ADAM J. HOLMES.

Candidate for Nomination for Mayor of St. Paul

MR. VOTER:— You are a taxpayer. I am a taxpayer. You wonder where all the city's funds go and why the tax rate is continually increasing. So do I. I'll be able to tell you without hedging if I'm placed in a position to know. I'm the taxpayers' candidate for mayor. Turn out the "Million Dollar Gang."

PAID ADVERTISEMENT

Prepared by J. Q. Adams, 24 E. Fourth street, St. Paul, Minn., for the candidate named below, for which $1.00 per inch is to be paid.

F. E. BAKER.

Candidate for Renomination as Justice of the Peace.

Justice F. E. Baker, who has grown gray in the service of the people, as Justice of the Peace at large, in St. Paul, is again a candidate for renomination; and, if length of service and experience count for anything his candidacy deserves the careful consideration of the voters on next Tuesday. He is to be voted for all over the city.

PAID ADVERTISEMENT Picha, 387 Goodrich avenue, St. Paul, Prepared by and for Stephen J. for which $1.00 per inch is to be paid.

STEPHEN J. PICHA

Candidate for Nomination for Councilman, St. Paul.

Stephen J. Picha is a native of St. Paul and has lived in this city during the 46 years of his life and has been a taxpayer for more than 26 years. He was employed as clerk and bookkeeper for several years, was deputy clerk of Ramsey County District Court for four years, and since 1899 has been chief deputy in the U. S. Marshal's office. In filing his acceptance as a candidate he declared: "I believe in St. Paul employees, materials and tradesmen, good government, conducted on business-like principles, equitable taxation and a greater St. Paul." Let him be one of the councilmen you vote for.

Mr. Adam J. Holmes, candidate for nomination for Mayor of St. Paul, shows his desire to secure the support of the colored voters of the city by using their organ to announce his candidacy. He is the senior member of the firm, Holmes & Halliwell, now located at corner Seventh and St. Peter streets and in his capacity as a coal dealer he is well and favorably known to hundreds of our citizens, who doubtless will be pleased to further his political ambitions and at the same time secure a good business administration for the city.

PAID ADVERTISEMENT

Prepared by J. Q. Adams, 24 E. Fourth street, St. Paul, Minn., and for the candidate named below, for which $5.00 has been paid.

EMANUEL JOHNSON.

Candidate for Re-Election as Constable for St. Paul.

Emanuel Johnson, whose pleasing countenance is shown above, has served as constable for years with credit to himself and the satisfaction of the public generally. Believing "one good term deserves another" he comes before the voters for re-election and solicits their support, promising the same faithful and impartial service as he has hitherto furnished. He is to be voted for all over the city.

The Women's Christian Industrial Society met at the home of Mrs. Geo. W. Camp, 377 Farrington Ave. Among the ladies present were: Mesdames D. S. McCaslin, C. P. Noes, Norton, Miss Norton. Mrs. F. S. Ashe read a report covering the entire life of the society. After the business was transacted light refreshments were served.

PAID ADVERTISEMENT

Prepared by and issued for Leonard A. Dobner, 833 Lincoln avenue, St. Paul, for which $5.00 has been paid.

LEONARD A. DOBNER
Candidate for Justice of the Peace
AT LARGE

Leonard A. Dobner, candidate for Justice of the Peace at large, is a young man, a son of L. J. Dobner, Esq., the well and favorably known lawyer with offices in the Globe Building. Mr. Dobner, Sr., is a fine, fair square gentleman and Mr. Dobner, Jr., is a "chip of the old block." You will make no mistake in voting for him.

Dr. Val Do Turner has just installed a "Dynelectron" in his office. This is a little cabinet that supplies atomic force for physicians. It is one of the latest equipments and will do almost anything from removing a wart to the taking of an x-ray picture.

If patrons of THE APPEAL wish to know whom to vote for at the primaries on next Tuesday, they should carefully scan these pages. The men who show they want your votes by putting their cuts in this paper are the ones who should be favored. Look 'em over.

