RESENTMENT NEEDED.

After having been granted Pullman tickets from Montgomery, Alabama to Savannah, Georgia, the wife of Major Robert R. Moton, recently installed as principal of Tuskegee Institute, and Blanton Moton, his brother, were ejected from the car by "two policemen and some of the best citizens" of Troy, Ala. Although they had paid Pullman fares and were interstate passengers, both were forced to ride in the jimcrow car.

The wires tell us that when Major Moton was informed of the matter, he condoned it saying that he "respected the traditions of the South and had no resentment against the people who committed the outrage."

THE APPEAL has no hesitancy in saying that if Major Moton is quoted correctly and feels that way that he is unfitted for the presidency of an institution which is designed to fit colored youth for life. Manhood should be the basis of all training.

What more is needed to make a man resentful than an attack on his wife? A being who would not defend his wife against every foe is unworthy to be called a man. Even among the lower animals the males willingly give up their lives in defense of their mates.

The present unhappy state of the colored people in the United States is largely due to the servile tactics of the so-called leaders who have been

THE SIN OF SILENCE

To sin by silence when we should protest makes cowards out of men. The human race has climbed on protest. Had no voice been raised against injustice, ignorance and lust, the inquisition yet would serve the law, and guillotines decide our least disputes. The few who dare must speak and speak again to right the wrongs of many.—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

not only too cowardly to defend themselves when attacked but have actually advised submission to great wrongs.

Major Moton is in no sense a leader of the colored people, but the fact that he is at the head of Tuskegee gives him influence and he is doing the colored people a great wrong when he fails to resent any wrongs. He was picked for his job by white people who are not looking for the real welfare of the country but for their own selfish ends.

If the trustees of Tuskegee really mean to serve the colored people they should ask for the resignation of Principal Moton and put in a man who will resent attacks on the rights of the race.

Manhood is the basis of all real progress.

BRANDEIS TAKES HIS SEAT.

Louis D. Brandeis, the first man of the Hebrew faith to be made a justice of the Supreme Court of the United States has taken his seat.

The ceremonies lifting the new justice from among the ranks of attorneys to a seat on the first court of the nation were precisely those by which his predecessors of the last generation were likewise elevated.

Chief Justice White privately administered the oath of allegiance to country and later when Mr. Brandeis' commission had been read the clerk administered the judicial oath, taken by judges to do equal justice to rich and poor.

Being one of an oppressed and persecuted people it may be that Justice Brandeis will be on the right side in cases involving the rights of colored citizens, but this is by no means certain until a test has been made.

Some of the worst enemies of the colored people are Jews. Many of the advocates of the proscriptive laws of the South are descendants of parents who lived in the ghettos of Europe and one man in his anxiety to be called a "great philanthropist" is giving thousands of dollars to establish Jimcrow Y. M. C. A.'s in order to make himself popular with the white people and sell his wares.

WOULD ABOLISH THE HYPHEN.

Universal service in military training camps as an aid toward Americanizing the immigrant has been suggested by G. Bernard Anderson, Swedish vice-consul at Chicago. Here is what Mr. Anderson says:

"I think immigrants will get more of the American spirit by serving for some weeks side by side with born Americans than by being lectured or instructed. It would bring them together in a common movement.

"I do not really favor the holding of meetings in which the difference between American born citizens and naturalized citizens is emphasized. In fact, I feel that we ought to get rid of the hyphen in America at once and for all time. Any meeting in which it is a part of the program calls attention to it. I do not really favor any reference to the term Swedish-American. I think every man who came from Sweden ought to forget the hyphen. It is true that those who come from Sweden have many tender recollections of the old country and also that they are among the quickest to adopt American ways fully and completely. For the latter reason I should like to see the Swedish part of the term dropped. I think it would be dropped quickly, too, were it not for some men who try to make political capital out of it by playing to the so-called 'hyphenated' vote.

