DR. JOHN ROY FRENCH,
 Our Dentist, is Commissioned First Lieutenant in the U. S. Army.

The friends of Dr. J. R. French will doubtless be pleased to learn that he has received his commission from the President of the United States appointing him First Lieutenant in the Dental section of the Officers' Reserve Corps of the Army of the United States and will rank as such from Sept. 10, 1917. His commission will continue in force at the pleasure of the President of the United States for the time being and for a period of five years from date. The office carries with it pay and emoluments amounting to $237.50 per month when he is called to duty but as this is not likely to occur for several weeks his dental patients old and new will still find him doing business at his dental offices 409 Court Block.

It might not be out of place to mention much credit is due Congressman C. C. Van Dyke and Mr. F. D. McCracken who were instrumental in securing this appointment, the first obtained by one of our dentists.

THE COLORED BUSINESS MAN.

It is doubtful whether our people fully realize and appreciate the many difficulties and burdens under which the colored business man labors. He is the first one to be approached for church contributions regardless of where his membership may be; he is the first one seen when soliciting advertising for entertainment programs; he is the first one thought of when tickets are to be sold for entertainments; he is the first one that is approached in the selling of tickets for church and other organizations, dinners, etc. In fact, in all cases where it requires the raising of funds in the support of our institutions the colored business man is the first to be solicited and is never overlooked.

When you are in need of recommendation for a position the colored business man is the one who gives it; when you are seeking a position he is the first man called on to assist you; when you are in trouble he is the first one you look to for aid. The colored business man rarely ever fails to give aid regardless of what demands may be put upon him.

The colored business man to a certain extent must look to you for the success of his business. If you patronize him as you are expected to by the other races you will do your full duty as he always receives his share of the patronage from the other races. If he is successful he provides himself employment for your children. You expect it of him.

The colored people of St. Paul are indeed fortunate in the high standard of integrity of their men in business. Our physicians and dentists are skillful in their line; our attorneys are men of ability, learned in their profession and stand high in legal circles; our merchants carry fresh lines of merchandise with the very latest prices; THE APPEAL is as well equipped to do your printing as any other printing office; our real estate dealer is as well equipped to sell your property or to purchase property for you as any other office in the city; our insurance agents can write your insurance at the same rates and in as reliable insurance companies as any other insurance agency in the city.

The colored business man cannot prosper without your support. You request a great deal of him. ARE YOU GIVING HIM YOUR AID, SUPPORT AND ENCOURAGEMENT?

A COLORED BUSINESS MAN.