BE ON THE LOOKOUT FOR THE BIG CHARITY ENTERTAINMENT AT UNION HALL APRIL 25TH. THIS IS TO BE A GREAT SOCIETY EVENT. WATCH FOR THE LIST OF PATRONS AND PATRONESSES. THIS IS JUST TO LET YOU KNOW IT'S COMING.

On last Sunday, Mrs. S. L. Maxwell, 1559 Roblyn St., celebrated the birthday of her mother, Mrs. O. D. Howard, by having a family dinner at which the guests were: Dr. and Mrs. O. D. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McIntyre, Miss Olive Howard. A very pleasant time was had.

N. T. MEARS FOR COUNCIL

BUSINESS—NOT POLITICS FOR ST. PAUL

N. T. Mears is a candidate for nomination for Councilman of St. Paul. He is a member of the firm of Buckbee, Mears Co., engravers and designers, 355 Minnesota street. He says if elected he will stand for: "Fair tax, money judiciously expended, liberal policy toward our schools, law enforcement." Those planks are good enough for any platform, don't you think? Then put an (X) opposite his name at the primaries March 14.

Prepared and issued by J. F. Gorman, 202 Ethel St. in behalf of the candidate herein named for which $1.00 per inch is to be paid.

JOHN CAULFIELD.

Candidate for Nomination for Councilman, St. Paul.

John Caulfield, candidate for Councilman of St. Paul, was born in Castine, Maine, May 8, 1856; he came to St. Paul in 1888 and has lived here ever since. In 1872 he entered the employ of the St. Paul Water Works Co. and served the company both when privately and publicly owned for forty-three years.

He is a candidate for Councilman on his record as a citizen and an official. He solicits your support.

Any of the readers of THE APPEAL who contemplate installing a Tri-State telephone should call for Mr. L. D. Brower, who has special charge of such matters and who is authorized to make contracts and install phones. Call Contract Department, No. 12. He will take care of you all right.

There is an old but true adage, "If you want a good servant wait on yourself." The same principle should be applied to THE APPEAL. If you want to see something special in it SEE THAT IT GETS TO THE PUBLISHER YOURSELF. Don't put off 'til tomorrow what should be done today. DO IT NOW.

SAFE DEPOSIT AND STORAGE VAULTS—We invite your inspection. It costs little to place your valuable papers, cash, securities and other valuables in absolute safety. Boxes in our vaults can be had from $4 per year up. Store your boxes, trunks, etc., with us. NORTHWESTERN TRUST CO., Jackson between Fourth and Fifth streets.

It will be remembered that on Sept. 21, 1915, Mr. J. F. Coquire was run down by an automobile belonging to Laboritch & Sons and severely injured. Mr. Coquire sued for $10,250 damages and his case was tried by a jury in Judge Brill's court last week and a verdict was returned for $1,133. Lawyer John I. Levin appeared for Coquire.

Fine Flowers for Friends—Persons desiring flowers, ferns, palms or potted plants will confer a favor by ordering them through, George W. Bell, 1776 W. Minnehaha street, agent for L. L. May Co., florists, who will furnish, on short notice and at lowest prices, anything you wish in fine, fresh flowers. Just phone, Midway 1657.

PAID ADVERTISEMENT

Prepared by and for Phil C. Justus, 815 New York Life Bldg., for which $1.00 per inch is to be paid.

PHIL C. JUSTUS

Candidate for Nomination for Councilman, St. Paul.

Phil C. Justus, who is a candidate for one of the councilmanic positions, was born, reared and educated in St. Paul and has lived here all his life to the present time. Since he began the struggle for advancement for himself he has been in business, held public offices and taken an active part in other ways in efforts to build up the city and promote its welfare.

Mr. Justus has had experience in building, real estate transactions, financial operations, matters of taxation and general improvement work. He is a man who can aid judiciously in the management of city affairs and help to run the city government in an economical and efficient way without hampering the growth of the city.

