SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1916.

LET'S GO TO THE STATE FAIR
GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

Mr. Peavey Johnson returned on Thursday from his trip to Detroit, Toledo and Chicago.

Mrs. Addie Howard of Rondo street gave a luncheon on last Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Gertrude Howard. Places were laid for fourteen.

The subject of Rev. J. P. Sims' sermon at St. James' A. M. E. church tomorrow morning is "The Pure in Heart"; in the evening, "The Marching of the Mighty King." Public cordially invited.

Mr. J. D. Keeler, Past Grand Master, F. and A. M., of Iowa, and Mr. Paul Scott of Mason City, Iowa, accompanied by their wives, motored to St. Paul Wednesday to attend the fair. They were guests of Mrs. Marjorie Owens of St. Anthony avenue. They returned home Thursday evening.

DIED—Wm. Johnson, beloved husband of Natalin Johnson, at City hospital, Thursday, September 7, aged 41 years. Funeral services will be held from the residence, 373 Jay St., Saturday, September 9, at 2:30 p. m., Rev. J. P. Sims officiating, Lyles funeral director, interment at Forest cemetery.

Mrs. J. Q. Adams of St. Anthony avenue on Thursday evening entertained at supper in honor of Mrs. J. B. French and Miss Vivian Harsh of Chicago, and Miss Gertrude Howard. Covers were laid for eight. Later in the evening a number of the young folks were entertained at dancing. A general good time was had.

FOR RENT or lease the Home Shop and Banquet Hall, 598 W. Central avenue. Stock and fixtures for sale. Apply to C. M. Tibbs.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Stepp, formerly of Duluth, have moved to St. Paul and are domiciled with Mr. Stepp's sister-in-law, Mrs. Fannie Bennett, 892 W. Central avenue. He will at once go to work making arrangements to take the pictures for the coming movie, "The Modern Minnehaha," which is creating quite a furore in the Twin Cities.

The interest in the contest to decide who will be the leading lady in the photo-play, "The Modern Minnehaha," is growing warmer, and it bids fair to get very warm if the sales of papers and coupons continues to increase as they have this week. Look out for surprises, as the friends of some of the contestants are securing votes and holding them back for the final rush at the close.

Miss Leatia Hudson of 1069 Hatch street entertained last Wednesday afternoon sixteen young ladies at a whist party in honor of Miss Fay Shucks, Miss Hazel Gray of Topeka, Kan., Miss Marguerite Black, Miss Cleopatra Frierson, Miss Addie Kastor of Chicago. Miss Hazel Gray won first prize, Miss Addie Kastor won second and Miss Jessie Beard got the booby. The young ladies had a very delightful time.

Mrs. E. W. Lindsay, 918 Woodbridge street, entertained at cards on last Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Geo. Thorburn and Mrs. J. B. French of Chicago. Four tables were played. The first prize was won by Mrs. G. Harvey; second by Mrs. Q. Hicks; the booby went to Mrs. W. C. Hood. Guest prizes were presented to the guests of honor. Dainty refreshments were served and the function proved to be very enjoyable.

The "Commissary Cafe" at 753 Mississippi street, which has been in "in-occuous desuetude" for some time, is again open to the public with A. E. Buckner as proprietor. The place has been thoroughly renovated, rearranged and redecorated, and now has a private dining room and a lunch counter and is better than ever prepared to care for the hungry public. Open from 6:00 a. m. to 12:00 p. m. First class a la carte service at all hours. Regular dinner from 11:30 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. Tel. Cedar 8700. Public cordially invited.

Owing to falling health, Dr. Geo. W. Nelson, druggist, cor. Wabasha and Summit, has disposed of his interest in the drug store to the NEW-BERT DRUG CO., by which the business will be conducted in the future. The management of the new firm cordially invites the continuance of all old patrons and hopes by prompt, efficient and courteous service to gain many new customers. If you need anything in the line of drugs, medicines, etc., etc., you are invited to call. Phone orders delivered. Phones: Cedar 6190, Tri-State 26147.

The BEE HIVE, corner of Rondo and Arundel streets, which has been closed for a few days, has been reopened with a new stock and is better than ever. Mr. L. L. Alexander, the manager, says all he wants is for the people to call and he will convince them that the Bee Hive can't be surpassed for quality, low prices and service in staple and fancy groceries, vegetables, fruits, confectionery, etc. There is also a lunch room in connection. Call and be convinced.

