ant Ray Anderson, who she reports as well and enjoying camp life.

On last Easter morning at St. James A. M. E. church the church was very beautifully decorated with flowers and palms and singing birds with the choir in praise to the Risen Lord. Rev. J. M. Henderson omitted the usual sermon to give an opportunity for the presentation of the Easter cantata, "The Glory of the Cross" under the direction of Mr. Charles H. Miller, by the senior and junior choirs. It was a very delightful innovation presented with grace, dignity and solemnity by Misses Cornelia Benjamin, Armeta Wilkins, Doris Ervin, Mureal Lucas, Vera Saylor, Lydia Jones and Alice Dean all tastefully gowned in flowing white robes. A six-foot white cross made by the director on which were the words Jesus My Saviour stood on the altar upon which the symbols, movements and recitations were directed. Mrs. Mary Brewin had charge of the decorations. The music throughout was well rendered. The church was crowded to capacity. The Easter offerings were very generous.

SHORTEN THE WAR.

The sooner the irresistible might of this great Republic is organized and put into full action the sooner the war will end. Every dollar invested in Government securities works to shorten the war, to save the lives of American soldiers and sailors.

MEMORIAL MENTIONINGS.

The atmosphere of faith and devotion was very evident in our Easter services last Sunday.

There will be public confessions and the holy supper tomorrow at 11:00 o'clock a. m. and anniversary exercises and baptisms in the evening.

All are invited.

LENDING THEIR BEST CUSTOMERS.

The proceeds of the Liberty Loan, including the greater part of that loaned to our Allies, are being spent for American products—the products of our factories, our farms, our mines, and other industries. In lending to the United States the people of the United States are lending to their best and largest customer and obtaining the safest investment in the world.

THEODORE DRURY, OPERA-IMPRESSARIO, ON TRANS-CONTINENTAL RECITAL TOUR.

Our city may look forward to an appearance here in Song-Recital of Theodore Drury, formerly of New York, but now of Boston, Mass. Mr. Drury has produced, with all Colored talent, such operas as "Aida," "Faust," "Carmen," "Cavalleria" and "Pagliacci." This will be his first trip West since he returned from Europe. The Recitals will be unconventional, as scenes from operas will be sung in costume.

SHOE REPAIRING.

GREATER THAN EVER.

The Minnesota State Fair, which is to be held September 2 to 7, is to be operated in the public interest alone. Its slogan this year is to be "The Minnesota State Fair is out to help America feed the World." There can be no halfway attitude on the part of any person or any institution, private or public. In keeping with this fact the Minnesota State Fair this year will present a bigger educational program than ever. Its great underlying purpose will be to encourage the production of more food and the wasting of less of it. Don't forget your great State Fair. It will pay you to attend it.

IN CROSSING THE BUSY STREET.

If pedestrians would follow a simple rule they could always avoid being struck by vehicles, Magistrate House declared in the traffic court recently. In issuing his seventeenth safety bulletin he said: "Pedestrians should bear in mind that when they start to cross a street, no matter from which side, the traffic always approaches them from the left."

"When they reach the middle of the street it approaches them from the right." "Before stepping from the sidewalk always look to the left." "When reaching the middle of the street always look to the right."—New York Mail.

ST. PAUL PUBLIC MARKET

Eighth and Robert Streets. U. S. Food License Nos. G19808, B2490. Near the Emporium and the Golden Rule. A most convenient location. ONLY A HALF BLOCK NORTH OF THE SHOPPERS' LANE ON ROBERT STREET.

The pleasure of personal marketing far outweighs any inconvenience, and the saving enjoyed here is well worth while. A visit to the big Public Market is always a help to the housewife, for it enables her to see just what the market affords and offers her many new ideas to relieve the monotony of the meals. A new food, a fresh vegetable, a delicious fruit, a salad dressing, a juicy steak or roast, a dainty cake, or something out of season might be just what will appeal to her. Or one of the many demonstrations always in progress might suggest a dainty dish or a new way to save or conserve. Besides, the satisfaction of personal selection repays every effort.
