her part so she drew a check and signed his name to it and secured $17, with which she paid her fare home. Anderson invoked the aid of the authorities and the girl was brought back to Alexandria where she was placed on trial for forgery. She pleaded guilty, not having any one to advise and help her, and was sentenced to Stillwater June 25th. Her case was brought to the notice of the State Women's Federation and a committee comprising Mesdames Quitman Hicks, Geo. W. Wills and T. R. Morgan of St. Paul and Mrs. Hilda Kennedy of Minneapolis began work on the case and visited her at their own expense. The facts in the case caused them to believe she should be pardoned and a petition was made out. Last Wednesday the pardon board met at the capitol and the committee of ladies was on hand, they having in the mean while called upon the late Governor Hammond and also the present Governor Burnquist. The board took the case, and though there were 108 petitions, only two were granted and Jennie Freeman's was one of them. Lawyer B. S. Smith of Minneapolis had interested himself somewhat in the case and he was requested to make a plea before the board. He did so Thursday and was successful in obtaining the same. As the case stands it seems that Anderson should have been placed behind the bars instead of the girl, as there are indications that the Mann white slave act has been violated. The Federation committee intend to give the case a thorough investigation.

"THE RACE PROBLEM"

country with the German, the English, the Irish, the Scotch, the French, the Swedish, the Norwegian and many other races of people, and why? It is not because there are not among them paupers, for there are. It is true that among those people in this country there are drunkards, and an idle, indolent worthless class; that they have their criminal class and that they have committed every crime known to the criminal calendar, for their is no crime known to human kind that has not been committed by the white man;—but it is because there is no organized interference with the rights and privileges of those people; no studied restriction of their liberties; no Vardaman, no Tillman, no Thomas Dixon et al, whose great aim in life is to prevent the enjoyment of their equal rights under the laws of this land. No attempt to alter the natural order of things with which they have their crime class and to interfere with the privileges of their natural course. No attempt to restrict their right of passage or to change their channel for selfish purposes. It is the utter disregard of the law of God and man, and the desire to change things where the Negro's rights are involved in this country that creates the Negro Race Problem. The solution of the whole problem involving the white man and the black man is simple justice, a recognition of the fact that the rights of the humblest citizen are as worthy of protection as the highest. Apply this method and the problem will be solved. But whatever may be in store for this nation in the future; whether prosperity or adversity; whether there be foes within or foes without, whether they shall be peace or war, the Negro always will be a loyal and faithful American citizen, and we sincerely hope the day will soon come when we will be treated as such.
