Mr. W. J. Utley has made some very noticeable improvements in his barber shop and pool room, 311 Wabasha street. He has added a fine billiard table to the pool parlor, has decorated his shop in white enamel and put in three of Theo. A. Kock's latest improved barber chairs. He also has Mrs. Edna Chapman as manicurist.

Mr. Albert Roach, Park avenue, died early Thursday morning after a few days' illness from pneumonia. Mr. Roach has been in the employ of the Northern Pacific for the past 25 years as janitor. Funeral service will take place Monday afternoon from Simpson & Wills Chapel at 2:30. Mr. Roach leaves a wife and two children.

The RESLER ELECTRIC CO., formerly located in the Court Block, has moved to 370 Minnesota street on the ground floor where old and new customers will be welcomed and cared for. This company did the electric wiring in THE APPEAL office and at the editor's home. They are agents for the Alco Electric Washer. Call to see them if you wish anything electrical.

You will notice that a number of the business people of the city really desire the patronage of the readers of THE APPEAL, and have signified their desire by inserting their advertisements in this issue. Show your appreciation of their recognition of your organ by patronizing them in preference to those who do not thus extend an invitation. Patronize your friends.

The ladies of Queen of Sheba Chapter No. 70, O. E. S., are preparing for a ladies' minstrel show and a grand masquerade ball at Union hall on St. Valentine's day, Wednesday evening, Feb. 14th. Prizes for costumes will be given. Admission, 35 cents. This announcement is made quite a long ways ahead, but this is the day of preparedness, don't you know. Prepare for this particular pleasure, please.

Mrs. J. R. Wilson entertained with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. F. Wilson, a surprise birthday party in honor of Thursday afternoon, Dec. 28, at her residence, 788 St. Anthony Ave. Covers were laid for eight. Those present were Misses Mayme Goins, Eleanor Barkdale, Lucille James, Mildred Plummer and guest, Miss Rodney, of Duluth, Minn. Messdames Donald Brady and Henry Johnson. After luncheon the young ladies enjoyed themselves with singing and dancing.

THIS IS INTENDED FOR YOU

If the well wishers of THE APPEAL, who are subscribers, desire to do a proper act, one that will be highly appreciated, they will send or bring to the office a payment on their subscription account. You, reader know whether you owe or not. THE APPEAL has served you as faithfully as the circumstances would admit during the past year. The bible says "The Laborer is Worthy of His Hire" so be fair and honorable and give us our due. You'll feel better and so will we.

POLITICAL PLUMS.

Plucked From the Pie Counter by Prominent People.

The State Legislature of Minnesota convened on last Tuesday and began its ninety days grind at the making and unmaking of laws.

Of course the appointment to various positions usually given to colored men had been sought by a large number of Barkley's majority of whom were disappointed. The fortunate ones at the State Capitol were: William Williams and George L. Hoage, (re-appointed) executive messengers; Harry Robinson, janitor, Senate; Hamlet B. Rowe, doorkeeper, House; George Lowe, janitor, House; Dr. O. D. Howard, barber. There may be some other appointments later. Mr. Hamlet B. Rowe is a Minneapolis man connected with the Twin City Star.

BILLY WATSON'S U. S. BEAUTIES.

The Attraction at the Star Theater Next Week.

Starting with the matinee tomorrow afternoon, Billy Spencer, the original Grogan, will make his first appearance since the summer of 1916, when he produced a stock burlesque here. The show carries a full complement of stars in Billy Spencer, McCoy & Horton, Dolly Clifford, Doris Claire, May Wagner, Sam Wright, Eye All and a host of other well known entertainers. "Two Old Pools" and "At the Costumers" are two amusement vehicles which are executed by a large and well drilled chorus that can sing and dance. They are gaily bedecked in elaborate costumes, in which the management has almost extravagantly spent the money for them, and the scenic and electrical effects border on the sensational and are the best ever seen with an attraction of this kind.

THE MINOR CONTROVERSY ENDED.

The Minor children controversy, tried before Judge Basile in the Probate Court this week involving their care, custody and control, was brought to a close immediately yesterday at the end of a two days' testimony on the part of Mr. Minor in an effort to show that Mrs. Minor was not a proper person to have control of the children, by the suggestion upon the part of the Judge that some arrangement be made whereby Mrs. Minor would surrender the children without further court proceedings, and she agreed that she would surrender the children to their father, and further her counsel suggested and she agreed, in consideration of one-third interest in the property on Farrington avenue, which the father had given to the children for their support and maintenance, she would make no appearance in the divorce proceedings now pending. Lawyer W. T. Francis represented Mr. Minor and P. D. Godfrey represented Mrs. Minor.

THE BEST OF ALL IS CHARITY. Some Correspondence That Tells Its Own Story.

December 6, 1916. Ballard Fire Proof Storage & Transfer Co., 20 E. 4th St., St. Paul, Minnesota.

Gentlemen: I believe it would be an act of charity and a great help to the Crispus Attucks Home if you could find it convenient to donate your services in the moving of the furniture from their old place on Randolph street to the new location on Collins street. Anything that can be done by you in this behalf will be appreciated by those in charge of the affairs of this institution.

Yours truly, W. T. FRANCIS.

Mr. William T. Francis, 329 American Natl. Bank Bldg., St. Paul, Minnesota.

Dear Sir: Acknowledging receipt of yours of the 6th inst. relative to moving furniture for the orphans from the Crispus Attucks Home to their new location on Collins street.

Am pleased to state that the moving is about finished and that there will be no charge made for this service.

Yours very truly, BALLARD FIRE PROOF STORAGE & TRANSFER CO. By E. W. HARTMAN, Traffic Manager.