PAID ADVERTISEMENT.

Prepared by J. Q. Adams, 24 E. Fourth street, St. Paul, in behalf of the candidate here named, for which $1.00 per inch is to be paid.

HENRY P. KANE.

Candidate for Justice of the Peace at Large.

Henry P. Kane scarcely needs any introduction, as he is so generally well known as the real estate dealer through whom many of the patrons of THE APPEAL have secured their homes. He is a candidate for councilman and would doubtless fill the office with perfect satisfaction to his constituents. If you are of the same opinion vote for him next Tuesday. He is a fair, square man who believes in treating all alike without regard to race or creed.

The Commissary Cafe located at 753 Mississippi street has been reopened under a new management and is now prepared to serve the public good home cooked meals at moderate prices. Mr. Mack Lewis, the new proprietor is an expert chef and recently came from Cogswell, N. D. where he was chef in the City Cafe, the leading cafe of that progressive city. He believes he can please the St. Paul public as well as he did in Cogswell, and all he asks is to be given a trial. Mrs. G. A. Roberts also of Cogswell will have charge of the dining room. Your patronage is solicited.

The SWELLEST FUNCTION that is to be is the CHARITY ENTERTAINMENT to be given under the management of Mrs. J. E. Cloak, at Union Hall for the benefit of Crispus Attucks Home, Tuesday evening, April 25. There is a list of 150 patrons and patronesses for this affair which spells success from the beginning. An entertaining program will be presented. There will be an exhibition contest drill between a corps of 16 ladies and 16 gentlemen in full dress costume, under the command of Capt. Chas. H. Miller. There will also be a ticket selling contest that will astonish the natives. The object for which this entertainment is given should arouse our generosity but then too, all you who go will get their money's worth.

PAID ADVERTISEMENT 634 St. Peter street, St. Paul, for Prepared by and for Jesse M. Ricks, which $1.00 per inch is to be paid.

JESSE M. RICKS

Candidate for Nomination for Mayor of St. Paul.

Mr. Jesse M. Ricks, one of the candidates for the nomination for Mayor, solicits the support and votes of the patrons of this paper and in doing so he deems it but right that they should know who he is and what he stands for. In the first place he has been a working man since he arrived at the age where he was able to do a man's work. He was employed in the railroad service for a number of years in various capacities as a fireman, an engineer and also in a position where he had occasion to employ others and it was not his habit or custom to discriminate as to a man's race, religion or other civil condition. Qualifications and ability to perform the duties required was what he looked for only.

His platform is short and concise. He calls for efficiency, economy and honesty in the administration of the city affairs, the strict observance of the civil service rules and an equal opportunity to all. He is 36 years of age and has had good business experience which fits him for the office he is seeking. Under the above conditions he respectfully solicits your support in the coming campaign.

The Cosmopolitan Buffet and Cafe, 40 E. Third street has made some change in the proprietorship and the firm will hereafter be known as L. E. Turpin & Co. The head of the firm Mr. Lee E. Turpin is a well-known citizen who has a host of friends and there is every reason to believe that this already popular place where the wants of the inner man are catered to will be more popular than ever. Old and new patrons cordially invited.

PAID ADVERTISEMENT

Prepared by and issued for Emil G. Hoppe, 647 Thomas street, for which $1.00 per inch has been paid.

EMIL G. HOPPE.

Candidate for Nomination as Councilman.

Emil G. Hoppe for more than 17 years has been in the meat business, of which he has made a great success, and is now located at 742 Edmund street. He has been married 12 years and is a tax payer. A vote for him will mean not only the support of your neighbor, but it will also mean that you endorse a man who would give the same careful and conscientious attention to the City's business that he has to his own.

PAID ADVERTISEMENT Fourth street, St. Paul, in behalf of the candidate here named, for which Prepared by J. Q. Adams, 24 E. $1.00 per inch is to be paid.