"Foreigners in America should be quietly made Americans through educational method, by patriotic concerts in the parks and patriotic meetings on occasions of national moment. The group meetings should be discouraged."

Mr. Anderson is right. People who come here and become citizens ought to drop the hyphen and become Americans in fact. And if this is true how much more important is it that people who are born in the United States should reject any proposals to set them apart in groups for any reason or purpose whatsoever.

The colored people are citizens fortified by ten generations of residence and they should shun any schemes which segregate them in any way. Such plans, no matter how alluring, they may seem are un-American, dangerous and damnable.

Samuel P. Thrasher, superintendent of the famous "Committee of Fifteen" of Chicago, knows something about vice as he has studied the question for many years, and what he said in a recent address is illuminating. "Most of the girls in resorts enter voluntarily—they are not dragged into them." "White slavery is about 90 per cent bunk." Then he assailed the theory that low wages to working girls is the principal cause of their downfall. "There are so many reasons given for the social evil that there isn't any," said Mr. Thrasher.

The $600,000 raised in Chicago for the relief of the Jewish sufferers in the European war was contributed by the Jews themselves. The Christians did not give one per cent of the money. The Christian bankers who signed the appeal did not give any money. William Randolph Hearst, whose newspapers probably caused the lynching of Leo Frank in Georgia, gave $1,000, but Bill will get that back in a single day from his Jewish advertisers.

The gavel which was used by Chairman Hilles, to call the Republican national convention to order was made by John Kobler of Monmouth, Ill., from a block of wood taken from a tree planted by Abraham Lincoln in Springfield. Several years ago the relic was presented by Former Secretary of State J. H. Rose to George C. Rankin of Monmouth, who brought the gavel to Chicago.

The District of Columbia, where the citizens vote only on delegates to national conventions, gets no seats in the Republican convention. The national committee voted to throw out all the contestants for the two delegations. Crooked methods have been in vogue in the District for years, and this time the national committee put down its foot.

There already are more than 2,000 marines in Haiti and Santo Domingo. American Minister Russell and Admiral Caperton have been given broad instructions for dealing with the situation in Santo Domingo, and the American forces are being distributed with a view to establishment of a policing system similar to that inaugurated in Haiti.

Recently Senator Vardaman of Mississippi made a speech in Washington lauding Jeff Davis, the Confederacy, etc. "The strength of America is sustained by the morality and intellectuality of its men and women," said he. But Vardaman's state contributes very little of either.

Dr. Ng Poon Chew, formerly a consul in the Chinese service and editor of the first Chinese newspaper in America, says China has too many W. J. Bryans. He says the great need of his country is to inoculate a fighting spirit into its younger generation.

When Jim Vardaman of Mississippi was elected U. S. Senator he promised his constituents that he would have the Fifteenth amendment repealed, but somehow he has not been able to deliver the goods.

The United States will hold Santo Domingo indefinitely. This is the answer of the government to the requests of leaders in Santo Domingo that troops be withdrawn.

Peoples' Candidate for Railroad and Warehouse Commissioner on the Republican ticket at the primaries June 19th, 1916.

Crookston, Minn., May 21, 1916. Editor of THE APPEAL, St. Paul, Minn.

Dear Sir:

I came to Crookston about twelve years ago, and one of the first men I got acquainted with was Elias Steenerson, who is a candidate for Railroad and Warehouse Commissioner on the Republican ticket at the primaries on June nineteenth.

I am a man of many years and long experience, and for these twelve years I have lived in Crookston, I have worked for him off and on, and have dealt with him in a business way. He is an able and upright man; we have become fast friends. He is a kind-hearted and accommodating man, a friend of the colored people, whom I hope will show their appreciation by giving him their votes for the office he aspires, and which I know he is well qualified to fill.

Very truly yours,
Wm. Denham.

A time like this demands Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands; Men whom the lust of office does not kill; Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy; Men who possess opinions and a will; Men who have honor—men who will not lie; Men who can stand before a demagogue And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking!
