calls, come to our soiree for the wind up Good Music and Grand Finale. Good Punch

RECEPTION COMMITTEE
C. H. Miller W. F. T. Chandler W. V. Howard E. C. Walker
M. C. McKnight T. E. Franklin A. V. Hall

TICKETS 50 CENTS

The Social Six club gave a very unique dancing party on Christmas night at Union Hall. Three hundred and fifty guests from the Twin Cities were made welcome by the genial Santa Claus in charge of the Christmas tree.

The place to have your shoe repairing in the best possible way and at the lowest price, is at J. T. ROSE, 106 East Fifth street. He also has a complete stock of men's, women's and boys' shoes of the best grades for the money to be found in the city.

Mr. J. H. Dillingham, 274 Kent st., was one of the three kings at municipal Christmas tree at the Auditorium on last Friday, where 8,000 children from all parts of the city gathered to witness the Christmas exercises staged by the city schools and art institute.

The ladies of the B. L. C. club have decided to lift the lid. They have agreed on an annual evening meeting, at which the husbands of said members will be invited to participate.
The unusual event is set for early in January. Time and place will be mentioned later.

"UTLEY'S PLACE," 311 Wabasha between Third and Fourth streets, has been reopened after undergoing a thorough overhauling, renovating, redecorating, etc. Old and new patrons are invited. Barber Shop, Pool Hall, Lunch Counter, Shoe Shining, Newspapers and Magazines.

Dr. J. M. Henderson, of St. James A. M. E. church has set the good example of beginning his services on time and closing on time which pleases his congregations very much.
But on tomorrow night, services will not begin until nine o'clock and last until the birth of the New Year 1917 is proclaimed.

Mr. Ollie Webster, formerly of St.
Paul, but now residing in Winnipeg, Can., was in the city Wednesday, en route to Columbia, Tenn., to visit his aged mother, Mrs. Sallie Webster, who is ill. On his way home he expects to spend a couple of weeks in St. Paul.
He was the guest of Mr. Woodsey Jemison while in the city.

The Hilyard Orchestra as usual rendered a program at the Hastings Assembly during the Christmas holidays, this being the 16th year that Mr. W. A.
Hilyard has played for those unfortunate people who appreciate and enjoy the sweet music greatly.
Messrs. Seymour, Mousier, Drake and Vivian were with Mr. Hilyard.

FOR RENT—Five rooms and bath, 569 Rondo street, modern except heat. House newly decorated and in good condition. Guaranteed a warm house. Stoves now in may remain during the winter if desired.
Rent $18 per month. Apply on the premises or to J. H. Dillingham, 276 Kent, corner Iglehart street.

Mr. W. J. Utley has made some very noticeable improvements in his barber shop and pool room, 311 Wabasha street. He has added a fine billiard table to the pool parlor, has decorated his shop in white enamel and put in three of Theo. A. Kock's latest improved barber chairs. He also has Mrs. Edna Chapman as manicurist.

THE APPEAL man received several Christmas gifts, but none were more appreciated than the fine ten-pound turkey, that was sent by Rev. Daniel Harding, now residing at Lake City, Minn. Rev. Harding also sent a very pleasing note and says he will be in St. Paul to attend watch meeting at St. James A. M. E. church tomorrow night.

You will notice that a number of the business people of the city really desire the patronage of the readers of THE APPEAL, and have signified their desire by inserting their advertisements in this issue. Show your appreciation of their recognition of your organ by patronizing them in preference to those who do not thus extend an invitation. Patronize your friends.

The ladies of Queen of Sheba Chapter No. 70, O. E. S., are preparing for a ladies' minstrel show and a grand masquerade ball at Union hall on St.
Valentine's day, Wednesday evening, Feb. 14th. Prices for costumes will be given. Admission, 35 cents. This announcement is made quite a long ways ahead, but this is the day of preparation, don't you know. Prepare for this particular pleasure, please.

BANNISTER-HARRIS

MR. JOSEPH HOWARD BANNISTER AND MISS GRACE REID
HARRIS.

Two Souls With but a Single Thought Two Hearts that Beat as One, Join Hands and Hearts and Tie a Knot With Their Tongues They Can't Undo With Their Teeth.

Very shortly after God created man He found that it was not good for him to be alone and immediately proceeded to supply him with an helpmate, and ever since men and women have been following the example of Adam and Eve.

One of the latest couples to set sail upon the uncertain sea of matrimony in this part of the moral vineyard are Mr. Joseph Howard Bannister, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bannister, and Miss Grace Reid Harris, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Harris.

The marriage was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents at Gladstone, Minn., in the presence of a few friends and relatives of the high contracting parties on Thursday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, Rev. E. H. Mc-Donald of Memorial Baptist Church officiating.

The bride's gown was of white net, trimmed in silver, she carried a bou-quet of white roses and lilies of the valley, and wore diamond ornaments.

The bridesmaid was Miss Ruth Harris, a sister of the bride, she wore green taffeta and diamonds and carried pink roses.

The flower girl was little Anita Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.
A. Roberts. She wore white mull and carried Roman hearts and pink roses.
Mr. Houston Jackman was best man, who, as also did the groom, wore full regulation evening costume.

After the ceremony there was a splendid wedding dinner.

In the evening from 8:00 to 12:00 the wedding reception was held at Home Banquet Hall, 598 W. Central Avenue, St. Paul, which proved to be a very pleasing innovation as there was ample room for dancing which was a feature of the occasion.

The reception committee consisted of Mesdames C. H. Miller and Louise Wright; Misses Mattie Murrell and Geraldine Grant.

The wedding presents were received by Mrs. C. M. Tibbs, and displayed in the living room of her residence adjoining the hall.

The reception was quite largely attended, especially by the young people, who made the most of the delightful occasion.

Dainty refreshments were served during the entire evening and when the hour for departure arrived all reluctant repaired to their homes after wishing the newly weds long, prosperous and happy lives. They will be at home after January 1st, 1917, at 395 Thomas street.

The young couple were the recipi-
