The annual Union Sunday School picnic at Minnehaha Park was held last Wednesday and it is said to have been the largest ever held. It was as usual very pleasant and enjoyable for young and old. A pleasing feature was an address by Mrs. Booker T. Washington.

Miss Geraldine Hodges, who has been in the city about a month the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McCoy, left last Sunday evening for her home in Chicago, after having a very delightful time. She was the recipient of many social courtesies during her stay, and left with regret.

TAKE NOTICE—The Daylight Boat Excursion which was arranged for by Corinthian Temple, 132 S. M. T., for Wednesday, July 19, has been postponed until Thursday, Aug. 3, owing to the fact that the Union Sunday School picnic at Minnehaha occurs on that day. Public will govern itself accordingly.

Clark's Dining Car Lunch Room, formerly on St. Anthony avenue near Kent, has been moved around to 549 Rondo street near Kent, where the same excellent service that made the old place so popular with the people is still maintained. If you are hungry at any time call at Clark's, 549 Rondo street.

Mrs. W. T. Francis and Miss Alberta Bell will leave about the first of August for an extended Eastern trip. Mrs. Francis is honorary president of the Minnesota Federation and is a delegate to the National in Baltimore, and Miss Bell, our accomplished musician, will have a place of prominence on the program.

Misses Beulah Porter and Katie Sears of Indianapolis, Ind., are the guests of Mrs. Fannie Sears and her sister, Miss Rheta Dodd, at their home, 919 Margaret street. Miss Porter has visited St. Paul before and has many friends here. She is a cousin of Mr. Benjamin Sears and Miss Katie Sears is his sister.

Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, 392 Rice street, left the city Thursday for an extended trip south. She will stop in Chicago for a few days with friends. She will spend ten days with her brother, Mr. Ed. Downs, of Kansas City, Mo., thence to Shreveport, La., where she will be the guest for two weeks or more of her sister, Mrs. Amy Lee Moore.

If you wish a quick lunch of toothsome home-cooked food at reasonable prices go to J. H. Thurston's NEW GRILL ROOM, in the rear of Steele's Century Barber Shop and Pool Parlor, 30 East Fourth street. Daily luncheon 11 a. m. to 3 p. m., 15 cents. Short orders, cold meats, sandwiches, pies, etc., at all hours. You are invited to call.

Mrs. Booker T. Washington, Tuskegee, Alabama, spent Wednesday in the city the guest of Attorney and Mrs. W. T. Francis. Mrs. Washington attended the Union picnic of the Sunday schools of the Twin Cities and delivered a short address to a large and interested audience. She left Thursday morning to fill engagements in Chicago and other eastern points.

Mme. L. A. Porter-Henderson has finished her class in hair dressing, facial massage, manicuring, scalp treatment, shampooing and hair manufacturing and has issued diplomas to her graduates. She will reopen her class Oct. 15, 1916. Her prices are reasonable, diplomas issued when class is finished. For further information call Dale 420 or write 978 St. Anthony avenue.

Misses Beatrice Green and Grace Wills, who are summering at their parents' cottage at Lake Chisago, accompanied by Mr. Walter Wills of Cleveland, were the guests of Miss Lucille Elliott for several days. She also, on Friday evening of last week, entertained in honor of Mr. Harold Green of Winnipeg, Can. Now Miss Elliott is visiting the young ladies at Chicago Lake.

Mr. Arthur C. Holt, of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Holt, former residents of St. Paul, both of whom died here in 1896, was in the city last week for a few days, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dillingham and Mr. R. C. Minor. Mr. Holt is happily married and contemplates returning to St. Paul in a few weeks to permanently reside. He returned to Chicago Sunday evening.

Everybody that can do so should be present next Monday evening at the Memorial, to be held in honor of the heroes of the 10th Cavalry, who were killed in Mexico, to be held at the Old Capitol building at 8 o'clock sharp. Gov. Burnquist will preside. Hon. F. B. Kellogg and others will speak. The new Waiters and Porters' Club band of Minneapolis will furnish the music. You go and take your friends.

All persons who wish to have a good time for a little money are invited to the Lawn Fete Champagne, to be given at the residence of Mrs. A. C. Majors, corner of Farrington and Rondo streets, under the auspices of the Willing Workers club of Memorial Baptist church, on next Thursday evening, July 27th. There will be refreshments, games, etc. galore. Mrs. J. Oliver and Mrs. E. M. Hill, committee.

