Mrs. C. H. Lucas of 109 East 25th street entertained Mrs. Emma Harris of Omaha at dinner on Tuesday.

The Y. G. B. C.'s are pleased to announce they have a new member in the person of Miss Rieva M. Washington.

Mr. Thomas S. Henderson has returned to the city from Omaha, where he has been teaching dancing for the past few months.

Attorney and Mrs. B. S. Smith were entertained at cards on Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Van Hook, at their beautiful home on Elliot Ave.

You are cordially invited to attend the services at St. Thomas Episcopal church, Sunday school at three o'clock, Evening Prayer at four. Come out, you are as welcome as the flowers in May.

Persons whose pianos need tuning should call on Prof. L. W. Anderson, 2737 11th Ave. South, Phone N. W. South 3755. He is a piano specialist and does tuning and repairing, also voicing and regulating. His motto is: "Satisfaction or no pay." Prices reasonable.

ANNUAL MEETING.

Of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People held its annual meeting in New York on January 3rd, and elected ten directors, the only new one being Bishop Hurst of Baltimore. The Association now has sixty-three branches all over the country, and nearly 10,000 members, and has never been in a better position than it is now. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, Dr. J. E. Spingarn; the Treasurer, Mr. Oswald Garrison Villard; the Secretary, Miss Mary Childs Nerney; and the Director of Publications and Research, Dr. W. E. B. Du Bois, read their annual reports, which will be printed later in The Crisis. Shortly after the annual meeting the Board of Directors met and elected the following officers for the year: Moorfield Storey, President; J. E. Spingarn, Chairman of the Board; Oswald Garrison Villard, Treasurer; Dr. W. E. B. Du Bois, Director of Publications and Research; Vice-Presidents, John Haynes Holmes, Oswald Garrison Villard, John E. Millholland, Archibald H. Grimke, Mary White Ovington, Garnett R. Waller. The resignation of Miss Nerney as Secretary was accepted with regret, and Miss Ovington was appointed Acting Secretary until a permanent successor could be found. With the exception of Miss Nerney all the officers are the same as last year.

READ THIS PLEASE.

EVERY PERSON who receives THE APPEAL knows whether he or she has paid for it or not. EVERY PERSON who receives THE APPEAL is expected to pay for it; and, it is a violation of honesty, honor and law not to do so. THIS APPEAL TO EVERY ONE, WITHOUT EXCEPTION. Are you, reader, honest, honorable and law-abiding? Think about it. There is no law to compel any one to receive a newspaper who does not wish to do so, but there is a law that compels one to pay for a newspaper if it is received. There are many persons who receive THE APPEAL as regularly as it is issued, but who have failed to pay for it. Think about it. Don't stop at thinking about it, either, but kindly come or send to the office and pay what you honestly, honorably, legally owe. There is not one single subscriber on our list who is ACTUALLY UNABLE to pay for the paper if the desire to do so is strong enough. There is no desire or intention to offend any one, but if this article is marked with a blue pencil it is to remind you that YOU owe the THE APPEAL. Please come or send to the office, Court Block, 24 E. 4th street, suite 301-302, third floor, and pay what you owe. Take elevator.

Law of Subscription. Few readers of newspapers fully and clearly understand the law governing subscriptions. Below are the decisions of the United States Supreme Court upon the subject: Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary when subscription expires, are considered as wishing to renew their subscription. If subscribers order a discontinuance of their periodicals the publisher may continue to send them until all dues are paid. If the subscriber continues to take the periodical from the postoffice to which it is directed, or receives it from the carrier, he is responsible until he has settled his bill and ordered the paper discontinued. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher and the papers are sent to the former address the subscriber is held responsible. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it, and the subscriber will be responsible until express notice with payment of all arrearsages is made.