Mrs. Joseph E. Johnson of St. Anthony avenue gave a ladies' afternoon whist party Friday of last week to forty guests. Seven tables were played. Mrs. Maud Price, of Minneapolis, won first prize; Mrs. C. W. Wigington took second prize, and Miss Emma Archer was awarded the booby. During the afternoon Prof. W. A. Weil entertained the guests with some selections of classical and sentimental music. There was also a short program after the game, including: A description by Mrs. Val D. Turner of her recent Eastern trip; Mrs. Emma Archer and Miss May Williams gave piano selections; Mrs. Hattie Loomis-Oliver sang, Misses Adina Adams and Gertrude James assisted at serving punch and other refreshments. The affair was highly enjoyable.

SOMETHING NEW.

Bread Consumers.

The Purity Baking Company and Sanitary Bread Company have consolidated under the new name of FLOUR STATE BAKING COMPANY and announce that owing to the high cost of bread ingredients the retail price has been advanced from five to six cents on T'SER BREAD, MRS. OGRADY'S, MOTHER'S and PURITY BREAD beginning Monday, Sept. 4. The prices for the ten cent sizes remains the same for 20-ounce loaves.

"PACEMAKERS."

The Attraction at the Star Theatre Next Week.

Patrons of burlesque may always feel assured of a good, rollicking burlesque show when a Herk-Kelly and Damsel attraction comes along. The "Pacemakers," one of their most popular attractions, will be at the Star theatre for one week, with daily matinees, commencing Sunday, Sept. 10. The "Pacemakers" provides real comedy situations and snappy, tuneful song hits. The scenery and costumes are bright and elaborate and display good taste and judgment in their selection. The company embraces Frances Parr, Lillian Smalley, Crawford and Montrose, Frank Damsel, Manny King, Jack (Mickey) McCabe, Jack Pearl and Harold Whalen in addition to La Bergere, undoubtedly the greatest sensation of the season, who is an added attraction with the show.

MOVING PICTURES
 WHO WILL BE THE LEADING STAR IN THE PHOTO PLAY.

"The Modern Minnehaha" to be Composed of Members of the Race Living in the Twin Cities—Vote for Your Favorite.

A short time ago Mr. Thaddens Stepp, manager and director of THE STEPP MOVING PICTURE SPECIALTIES at Duluth was in St. Paul and put on a moving picture show at Pilgrim Baptist Church that was very successful in every way.

He was so imbued with the idea that a photo play with members of the race as the leading characters would make a big hit in the Twin Cities, that the following letter is the result:

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 10, 1916.
 Mr. J. Q. Adams
 St. Paul, Minn.
 Dear Sir:

While in St. Paul and Minneapolis, recently I was impressed strongly with the idea, that the Twin Cities, should afford a rousing photo drama, acted by members of the race of the two cities. Now it is absolutely necessary for us to act quickly in this 20th century time, and decide what we are going to do. I have made up my mind that St. Paul and Minneapolis, are the gate-ways to this great and historical Northwest, and there is enough of culture and refinement among the people to make such a photo play, a great success.

I wanted to see you and have a general talk over the matter, but my time was so taken up while in your city, hence this letter. I hope you will be favorably impressed with my proposition, and lend me your hearty cooperation in laying the matter before the readers of THE APPEAL. I am already arranging a scenario or having it written especially for the Twin Cities, entitled, "The Modern Minnehaha."

Now the question arises who is to be "Minnie" this must be decided by popular vote, the young lady receiving the highest number of votes will be the leading lady, in this play, these votes will be secured of you, and forwarded to me here, 623 Fifth Ave., East, Duluth, Minn., to be in my hands no later than Wednesday morning of each week, that I may count same, and return candidate's name, and the number of votes each receives so that I can report result to you for publication same week.

This film will be exhibited in the Twin Cities so that every one will have a chance to see themselves as others see them, and will also be placed on the exchange circuit to be exhibited East, South and West.

Of course there is to be a number of people in the cast, should there be a tie vote, I reserve the right to cast the deciding vote, the others will be used in the cast also, according to the number of votes each receives.

Yours truly,
 T. W. STEPP.

Acting upon the suggestion of Mr. Stepp THE APPEAL has decided to give the people a chance to get into the movies, as follows:

Carefully cut out the coupon that you will find in each copy of THE APPEAL. Write plainly the name of your choice and her address and forward to Mr. Stepp or votes may be sent to this office.

Each coupon counts for five votes. Extra copies of THE APPEAL may be obtained at the office, 302 Court Block for three cents each, or coupons already cut out may be obtained at the same price. No votes counted not on THE APPEAL coupons.

The lady receiving the largest number of votes will be the leading lady in the photo play.

The others voted for will be given parts in the play, if possible, according to votes each receive.

N. B. To get into this contest all you need to do is to send in your name and address on a coupon.