Mrs. V. D. Turner and Miss Clara Chicago, leaving there for the popular summer resort near Harper's Ferry. On the 6th of August they go to Baltimore to attend the National Federation of Women's clubs of which Mrs. Turner is a delegate. They will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William McCord there, after which they will spend ten days with Mrs. Eula Ross Gray at Arundel on the Bay.

Two motors took Mrs. Booker T. Washington and party to the picnic at Minnehaha Falls on Wednesday, Mrs. Washington, Mrs. F. L. McGhee, Mrs. Lulu Howard, Mrs. W. Burton and Mrs. Francis during in the Francis car; Mrs. Dana Durant, daughter of Mrs. Mary Bennett, former teacher at Tuskegee, Mrs. Eddy of the University of Minnesota and Mrs. C. Lowe, founder of a school for colored girls at Nashville, Tenn., thirty years ago, occupying the other car.

The "Commissary Cafe" at 763 Mississippi street, which has been in "in-occuous desuetude" for some time, is again open to the public with A. E. Buckner as proprietor. The place has been thoroughly overhauled, rearranged and redecorated, and now has a private dining room and a lunch counter and is better than ever prepared to care for the hungry public. Open from 6:00 a. m. to 12:00 p. m. First class a la carte service at all hours. Regular dinner from 11:30 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. Tel. Cedar 8730. Public cordially invited.

Owing to falling health, Dr. Geo. W. Nelson, druggist, cor. Wabasha and Summit, has disposed of his interest in the drug store to the NEW-BERT DRUG CO., by which the business will be conducted in the future. The management of the new firm cordially invites the continuance of all old patrons and hopes by prompt, efficient and courteous service to gain many new customers. If you need anything in the line of drugs, medicines, etc., etc., you are invited to call. Phone orders delivered. Phones: Cedar 6190, Tri-State 26147.

Household of Ruth 553, G. U. O. of O. F., held a meeting on last Monday evening to install the recently elected officers for the ensuing six months. The installation was conducted by P. M. N. G., Mrs. Martha Wilson, as follows: Mrs. Lorena Hickman, N. G.; Mrs. Birdie High, R. N. G.; Mrs. Ida Broyles, M. N. G.; Mrs. Aggie Stevens, P. M. N. G.; Miss Alverta Phillips, W. C.; Mrs. Della Williams, W. S.; Mrs. Alice Franklin, W. N.; Miss Jessie Beard, R. S. S.; Miss Theola Ridley, L. S. S.; Mrs. Leila Harris, L. J. S.; Miss Anna Starks, R. J. S.

Mrs. T. H. Lyles, honorary president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs and state superintendent of the colored W. C. T. U. work was a delegate to the Prohibition convention held at the Auditorium, and in attendance at every session. Mrs. Lyles was invited to become a member of the Congressional Union for Women's Suffrage and accepted the courtesy, considering this to be one of the greater means of the downfall of the liquor traffic. Mrs. Lyles is always for anything that is for the betterment of her race.

HON. CHARLES E. HUGHES.
Republican Candidate for President to Speak in Twin Cities Aug. 9.

Hon. Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for President, will speak in the Twin Cities on the evening of Aug. 9th. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Republican State Committee. Republicans generally are interesting themselves in the meetings, and a special effort will be made to make them a success. The Minnesota speeches will be among the first to be delivered by Mr. Hughes, and for that reason a great deal of interest will attach.

WELCOME HALL.

Ground for Which Was Broken with Appropriate Ceremonies Last Friday. On Friday of last week ground was broken for what will be known as Welcome Hall, corner of Farrington and St. Anthony avenues, with quite a large number present. Mrs. C. P. Noyes wielded a shovel and Mr. Stuyvesant a pick. It will cost $10,000.

The structure, which will be a community home, will be completed by October 15.

It will be three stories high and of stucco construction, containing a gymnasium, swimming pool, reading rooms and a dormitory for men.

The hall will be in charge of Zion Presbyterian church. Rev. George W. Camp, the pastor, was largely instrumental in obtaining the funds necessary for the construction of the building. Charles M. Andrist, secretary to Governor Burnquist; L. C. Hodgson, secretary to Mayor Irvin; Dr. James Wallace of Macalester college, and Rev. L. B. Ellerson, of Bible university, Charlotte, N. C., were among the speakers. Rev. M. W. Withers of Minneapolis and Rev. A. H. Leal of St. Paul represented the Ministers' Association of the Twin Cities.
