In the account of the whist party given by Mrs. J. E. Johnson, published last week it should have stated that an original piano solo and song, "Lost After All," was rendered by the author Mrs. T. H. Lyles and there was also a number by the inimitable dialect reader, Mrs. J. R. Jones. This was, however, inadvertently omitted.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Stepp, formerly of Duluth, have moved to St. Paul and are domiciled with Mr. Stepp's sister-in-law, Mrs. Fannie Bennett, 892 W. Central avenue. He will at once go to work making arrangements to take the pictures for the coming movie, "The Modern Minneha," which is creating quite a furore in the Twin Cities.

SIMPSON & WILLS, beg leave to announce that they have moved their undertaking establishment from University avenue to No. 234 West Third street, four doors west of Seven Corners, where they have more commodious quarters and are better than ever prepared to accommodate those needing their services. Everything new and up-to-date.

The Lyles & Williams barber shop and pool room on St. Anthony avenue is in the midst of quite an extension of thirty feet to the pool room, which will make it possible to put in several more pool tables for the accommodations of their large number of patrons that is constantly growing larger. Watch for the announcement of the grand opening in a few days.

The RESLER ELECTRIC CO., formerly located in the Court Block, has moved to 370 Minnesota street on the ground floor where old and new customers will be welcomed and cared for. This company did the electric wiring in THE APPEAL office and at the editor's home. They are agents for the Alco Electric Washer. Call to see them if you wish anything electrical.

The COSMOPOLITAN CAFE, No. 40 East Third street, up stairs, is now under new management, with L. C. Jackson, manager. They serve first-class meals to order at all hours day and night. They serve the best regular dinner in the city at 25 cents, from 11:30 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. Everything the best the market affords. Service unexcelled. A trial will convince you.

Mme. L. A. Porter-Henderson has finished her class in hair dressing, facial massage, manicuring, scalp treatment, shampooing and hair manufacturing and has issued diplomas to her graduates. She will reopen her class Oct. 15, 1916. Her prices are reasonable. A diploma issued when class is finished. For further information call Dale 2755 or write to 332 N. St. Albans street.

The interest in the contest to decide who will be the leading lady in the photo-play, "The Modern Minneha," is growing warmer, and it bids fair to get very warm if the sales of papers and coupons continues to increase as they have this week. Look out for surprises, as the friends of some of the contestants are securing votes and holding them back for the final rush at the close.

Miss Edythella Belle Adams, who has spent several weeks visiting Detroit, Toledo and Chicago, will return home tomorrow. Last night she and Miss Irene B. Hudin of Chicago were tendered a complimentary dancing party by Mrs. George Cleveland Hall and Mrs. D. Peter French at Phyllis Wheatly Club Rooms 3256 Rhodes avenue which proved to be a fitting climax for her very delightful trip.

The BEE HIVE, corner of Rondo and Arundel streets, which has been closed for a few days, has been reopened with a new stock and is better than ever. Mr. L. L. Alexander, the manager, says all he wants is for the people to call and he will convince them that the Bee Hive can't be surpassed for quality, low prices and service in staple and fancy groceries, vegetables, fruits, confectionery, etc. There is also a lunch room in connection. Call and be convinced.

Listen to this great opportunity just for you. Why not take advantage of this, it is meant for you. The woman that has a trade can make her way through life independently all the time. MOVING PICTURES

WHO WILL BE THE LEADING STAR IN THE PHOTO PLAY.

"The Modern Minneha" to be Composed of Members of the Race Living in the Twin Cities—Vote for Your Favorite.

A short time ago Mr. Thaddeus Stepp, manager and director of THE STEPP MOVING PICTURE SPECIALTIES at Duluth was in St. Paul and put on a moving picture show at Pilgrim Baptist Church that was very successful in every way.

He was so imbued with the idea that a photo play with members of the race as the leading characters would make a big hit in the Twin Cities, that the following letter is the result:

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 10, 1916.
 Mr. J. Q. Adams
 St. Paul, Minn.

Dear Sir:
 While in St. Paul and Minneapolis, recently I was impressed strongly with the idea, that the Twin Cities, should afford a rousing photo drama, acted by members of the race of the two cities. Now it is absolutely necessary for us to act quickly in this 20th century time, and decide what we are going to do. I have made up my mind that St. Paul and Minneapolis, are the gate-ways to this great and historical Northwest, and there is enough culture and refinement among the people to make such a photo play, a great success.

I wanted to see you and have a general talk over the matter, but my time was so taken up while in your city, hence this letter. I hope you will be favorably impressed with my proposition, and lend me your hearty cooperation in laying the matter before the readers of THE APPEAL. I am already arranging a scenario or having it written especially for the Twin Cities, entitled, "The Modern Minneha-ha."

Now the question arises who is to be "Minnie" this must be decided by popular vote, the young lady receiving the highest number of votes will be the leading lady, in this play, these votes will be secured of you, and forwarded to me here, 623 Fifth Ave. East, Duluth, Minn., to be in my hands no later than Wednesday morning of each week, that I may count same, and return candidate's name, and the number of votes each receives so that I can report result to you for publication same week.

This film will be exhibited in the Twin Cities so that every one will have a chance to see themselves as others see them, and will also be placed on the exchange circuit to be exhibited East, South and West.

Of course there is to be a number of people in the cast, should there be a tie vote, I reserve the right to cast the deciding vote, the others will be used in the cast also, according to the number of votes each receives.

Acting upon the suggestion of Mr. Stepp THE APPEAL has decided to give the people a chance to get into the movies, as follows:
 Carefully cut out the coupon that you will find in each copy of THE APPEAL. Write, plainly, the name of your choice and her address and forward to Mr. Stepp or votes may be sent to this office.

Each coupon counts for five votes. Extra copies of THE APPEAL may be obtained at the office, 302 Court Block for three cents each, or coupons already cut out may be obtained at the office. No votes counted not on THE APPEAL coupon.

The lady receiving the largest number of votes will be the leading lady in the photo play.

The others voted for will be given parts in the play, if possible, according to votes each receive.

N. B. To get into this contest all you need to do is to send in your name and address on a coupon.
